NEWARK, N. J., January 25, 1900. "For nearly five years I suffered from kidney and liver troubles and had given up hope that I would ever be cured. I was told by the doctor that I had Bright's disease, and he thought I was incurable. My legs swelled up so with dropsy that I thought I was done for. A friend told me to use Warner's Safe Cure and I did. I used in all about 6 bottles. It is a great remedy and made me a new man." PATRICK KELLY,

REMAINS FOUND.

Body of LaFrance Boy Recovered Saturday Afternoon.

After a search of forty-eight hours the remains of Stanley LaFrance, who fell in the river Thursday, were found just before dark Saturday half buried in culm in the river bed, a short distance below the Ontario and Western Mayfield yard.

The swift current had carried the body about two miles and one-half and its dourney was ended by some willows in which it was caught. skull was crushed, right choulder dislocated and face somewhat distorted.

The funeral will be held at the First Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock this

Mrs. F. L. Taylor has returned from Members of Red Jacket Lodge Entertain Their Friends.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Factoryville, Pa., March 4 .- Odd Fellows responded in large numbers to the roll call and banquet of Red Jacket Council meets in regular session this evening. There has been considerable lodge, No. 254, I. O. O. F., on Friday evening, March 2, 1900. It might be well to mention right here a few facts in regard to the history of Red Jacket lodge, No. 524, I. O. O. F., as given by Past Grand J. G. Capwell, who read a paper on the history of the lodge Mr. Ira Bohner and Mr. Ira Jenkins and which comprised a part of the programme in the exercises Friday evening. Red Jacket lodge, No. 524, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce F. Conner left was instituted Feb. 6, 1856, in the hall now occupied by the Masonic lodge with nine charter members, the names of which were Rev. B. B. The Information Contained in This Paragraph Is of More Value Than Anything Else in This Paper.

The average man is a doubter. It is due to this fact that we are constantly making strikes in science and physics. In the face of such evidence as is presented below no man possessed with ordinary common sense can doubt. If any exist, call on Mr. John Cavanaugh, of 537 Orchard street, South Side, employed in one of the large Steel Mills, and ask him if the following is not literally true. Mr. Cavanaugh says:

"One box of Doan's Kidney Pill: cured me of a pain across my kidneys, which I suffered from for years. I have been so bad that I could not bend took cold it became much more severe. I used all kinds of remedies and wore plasters on my back for weeks, but without giving me relief until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills from Matthew's Bros.! drug store. I had only taken a few doses when I began to feel better and I steadily improved until I was completely cured of my long standing trouble."

Jack's Burlesquers.

The attraction at the Galety for the first three days of this week will be Sam T. Jack's Own Burlesque company in a triple bill. The show opens with "A Hot Time in Alaska," and closes with "A Warm Reception."

They are superbly costumed burlesques, full of laughter and frolicking amusement, while the display of silks satins and fancy colors would do credit any extravaganza. Unlimited laughter prevails in every line of both productions. An entirely new olio is sandwiched between the two burlesques-Mabel Hazelton and Florence Beach, soubrettes; Griffin and Cunningham, buck and wing dancers; the Goolmans, high class musical artists; Sarah Morris, operatic selections; the French quadrille dancers, the oriental pas-ma-la: Maddox and Wayne, the 'Messenger Boy and the Thespian": Mlle. ## Miller in "The Only Way."

A far more than ordinary interest is manifested in the engagement of Henry Miller at the Lyceum theater tomorrow night in Charles Frohman's great production of "The Only Way," a dramatization of Dickens' famous story, "A Tale of Two Cities," by Freeman Wills. It is a matter of authentic literary history that when Charles Dickens wrote his great novel, "A Tale of Two Cities," he was especially anxious to have it dramatized. In fact he went so far as to write M. Regnier, then at the head of the Theatre Francatse, Paris, asking him his opinion, as he thought the plot would be especially interesting to the French.

The play gave Mr. Miller a leading place among the great theatrical stars of the day, which he possibly failed to achieve sooner, only through the lack of worthy plays. As Sydney Carton. that noble example of self-sacrifice, that curious contradictory spirit of ex-ultation and depression, he realized very fully the character of the great
