NORTH SCRANTON NOTES.
Pleasant Social at North Main Avenue Baptist Church—Oyster Supper Served—Other Notes.
The social and entertainment at the North Main Avenue Baptist church last evening was a delightfully pleasant event. The musical part of the occasion included two numbers by Johns: "The Star Spangled Banner" by William Evans, with trio accompaniment by young ladies, and a duet by Misses Owens and Henwood.
An address was made by the pastor, Rev. S. G. Rending, on the progress of the church work. He said the encouragement received towards the new church project was such as to lead to the conclusion that the building enterprise may be commenced the coming summer. Following the remarks of the pastor refreshments were served.

COLONIAL TEA AND CONCERT.
An excellent entertainment was given in the First Welsh Baptist church last evening under the auspices of the Baptist Young People's union, which was attended by a very large audience. Rev. D. D. Hopkins presided, and several pleasing tableaux were presented. The participants were Misses Elizabeth Lewis, Eleanor Williams, John Evans, Mrs. D. B. Thomas, Elizabeth Hughes, Martha Davis, Margaret Thomas, John Thomas, Barbara Lewis, Norma Hughes and a double quartette.
The tea was served in the Sunday school room and was strictly in accordance with colonial ideas. The menu consisted of bread, butter, jelly, tea and cake. The ladies who served refreshments were Mrs. John Reynolds, Elizabeth Lewis, Margaret Jones, Margaret Williams, May Richards, Edith Jenkins, Cassie Howell, Laura Roderick, Bertha Kelly, May Davis, Barbara Lewis, Mame Phillips, May Howell, Jennie Freeman, Mary James, Annie Howell, Catherine Phillips, Sarah Meredith, Sarah Thomas and Dora Jones.
The reception committee was composed of Misses Martha Davis, Elizabeth Hughes, Hugh Williams, Luther Lewis and David Hopkins. Others who assisted were Misses Mary Davis, Jennie Jenkins, Eleanor Jones, Ruth Jones, Mrs. Richard Thomas, Sarah Jones, Norma Williams, Mrs. Job, Maria

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?
Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing, and takes the place of coffee. The more GRAIN-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. GRAIN-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice of coffee, but costs but about 1/4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

QUICK RELIEF

Got a headache? Never been able to find anything to relieve it? Never mind—Try Dr. James' Headache Powders. Absolutely harmless—couldn't hurt a baby. But they will cure headache. Don't take a substitute. At all Drug Stores, 4 doses 10 cents.

SALVATION ARMY RALLY.
This evening the special meeting in the Salvation Army hall will be conducted by Major Jenkins, of Philadelphia, and Major MacFarlane, of Wilkes-Barre. Major Jenkins is the general secretary to Brigadier Gifford and second in command of the army on the Atlantic coast. He is a fluent and interesting speaker and a Salvationist of many years' standing.

DUNMORE.
The news of the death of Mrs. E. H. Spettigue, which occurred at Honesdale last Sunday morning, occasioned general sorrow in this borough, where the deceased was very well known. She was 83 years of age and had resided on North Blakely street, for several years, her husband being overseer of the Pennsylvania Coal company's farm, with his headquarters here. About three weeks ago deceased was stricken with paralysis, from which she never rallied. Her husband and seven children survive her, who are: Mrs. H. H. Higgins, of Scranton; Mrs. Julius Spaeth, of Carbondale; Mrs. Frank Lent, Miss Sadie Spettigue; Messrs. O. L. Spettigue, William Spettigue and George Spettigue, of Honesdale. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, services and interment being made in Honesdale.
The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church served a most delightful feast to a large number at the Sunday school rooms of the church last evening. Supper was served from 6 to 9 o'clock and a pleasant social hour followed.
Michael J. Murray, a student at the University of Pennsylvania, is home visiting his parents on Drinker street. Misses Cornelia Galpin and Ella Bronson are home from school on a short vacation.
Mat McHugh is about to leave for Missouri.
