Former Stroudsburg Citizen Has Promising Libel Suit-Sabbath School Convention.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Stroudsburg, Feb. 28 .- Rev. Chandler A. Oakes, a former pastor of the East Stroudsburg Presbyterian church, and the man who started the subscription at East Stroudsburg, has brought suit for libel against the New York Press for $50,000 damages. Dr. Oakes left this vicinity a few years ago and was known as a great worker. His charge after leaving this town was at Kingston, N. Y. At this place he had some trouble with the consistory of the church, two years ago, about the time classis met to determine whether he should continue in charge of the church or not. The New York Press published a long article under a Kingston date line, in which the assertion was made that there were charges of gross minconduct against Pastor Oakes. At the time of the church trial before classis Dr. Oakes did not see the Press article. It did not come to his notice till a year or so after. When he saw it, after careful consideration, he decided to begin action for libel. After leaving his Kingston charge Dr. Oakes took up the study of law and was admitted to the bar last fall. He has retired from the Reformed ministry and is now a communicant of the Episcopal church. Before going to Kingston Dr. Oakes was the assistant of Rev. T. Dewitt Taimage at the Prooklyn tabernacle. He is now a member of a Kingston law firm. He was one of the lawyers for Teller Seiple, the defaulting bank clerk at East Stroudsburg.

The sixth ennual convention of Mon-roe county Sabbath schools continued its session today. The meeting was held in the Methodist Episcopal The attendance today was fairly good. A sensible Christian use bible was the first subject taken up and was the topic of an address by Rev. H. G. Main, of the Cherry Valley This address was discussed by Mrs. T. F. Kane, Rev. Mr. Bomberger and others. Rev. Mr. Bom-berger, superintendent of normal department, addressed the convention on the teachers' training, saying among other things: "We can hever make the Sunday school what it should be until the teachers make special preparations for the important work assigned." After the address the enrollment and appointing of delegates to the various places of entertainment took place. Mrs. John Barnes, of the state primary department, was the last speaker of the morning's session taking for her subject: "Studying the Class Roll." "Faith as a Qualification for Efficient Sunday School Work, was discussed by Itev. S. G. Hutchman of the First Presbyterian

Nicholson, Feb. 28.-Tuesday evening there was a little unusual excitement at the Niver House, when the lace curtains in the sitting room were discovered to be all ablaze. The fire was soon extinguished and no damage done outside of the one room. Cause of fire unknown. Perhaps, should the whole town burn down the citizens here would then be foolish enough to invest in a fire protection of some kind otherwise than insurance.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review. New York, Feb. 28 .- Edivence accumulated as the day progressed in the stock market that the short interest in the group of specialties, which has recently been declining, had become unwieldy and before the day had closed an urgent demand developed for these stocks from the bears, who overstayed the market, and who were eager bidders for stock to cover short contracts. Thus the apparent anomaly of stocks concerning which were unfavorable news was still uncontra-dicted, or new facts developed of a still more favorable character. The closing was active and strong at about the best. Total sales, 531,500 shares. The bond market was not very active but was firm. Total sales, par value, $1,595,000. United States 5s coupons advanced ½ and also registered old four and 3s ¼ and new 4s declined ½ in the bid price.
