

GROWING OLD.

TO THOSE who have passed the meridian of life, the thought of growing old and becoming helpless is not a pleasant one. There is little to fear, however, providing one looks carefully after one's health.

To those 60 and 70 years of age, and more, and who require a tonic to aid nature, there is nothing can equal Warner's Safe Cure. It is a purely vegetable preparation and keeps the kidneys and liver in good order, aiding the circulation of the blood, especially necessary at this season of the year, and stopping the cause which compels the arising at night and which to many is a source of great discomfort.

Hundreds of testimonials can be given from men and women who bless the day their attention was first called to Warner's Safe Cure. A single unsolicited testimonial is herewith appended:

I take pleasure in testifying to the merits of Warner's Safe Cure. I am now 70 years of age and have been a great sufferer from kidney and liver complaint for a good many years. I tried great many remedies, but to no benefit until I was advised by an old acquaintance of mine who had been taking Safe Cure for the same complaint, to try it, which I did, and after using two bottles felt better and have taken altogether one-half dozen bottles and feel like a new man.

W. C. EDGAR, Notary Public at Conventer, Alanson, Mich.

Medical advice free. Address Warner's Safe Cure Co., Rochester, N. Y. Microscopical examinations on application.

CARBONDALE.

POLITICAL SITUATION.

W. H. Masters Withdraws in the Fifth Ward—Warm Campaign.

This is one of the hottest campaigns for local offices the city ever had. Many causes contribute to the heat of the occasion. In the first place the Democrats split at their convention and as a result Thomas J. Boylan is putting up an independent and vigorous fight against the regular nominee, Mr. Gallagher, for school director in the Fifth ward.

Then, Mayor Kilpatrick desires to dispense with the services of the present police force, as he is intimated unmistakably in his recent message to council. This and other things which seem to him desirable he cannot do while G. F. Switzer dominates the select council. In order to get rid of Mr. Switzer, of the First ward, and to elect a Democratic selectman in the Fifth ward has a big Republican majority—E. E. Hummel and W. H. Masters, respectively, were put in the field under the popular guise of municipal water, the object being, of course, not to elect these men but to split the Republican vote and elect the Democratic candidates. Well, Mr. Masters has withdrawn and this leaves no question as to the election of Dr. Fletcher. Mr. Hummel is still in the race, but Mr. Switzer's clean record, his circular depicting him for municipal water under certain conditions and the nominally overwhelming Republican majority in that ward, indicate that Mr. Hummel and Mr. Barrett, the Democratic candidate, will be distanced before tomorrow.

But overshadowing all these contests in general interest is the candidacy of Professor H. J. Hockenberry for school director in the four upper wards. The professor is a Prohibitionist, but he received the Democratic endorsement. There is no party significance in his effort. Tribuna readers are familiar with the charges preferred against him by ex-Superintendent of Schools Forbes—charges which the school board has decided to ignore, owing to lack of evidence. Finding no other means of redress, the professor decided, as he put it, to refer his case to the court of last resort—the people. During seventeen years as principal of the High school the professor has made a great many friends who believe he is being persecuted. He came from under a car which knocked down and run over. Then he walked unaided several hundred feet to the office of Master Mechanic Stoutenger, where he remarked in a matter-of-fact way that his arm had been crushed. Mr. Stoutenger bandaged the member and summoned a locomotive and car, by which the injured man was conveyed to Hospital street, a point very near the hospital. Upon examination it was found that not only was his arm crushed but his left shoulder and all the ribs of the left side were broken.

He remained conscious to the last and was visited by his family and Father Griffin.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

Heart failure very unexpectedly ended the life of Patrick O'Connor, of Wyoming street, Saturday afternoon. He had not been confined to his bed and the end came as a great shock to the family. Mr. O'Connor was born in Ireland, fifty-five years ago. He came to this country and settled in Wyoming street, following the trade of stone mason. In 1871 he took up his residence in Carbondale. For many years he was in the employ of the Delaware and Hudson company, but for more than a decade he had been conducting his honest business methods brought him success and he acquired considerable property. He was a member of St. Rose church and of the Catholic Knights of America. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. M. R. Campbell, Mrs. John Gilmore and Mrs. E. P. Hecker; two sons, Joseph B. and Charles P. O'Connor.

DEATH OF TWO CHILDREN.

Mrs. Michael Campbell and three children were visiting at the McAndrew home on Battle avenue, when the little four-year-old girl was taken with diphtheria. She died Saturday morning, after four days' illness, and was interred Saturday afternoon in St. Rose cemetery.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Lillian Slavson, of Port Jervis, is the guest of Miss Helen Shields. Francis Campbell, of Moscow, who has been visiting friends in this city, is now a guest in Wyoming. James Healey, of this city, has secured a situation with Connolly & Wallace, of Scranton. G. B. Van Gorder has returned from Cortland, N. Y., where he was called by the illness of his brother.

Mrs. George Keville and his daughters are visiting friends in Wilkes-Barre. Miss Lulu Foster, of Mill street, spent Sunday with Plutson friends.

The funeral of William McMullen will be held this morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. M. A. Sawyer, of Trinity church, will officiate. Interment will be made in the McMullen plot at South Canaan.

"OPPORTUNITY is the cream of time." Now is your opportunity to cure Hood's Sarsaparilla and derive the entire benefit of the party. His record in connection with the sewer contract let last fall will militate against him. He was one of those who voted to let the contract to a bidder $2,000 higher than the lowest and caused a deadlock of several weeks. His defeat is as certain as anything in politics can be one day before election.

OLYPHANT.

A temporary organization of the Olyphant Taxpayers' Protective association was formed at the borough council room on Friday night. A large number of citizens were present and heartily supported the movement. Mr. David E. Lewis was chosen chairman; S. J. Matthews, secretary; J. Frank Jordan and G. A. Prokopovitz, vice-presidents. A variety of views were freely expressed as to the work to be performed by the organization, but all were unanimous in their opinion that it was a step in the right direction. About forty names were enrolled, after which a committee consisting of Joseph A. Dolphin, James W. Kennedy, J. Frank Jordan and G. A. Prokopovitz was appointed to draft bylaws. The meeting then adjourned to meet next Friday evening, when a permanent organization will be effected. Frank P. McLaughlin spent yesterday at Providence. Daniel Dawson, of upper Dunmore street, was seriously injured while performing his duties at No. 2 mine on Saturday morning by a fall of rock. He received several bad fractures on the head and his back was injured. He was removed to his home in the company ambulance. John J. Williams, of Blakely, has accepted a position as fire boss at Johnson's slope. The Lenten social of the Juvenile Dancing class, which will be held on Wednesday evening, promises to be one of the leading social events of the season. About 200 invitations have been issued for the affair. Lawrence's superb orchestra will furnish the music. A vote cast by P. L. Williams, of the office of borough auditor will be a vote cast for the right man. Tomorrow's election promises to be one of the fiercest battles ever contested in this borough. The fight for burgess will be a most interesting one, there being three candidates in the field: John J. Manning, Democrat; S. McVicar, Republican, and W. J. Schumbehl, Independent. A lively time is expected in the First ward, where so much trouble has been experienced in selecting a judge of election. The court on Saturday appointed M. P. O'Malley to act in that capacity.

am a candidate for burgess and intend to use all honorable efforts at my command to obtain my election, and to the citizens in the event of my election a clean administration in the interest of the taxpayers, without fear or favor, by reason of not being hampered by political ties or pledges, only that pledge which the office itself necessarily carries. Experience as police officer compels me to bring to the notice of our voters that the physical location of our borough really demands that the burgess should be situated in close vicinity to the borough building.

Every intelligent person no doubt will readily see the force of the argument. Thanking all my friends in advance for their kind efforts in my behalf I have the honor to remain respectfully at your service.

"C. J. Ganzmuller." The alarm of fire sounded at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening from box No. 5 was caused by a lamp which was the incubator establishment of George Williams, of Lackawanna street. The building is located in close proximity to several buildings. When the flames were discovered they were shooting from the roof of the building and W. F. Ketchum's large barn was in flames. The Wilsons were promptly on hand, but their services were not needed, as a bucket brigade placed the flames under control. A lamp burning in a brooder either exploded or coming in contact with the woodwork was the cause of the fire.
