EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

PUBLIC MEETING IN BEHALF OF THE VIADUCT.

Will Be Held This Evening in St. David's Hall Under the Direction of the Campaign Committee-Proposed Reception for Ladies Who Raised the Ambulance Fund. Washington Birthday Dinner and Supper-Rev. Ruddy Transferred. Other Events of Interst.

The opponents of the viaduct will have a chance to declare themselves openly and above board this evening. hen a public meeting will be held in St. David's hall, under the direction of the special committee appointed from the board of trade to carry on the campaign. During the past week several agencies have been at work endeavoring to create sentiment against the proposed structure, and have even gone so far as to have printed placards tacked up in conspicuous places. The leaders of this movement are especially invited to the meeting this evening to hear the arguments in favor of the viaduct and to be heard along opposition lines.

ACTIVE FOR THE VIADUCT.

The board of trade committee is composed of reputable business and professional men and are working in the interest of public improvements for West Scranton. A glance over the list of names will prove that assertion. They are T. Fellows Mason, grocer; William Farrell, grocer; P. F. Struppof Clarke Bros., and Hon. John R. Farr, editor and speaker of the house of representatives.

Other members of the board who are active in the work are Charles E. Dan-leis, attorney-at-law: Hector Campbell, "flash-lighted" the party. commission merchant; B. G. Morgan, druggist; H. D. Jones, ex-city assessor; Joseph Oliver, ex-common councilman; Councilman Richard H. Williams Thomas Watkins, Charles E. Godshall, Peter McCann, Simon Thomas, W. V. Griffiths, P. F. Calpin, T. F. Morris, M. J. Norton, Edward James, J. J. Mc-Andrew, City Engineer Joseph P. Phillips and many others.

The meeting this evening will commence at $ o'clock and addresses will be delivered by President Daniels, Hon, John R. Farr, T. Fellows Mason and others. The committee invite every one interested in the viaduct to attend and listen to the explanations of cost, construction, etc., which will be given by the speakers.

"REMOVE THE DANGER!"

A flaring poster with the above headline has been conspicuously hung in the windows of many business places along Main avenue, calling the attention of voters to the necessity for sup-

Gentlemen, Lend Us Your Eyes for a Minute

Of course, you wear white shirts-at least most men do; but only a few men wear shirts that fit correctly and allord perfect comfort, under every and all conditions. Now, the peculiarity about our white shirts is that if you give us your proper measurements, we will guarantee the fit of every shirt you buy.

Then, as to workmanship, materials and fashions. Trust us for all of these, or if you have made such points a study and positively know what's what, we'll cheerfully submit the result of our twenty years' careful study of the perfect shirt problem, feeling assured that there can be but one verdict, viz.: that our ideas cannot be improved upon.

The Annual Shirt Waist Sale

Is now in full blast. The special values submitted are not factory clearances or any other kind of job lots with faults that show up in the laundry. We offer nothing but perfect goods taken from regular stock and as prices have advanced fully a third at the factory since we placed an order last Summer for these shirts, and the fig- ternoon. ures we name as actual values are the same as have been in force for three years, the reasons why you should take advantage of this wonderful shirt sale are too obvious to require further elaboration.
