CARBONDALE.

AN ICE TRUST.

Scranton Parties Negotiating for Carbondale Ice Trade.

Scranton men scooped our water plant and doubled the rate and now capitalists from down the valley are negotiating for the Carbondale ice trade, and if they succeed it will probably cost more to keep cool than it did last summer when there was much competition.

Charles Schudt has been conducting the negotiations and yesterday there were only a few hundred dollars dif-ference between him and the local men.

The business was so cut up a year ago that profits were reduced to a minimum and prospective conditions are particularly favorable to a deal.

FIRE IN STORE WINDOW.

Early yesterday morning fire was discovered in the show window of the People's shoe store on Main street. The new fire bell rang out a shrill alarm and the hose companies responded promptly, extinguishing the blazy with a chemical apparatus without do-ing much damage. Only the shoes in the window were solled. The paper which formed a background for the display made quite a blaze for a few minutes. It is supposed to have been ignited by a spark from an arc light which hangs over it.

The fair under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church will be opened in the church on Monday evening. All the committees who have charge of the soliciting and arrangements have worked hard to make the affair a success and it is hoped that the public, appreciating the object for which the fair is being held, will show a willing hand and give them the patronage It deserves. The fair will be open for five nights and a musical programme will be given each evening. That of Monday, the opening night, will be by a number of children who have been training for the pleasant event for several weeks past, and the programme is as follows: Recitations, Maud, Griffiths, Luther Davis, Bronwen Bengough: song, Edith Griffiths: recitations, Claude Merritt, Margaret Evans, Willard Griffiths; song by three little boys; recitation, Bella Smith; dialogue, by five little girls; recitations, Alice nes, Bessie Jones, Lizzie Lewis; song. "Sleep, Baby, Sleep," by four little girls.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and when-ever any of my family or myself begin to catch cold we begin to use the Cough Remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's and this will probably be the last Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.-D. S. Mearkle, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie, Bed-ford county, Pa. For sale by all drutour next season.
