EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH FAIR CLOSED LAST EVENING.

After Two Months of Continued Pleasure and Profit the Event Has Been Terminated Until After Easter-Tenth Annual Banquet at Tabernacle Church-First Legislative District Fight-Chicken Thieves Caught-Funerals of a Day-Minor News Notes.

The fair and festival which has been in progress at St. Patrick's church since Dec. 22 last, was brought to a close last evening, owing to the approach of the Lenten season. Nearly all of the smaller articles have been disposed of and what remains will be removed from the church to the basement of the parochial school on South summer avenue and kept there until after Easter, when several contests now pending will be decided and the remainder of the articles disposed of. There yet remains the piano, sidecoard, heating stove, bed room suite, book case, cupboard, gold watch, safe, $20 gold piece and other valuable articles to be chanced off.

The fair has been a disappointment insofar as the realization of sufficient money to liquidate the indebtedness but a snug sum has, nevertheless, been realized. The contest for Father Whalen's horse netted considerable and it is expected the safe contest will largely increase the receipts. From a social point of view the fair was a grand suc- entertained the Tuesday Afternoon club cess and the entertainments furnished | Yesterday afternoon. were enjoyed by thousands of people.

One of the pleasantest features of the fair, and which added considerable to the receipts, was the refreshment booth under the supervision of Mrs. Patrick Conway, Mrs. Martin Durkin. Misses Mary Griffin and Mary Durkin. These ladies were constant in their attendance and served cake and coffee to hundreds of patrons each evening.

The articles disposed of last night were as follows: Rocker, Miss Nora Kelly, 721 Scranton street; picture, Mrs. James McCann, Chestnut street; picture of Rev. J. B. Whelan, St. Joseph's Foundling Home; lace center piece, Miss Mary Cannon, Filmore avenue; lace handkerchief, Mrs. M. T. Howley, Irving avenue: Bible, T. New Silks For Spring....

Fashions may come and go, seasons may change and new generations may replace the old, but the time's vagaries and changes run as they may, there is one thing they never drive out, namely, Stlks, for

Silks Are Always Fashionable

It is true, the weaves, the colorings and effects DO change and lead the way for inferior materials to follow, but Silk, as a fabric, will be a favorite for all time to come and under all circumstances for ladies' apparel, and there is not a well-bred woman on earth who would have it otherwise.

The Silks for 1900 Are Lovely

And we cordially invite you to come and see them. All the other stores in this city put together cannot show you such an extensive and exquisite assortment as we have prepared for your inspection, and as most of the novelties are exclusive the value of the present opening is vastly enhanced.

Among the Novelties Shown Are

New weaves for Waists in Hemstitched Cord Effects, Grenadines that you cannot find elsewhere, Mousselines in wonderfully artistic effects, Crepe-de-Chenes lovelier than ever, Poplins, Tatfetas of lovely finish and richness of hue, Peau de Soie weaves, etc. Add to these our latest shipments of Corded and Fancy "Jap" Silks for Spring Waists and the immense line of staples always carried in stock and brought right up to date for this display, and you have an event in the Silk Selling History of Scranton that stands without a parallel.

CHICKEN THIEVES CAUGHT. Mrs. P. Gallagher, of Luzerne street, has been annoyed by chicken thieves for some time, and as a result several valuable fowls have disappeared from the hennery. Last Saturday night a neighbor named Mulkern noticed two young men acting suspiciously on the premises and in a short time one of them entered the barn, while the other remained outside to keep watch.

Mr. Mulkern summoned his son, and together they went in search of the intruders. They succeeded in capturing the fellow in the barn, but the other escaped. The one caught in the act gave his name as Langan and said he lived on Hampton street, and his companion's name is Rogers, who resides in the Sloan patch.

Langan was allowed to depart, owing to Mrs. Gallagher's inability to prosecute him at the time, but it is understood that warrants will be sworn out for the arrest of both of the ing of the Hose Companies-Received Forty Votes More Than His Opponent, W. S. Potter-Funeral of Esther Camin-Other Funerals to Be Held Today-Interesting News Notes and a Number of Personal Briefs.

The new chief of the borough fire de-partment is P. J. Teevan. The dele-gates of the Neptune, Independent, John B. Smith, A. D. Spencer and Electric Hose companies elected him at a meeting held in the borough building last evening, at which considerable interest and enthusiasm was evidenced The two nominees were W. S. Potter and P. J. Teevan, and the vote was: Teevan, 108; Potter, 63.

The newly-elected chief is a member of the A. D. Spencer Hose company, and has always taken part in all movements that in any way were of advancement to the borough fire department, and his record as a fire-fighter is one to be envied. He will no doubt adopt some new ideas and materially strengthen the fire department.

The retiring chief, James J. O'Hora, gave the fire laddies excellent advice, and was a general favorite among the men. He held the office three years, during which many noticeable improvements were apparent in the department. Had he not preferred retiring to private life, he would doubtless have been re-elected. The oath of office will be administered to the new chief at the first meeting of council.
