Besolved, That we, the members of the Holy Name society of St. Peter's cathe-drai, now ask His Honor, the mayor of this city, to prohibit the unscrupulous managers of said houses from presenting this city, to prohibit the unscrupulous managers of said houses from presenting to the public those suggestive, vulgar, immoral and shameless plays which are ruining the morals of the youth. We also ask the press of this city to refuse to ad-vertise or give such attractions any no-tice in their columns, and co-operate in the suppression of this city to to lend their assistance to the degradation of public morals by displaying the pictures of those attractions in their windows; and, be it further Resolved, That we, the members of this society, numbering five hundred (500) men, pledge ourselves not to attend said theaters or any other theater wherein such attractions are presented, and that we, collectively and individually, shall use every moral power to prevail upon our young men from attending these de-moralizing show; and, be it further Resolved, That we carnestly ask the several organizations or societies of all churches and denominations to take up this work and give their support and as-sistance, to the end that this evil may be eradicated. M. J. KELLY. ments from immigration. Dr. Giffin belleved that a favorable reaction is taking place, not only in finance, but in religion in this coun try. The financial depression did effect the church, but reports of large revivals are constantly being made and it is evident that unprecedented growth is about to be recorded. DR. GRIFFIN'S VIEWS. We are a great church. In point of numbers, wealth, culture and influence we are second to no other Protestant church. Our responsibilities are corre-spondingly great. God and the world evenetic great things for any the second expects great things from such a peo-ple. Our declared mission is "to spread Scriptural holiness over all lands." Our bishops have the entire world parish under survey. They discover that for the past five years at least we have not held up to our former record as an

Rev. W. G. Simpson, pastor of Asbury church, at Green Ridge, writes:

The bishops' call for a week of ab-stinence and prayer need not occasion undue alarm to Methodists.

Indue alarm to Methodists. First—That there is a decrease in our numerical strength is evidently true, a decrease in the full membership, and also in the probationers' list, still this may be a healthful sign. It is possible to carry an amount of dead stock on the register of a Methodist church. Second—A ready number of Metho Second-A goodly number of Metho-dist preachers are firm believers in. and ardent supporters of, the doctrine of expansion—in other words, inflation. Others there are who believe the opposite; evidently some of the latter, according to soul and conscience, have been, though not departing from the creed of true expansion, trimming or pruning the church records. See?

Third-Figures tell wondrous truths of times. It is possible to secure as aggressive evangelizing force, especial-ly in the home field. Methodism must be "Christianity in earnest," or strike her flag and retire from the conflict. We are not ready to abdicate our throne. We have some power, a little wealth, and we live. Our lines of com-munication are open and direct to Penmuch in actual spiritual and temporal results from 300 members, in a given year, than from double that number in the previous year, Fourth-Progress in a Methodist church is not always told in figures. Such is the case at Asbury, I believe. Fifth-I am not at all alarmed by the "Awake! awake!!" of the bishops. The special service will greatly bless the entire church, and should add thou-sands to the fold.
