OLYPHANT.

The banquet of the Catholic Men's Benevolent association, which took lace at the Mahon House on Monday night, will long be remembered as one of the most enjoyable affairs ever held at that place. The gathering included the members and their wives and friends. The early part of the evening was spent in dancing to excellent music by the Lawrence orchestra, of Scranton. About 9 o'clock the mempers and their guests repaired to the banquet room and were seated to tables that were very prettily arranged with china, glass, silverware, snowy white linen and palms. The following deliclous menu was served: Chicken consomme, braised turkey, bread dressing, brown gravy, cranberry sauce, mashed otatoes, sweet potatoes, celery, minced ham, sliced veal, India relish, chicken salad, cabbage salad, iced olives, sliced tomatoes, chow chow, chocolate, ribbon and marble cake, oranges, bananas, grapes, assorted candles and nuts, tea. offee, milk, ice cream, angel food. After supper dancing was again resumed and indulged in for several hours. The committee who had charge of the arrangements are B. N. Kennedy, M. J. Lavin, J. C. Boland, John V. Fadden and P. F. O'Malley. The society was organized about ten years ago and has a membership of ninety-five. Its officers are as follows: President, McLaughlin: vice-president, Antol Gilinski; second vice-president. Thomas Gilmartin; treasurer, B. N. Cennedy; recording secretary, P. J. McCormack; financial secretary, P. F. J'Malley.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

Worthy Entertainment to Be Given Tonight-Personal News.

An entertainment, under the auspices of the Women's Home Missionary society, will be given by the Rev. W. A. Dunnett, asissted by the Rine Brothers gospel singers, in the Methodist Episcopal church this evening. The com-mendable work in which the society is engaged is one that appeals to the generosity of all good people, and they should be encouraged tonight by a large attendance. The entertainment on its own merits is well worth seeing and when given at Carbondale a short time ago was spoken very highly of Come and help the ladies in their good work among the poor and needy. Admission, fifteen cents.

Thomas J. Williams, of Third street, and James Sampson, of Second street, are candidates for the office of borough treasurer. Druggist Jones will also seek re-election as clerk of the council. ,The council will meet for reorganization next Monday evening. Mrs. John Pritchard, of West May-

"Miss New York, Jr."

"Miss New York, Jr.," which begins an engagement at the Galety theater Thursday, needs no introduction to our theater-goers. It is one of the greatest favorites now before the public and, like wine, it grows better each year. The show bubbles over with beautiful costumes, gorgeous scenery, lively and catchy music, handsome and shapely girls and clever comedians, combined with unusually fine specialties. The indications are that unusually big houses will prevail throughout the engagement of this company.

A special feature with the show is Donald, Laura Keifer, Ethel Reese, the fight pictures of the McCoy-Maher contest, which are reproduced. The success of the play has been remarkable. It caters to all classes of theater-goers and presents a strong moral without a sermon being preached to you. It is owing to this latter point that it has aroused the interest of the clergy in the different cities in which it has been presented. During the engagement at the Manhattan theater, New York, numerous clergymen in Brooklyn used it as a text for their Sunday sermons.

LITTLEFIELD OF MAINE.

Something About the Man Who Took Congress by Storm. Walter Wellman in Times Herald.

Littlefield of Maine was the hero of the day. He is looked upon as the rising man of his state, and indeed of the house. Twice in six weeks has he conquered the lower branch by force of his intellect, his learning in the law, his courage, his skill as a public speaker. Oddly enough, both his triumphs have been in opposition to his own, the Re-publican side of the house. The spectu-cle of a man of commanding intellectual ability fighting his own party for con-science sake is so novel in Washington that even those who are unable to agree with the man from Maine in his present contention are among his most enthusistic admirers.

vertising that "Sapho" received over eighteen hundred persons crowded into the Lyceum last night to see the pro-Splendid type of the down-east Yankee stamped vividly upon him. He has that Maine characteristic of marshaling his facts in platoons of cavalry, which gallop and rush and charge into action-Blaine had it most strikingly; Reed had it, al-though he was slow of speech; Dingley had it, though he tacked voice, and both Hale and Frye at their best have it. Littlefield is a cyclone in debate. His facts, his illustrations, his wit, his side thrusts, come in such profusion and at such an amazing rate that it is all the most alert listener can do to keep up with him. He beats the best stenogragraphers in congress. Nor do such able and experienced debaters as Grosven Payne, Dalzell, Hopkins and others of the Republican leadership care to measure swords with him. They let him alone to day. None wished to take up the gage of battle which he so defiantly threw at them, but all sat silent, uneasy and ervous, It was galling, too, when they stopped to think that this man came to Washing-ton for the first time less than three months ago, and sixty days back had never been heard of outside his native state. In free America you can never tell when a great debater, a great poet, a great artist or a great leader of the people is going to spring up right out of the soil.
