REESE BROTHERS.

It was generally understood, when a dissolution of the firm of Pascoe, Scurry & Co. was decided upon, that E. R. Reese would withdraw and with his brother, J. H. Reese, start a new dry goods store. Announcement of this fact was made yesterday. The new firm will be known as Reese Brothers and will ance. Stephens has an opclation tomorrow tion on it. But he expects to get a lease on the Morgan building, which he now occupies.

$16,000 REAL ESTATE DEAL.

J. J. Reigeluth, proprietor of the "Fair" store, has purchased the building which he occupies of W. D. Evans, paying $16,000. The property is one of e most desirable in the city and while the price is not considered too high, it shows there has been no depreciation in the value of business properties. The second story is occupied by Dr. Spen-cer, dentist, and Assembly hall.

the fact that court heard the case and did not unseat him, it must be conceded that the acts of the majority of the council were binding and thus my election as treasurer was perfectly legal. About that time the Republican correspondent said a good deal about the lilegality of three men doing the borough business, when there were really four; yet in to-day's letter he defends the acts of the other three in notifying the ex-treasurer not to pay any meney to me as perfectly

Now a few words regarding the recemp-tion of those seven bonds three months after I was elected treasurer. John W. Grant says: "Before Edmunds' case was settled the bonds fell due and the treas-urer redeemed them." I was treasurer then and I did not redeem them. These bonds were redeemed Jun 3, 1899. One of them would have failen due July 15, 1899, and the other six would not have failen due until July 15, 1990. Now this is a flat contradiction to Grant's statement, Grant is well known in this vicinity, so am I. The public have a right to decide which is telling the truth. But I have the docu-ment in my possession at present to show nent in my possession at present to shew that I am right; what has Grant to show? The correspondent further says that the auditors' report for 1898-90 fully contradicts my statements. That is not to be wondered at. It also contradicts Mr. Walker's statements, which may be a surprize to Mr. Grant. The ex-treasurer admits having redeemed the bonds June 5, 1509; the auditors' report shows that they were redeemed to blooks that were redeemed previous to March 9. And the bank books corroborate

THEATRICAL.

"At Piney Ridge."

Last night at the Lyceum a company headed by David Higgins and Miss Geor-gia Waldron presented "At Pincy Ridge" for the second time this season.

The drama was written by Mr. Higgins who is seen in the leading male role, Jack Rose. The story of the play is one of intense interest and is developed most satisfactory way. Supporting Mr. Higgins and Miss Waldron are a number of very good actors who assisted the principals last night in giving a most sat stactory performance. The staging of the play is one of its strong features.

"The Commodore" Tonight. Tonight at the Academy of Music the Klimt-Hearn company will present "The Commodere," a naval drama. This af-ternoon "The Great Diamond Robbery" will be repeated.

"Because She Loved Him So."

"Because She Loved Him So," which is to be presented at the Lyceum tomorrow evening, has just closed its second remarkably triumphaat run in Boston. It is played here by the same company as Seen during its ran of nearly 200 lights at the Madison Square theater, New York. The piece is a high chass farce from the successful pen of William Gli-lette, the author of "Sherlock Holmes," A GREAT OFFORTUNITY TO BUY A E-room Jefferson avenue dwelling with hear and two lets all improvements

"Secret Service," etc. "Because She Loved Him So," has been styled "The Little Minister of Farce," on account of the deficate and refined humor that pervades it and the heart reaching sentiment of its story. No light piece yet offered by Charles Frohman has given such general satisfaction, and none has been so highly protect. It is a play that defined works of the dense for the dense old and young alike enjoy for its story appeals strongly to them both.

In regard to the questions at issue I will still maintain that it was not only improper but illegal for Mayfield's ex-treasurer to pay any accounts without orders from council. I admit that at the time of the council's organization last March there was a ques-tion as to the right of one of the council-men to take his seat. But in the light of

"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine, nor any other narcotic. "I have taken four bottles of 'Favorite Pre-scriptiou' for female weakness and change of life," writes Mrs. Lizzie A. Bowman, of New Matamoras, Washington Co., Ohio. "Before I began taking it I could not do anything. I had such pains in my head and in the back of my neck that I though I would lose my mind. New I can work every day and do not suffer. I rec-ommend 'Favorite Prescription' to all women suffering in the period of change of hite. It is the best medicine I have ever found."
