LIVELY SCRIMMAGE.

Professional Pittstonians Have an Encounter in a Lawyer's Office. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Pittston, Feb. 27.-Attorney P. A. O'Boyle's office in the Miners' bank building was the scone of a lively scrimmage last evening, in which several prominent professional men were involvel. A law suit between two business men was being given a hearing. Attorney Charles Bohan appearing for the prosecution and Attorney John McGahren, of Willes-Barre, for the defense. The trouble occurred be-tween Dr. Mahon, a witness for the defense, and Attorney Bohan. The doctor was being examined by Mr. Bohan and was seated in a chait. To one of the questions asked the doctor gave a reply which was not entirely to the liking of Attorney Bohan, and the lat-ter attacked the doctor and struck him a blow on the head. Dr. Mahon retaliated and struck the attorney several blows in defense. A scuffle ensued in which the lawyer yelled "murder" and cried for help. The men were quickly parted and the doctor's shirt and collar were seen to be spat-tered with blood, which flowed freely from a cut on his head. It is thought the cut was done with a pocket knife, although none was noticed in the aggressors hand. A cut on the doctor's coat collar and another on the front of the coat seem conclusive proof to the doctor that some one had a knife. A warrant will be sworn out Wed-nesday morning for Mr. Bohan's ar-

KILLED ON THE TRACK.

Mr. Morgan Steps in Front of a Lehigh Valley Train. Special to the Scranton Tribune

Tunkhannock, Feb. 27-Mr. Morgan, a resident of this pince, was struck and instantly killed by train No. 1, on the Lehigh Valley about 3 o'clock this afternoon. The accident occurred at the railroad bridge just below town. Morgan was walking on the cast bound track toward the station, and to get out of the way of a train approaching on that track, stepped on the westbound track directly in front of train No. 1. He was thrown some distance from the track and when picked up was dead. His skull was crushed in and one arm and one leg broken.

The body was removed to the undertaking rooms of R. C. Cook and later to the deceased's residence. Morgan had resided here about a year, living with his son, an operator on the Valley, on North Bridge street, and was about 61 years old. Several accidents of a similar nature have occurred at the same place/

FOREST CITY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Forest City, Feb. 27 .- An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Wakefield, of Railroad street, died of convulsions Saturday. The funeral was held from the house yesterday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Yale, of Cold friends in Binghamton a few days las week. Miss Florence Inderlied called on

a party of her friends at her home last Wednesday evening in honor of her friend, Miss Charlotte Hutchings. Miss May Boyle, who is spending the winter with relatives in Susquehanna, spent a few days with her parents here last week. Rev. I. D. Mallery is conducting reival meetings at South New Milford. At the close of the Sunday morning service at the Baptist church eleven young people were baptized by Rev. L D. Mallery, pastor of that church. Miss Inez Blessing, a teacher in the public schools at Elmhurst, is spending a short time with her parents here, the school being closed on account of diphtheria.

Dr. B. F. Carey's Comedy company, epresenting the Oregon Indian Medicine company, opened an engagement of entertainment and business at the pera house Monday evening. The members of the Presbyterian enurch choir were pleasantly entertained by Miss Jennie Moore at her home on Church street last Wednesday evening

SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY.

Special to The Scranton Tribune.

Susquehanna, Feb. 27.-Prominent range the wages of local switchmen. The funeral of the late Hon. Alvin fall, Devereaux, a prominent resident of De- | posit, will occur on Wednesday morning. Charles Weathers Bump, night editor of the Baltimore Sun, last summer took river from Cooperstown to the Chesapeake bay, and his experience and observations have b en put in.o a book, "Down the Historic Susquehanna." From Afton to Binghamton he learned much about the Mormons, who had their beginning in Susquehanna; of the part played in the early development of the valley near Lanesboro by Colonel Thomas Pickering, Washington's secretary of state; and of Red Rock, and the islands near Great Bend, which he found to be prolific in Indian traditions. Lackawanna Conductor Gould Capwell and Brakeman William Snediker, of Hallstend, were on Monday arraigned in Paterson on charges of manslaughter, on account of a recent wreck in that city. Trial has been postponed for two weeks.

Rev. P. Parke Cadman, D. D., pastor of the Metropolitan temple, in New York, last evening lectured in the "Hallstead citizens' lecture course."

Subject, "Life in London." It is understood that Susa

Lackawanna's system of paying employes by check. Hallstead half expects that the Binghamton Street Railway company will extend its tracks to that borough next summer.

There may be better newspapers than the Scranton Tribune in Northeastern Pennsylvania, but they do not come to Susquehanna.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Tunkhannock, Feb. 27 .-- At the court house this afternoon B. W. Lewis, acting for Lucy Renshaw, executrix of A church held a social at the home of W. Renshaw, deceased, the sold the Mrs. James Hayden Tuesday evening, real estate of the decedent at public Rev. F. M. Davenport and wife, of sale for the payment of debts. The property consisted of three pieces in in the southern end of the borough and all three were bid in by W. E. Osterhout, the judgment creditor. The first piece lies along the bank of Tunkhannock creek and has been talked of at different times for a public park and efforts have been made to have the borough purchase it. The annual re-Erie officials are in town today, to ar- union of the Wyoming County Veteran's association was held there last > Henry Bailey, of Nicholson, was in Tunkhannock on Tuesday. C. B. Fassett, of Forkston, was in own this afternoon. The labels to be used by the Tunka beat trip down the Su-quehanna hannock Canning company on the goods they will put up at their factory here, will be printed at Buffalo, it being cheaper to have them printed there than to run a printing plant of their own. The abels selected by the directors will bear on one side a repesentation of the Black Diamond express, the fast train of the Lehigh Valley, and one the otner a picture of the ontents of the can, and their goods will be known by the trade mark Black Diamond."

Mrs. Alvin Day, wife of the editor f the Wyoming Democrat, is visiting in Wilkes-Barre and Pittston this week.

Mrs. W. G. Graham has returned from Scranton, where she has been visiting relatives.

Testimony in the divorce suit of Frances Boardman vs. Howard Boardman was taken before Asa S. Keeler, esq., this afternoon. Dr. L. E. Meade will spend the next goes to take a special course of lec-to the national convention at Philadelphia in June will also be selected. The primaries for this convention will be held at the usual time and place on Saturday preceding.

The Scranton Dairy company has purchased the West Nicholson creamery, and it will remain closed the com-ing season. The milk formerly consumed there will be drawn to LaPlume condensery by wagon. The creamery was owned by a stock company composed of farmers, or dairymen, and consumed the milk of about three hundred cows.

Owen Risley, of Springville, took pity on a stranger who came along in search of work and gave him a job. Two or three days after entering upon his luties he disappeared with Mr. Risley's pocketbook, containing $25. He was captured near Lakeside and the money recovered. Mr. Risley did not prose-cute and the prisoner was discharged. The German club of Keystone academy held their annual banquet last Saturday evening at the house of Mrs. Albert Briggs, on Mill street. About twenty were present and enjoyed the festivities of the evening. The toastmaster was Ray C. Kemmerer and his subject was "The Truth Is Always Right." He was responded to by Charles Leber, on "The Weish." "Great familles of yesterday in show, and lords whose parents were, the Lord knows who." John T. Richards spoke on "The Germans." "People will not look forward to posterity, who never look backward to their ancestry." Professor Bromley Smith took up the subject, "Keystone Gir's." "As living jewels dropped unstained f om heaven." W. J. Wintermute, "The German Club." "A hit, a very palpable hit." The menu was as follows: Pressed chicken, olives, buns, potato salad, fried oysters, tomatoes, oranges, Sweitzer cheese, sandwiches, ice cream, cake, cocoa. The Tribune correspondent was misinformed in regard to the case of scarlet fever at the home of Mrs. Eliza Carr, which was reported in yester lay's Tribune. The Carr boy has a mild at tack of illness, and the house has not been quarantined or placarded.
