He has in his possession something like 100 stereopticon views of men and scenes just now of especial in-terest on account of the Anglo-Boer war. It has been suggested that if Mr. Lane shall come to lecture for the Engineers' club on a technical theme some of our church societies might wish to provide an opportunity for a popular lecture by him on the Transvaal and kindred sub-

PETER EGLER KILLED.

Skull Fractured and His Body Crushed by Elevator in Gould Building on Linden Street.

Peter Egler, of 417 South Irving ave. nue, was killed yesterday morning in the Gould building on Linden street, body was not discovered until an hour afterwards.

Egler was employed as a blacksmith by A. R. Gould & Co., the carriage manufacturers. He left his work on the lower floor at about 8 o'clock, and not coming back in upwards of an hour, the elder Mr. Gould became interested and happening to open the elevator door on the ground floor, saw the body lying in the basement.

He hastened down, but the body was quite cold, Egler evidently having been dead for some time. The skull was horribly crushed, the right leg was broken and the body was otherwise badly bruised.

Before entering into an explanation as to how the accident probably occurred, a brief explanation of the elevator itself is necessary. It is very large in size, being capable of carry ing several carriages, and is operated by the person who uses it. Egler could not by any chance have stepped into the shaft from any of the upper floors, as all the openings are closed with both automatic doors and gates.

As blood and flesh was discovered above the arched entrance to the elevator shaft on the fourth floor, the most likely explanation is that Egler was going up on the elevator and that his head caught in some manner be tween the side of the shaft and the side of the elevator. The carriage must have squeezed past the body, which then dropped to the bottom of the shaft, a distance of about fifty feet. Egler was undoubtedly killed almost

The remains were taken to Cusick's undertaking establishment, and Coroner Roberts notified. The latter arrived during the evening and ordered that the body be kept at Cusick's until this morning, when he will empannel a jury and have them view the re mains.

BOWMAN HELD FOR KNIERIM'S DEATH

GRAND JURY INDICTED HIM FOR MURDER.

True Bill Also Returned Against Peter Chipriano, Charged with the Murder of August Catanose at Jessup, Last January-Alleged Anarchists Indicted for Felonius Wounding - Election Fraud Case Against Alderman Kelly and Others Is Ignored.

Two returns were made by the grand ury yesterday, one in the morning and the other at 4.30 o'clock in the after noon. On the strength of a statemen by District Attorney Jones that the business could not be finished today, an order was made by Judge Edwards continuing the sessions into next week A true bill was returned against William Bowman, charged with the murder of John Knierim, and against Peter Chipriano, charged with the murder of August Catanosa, at Jessup, January 22, last. Guilhot and Merlier, the alleged anarchists, charged with shooting Police Officers Keyes and Snyder, of Dunmore, were indicted for felonious wounding. An ignored bill was returned in the ase against Alderman John P. Kelly, Constable J. W. Clarke, Deputy P. F. Ryan and Constable Jacob Eliman, accused by ex-Constable John McHale with having made and filed a false certificate of nomination from the Eighteenth ward. The charge of murder preferred against Hotelkeeper Thomas J. Foley, of Priceburg, by Frank Zalewski, whose brother was killed by a fall from the porch of Foley's hotel, was again ignored. An illegal liquor elling case instituted by T. H. C. Maloney was thrown out at the cost of the prosecution.

Decision Is Against Miller. Judge Edwards yesterday handed down an opinion in the case of J. S. Miller against the Inter-State Casualty company, setting aside the jury's finding for the plaintiff and directing verdict in conformity with the contention of the defendant. The opinion concludes as follows:

"However unfortunate the result may be to the plaintiff in the presen case, we are clearly of the opinion that the evidence is insufficient to modify any of the conditions of the policy, and that he is entitled to a verdict only for the amount of the last premium paid. The point reserved is decided in favor of the defendant. The rule for a new trial is discharged, and the rule for judgment, non obstante veredicto, in favor of the plaintiff for the sum of $20 and interest is made absolute. On payment or the jury fee we direct judgment to be entered upor the verdict in this case for the plaintiff and against the defendant in the sum of $20 and interest from Jan. 15,

At the first trial of the case Judge Edwards excluded the testimony tending to show that the agent had modified the clause in the policy referring to risks. Binding instructions were given for the defendant. Later he re-vised his ruling to admit this evidence, holding that, contrary to his former opinion, it was possible under certain circumstances for an agent's acts to modify a clause in a policy against an expressed stipulation on the policy that this could not be done, and he being crushed by the elevator. No one ordered a new trial, to give the plain-witnessed the accident, and the man's tiff an opportunity of showing that in his case such acts were committed.

The second trial resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $16.34. subject to a reserved point as to whether or not the evidence as to modification of the clause in question was sufficient. The decision made yes terday says it was not.

C. L. Hawley was Mr. Miller's attorney. M. J. Martin represented the company at the first trial and at the second trial he and Howard W. Page, of Page, Allison & Penrose, of Philadelphia, were the company's attorneys.

Examining Boards Appointed. Judges Archbald and Edwards yeserday appointed boards for examining applicants for mine foreman in the First and Second Inspection districts, anu a miner's examining board for the

First district. John R. Jones, of Bellevue; Patrick H. Sammon, of Moosic, and Superintendent James Young, of Dunmore, were re-appointed mine foremen's ex-aminers in the First district, and James E. Morrison, of Carbondale. Joseph T. Roberts, of Jermyn, and Superintendent Charles P. Ford. of Olyphant, in the Second district. They are to hold office till January, 1901. The new miner's examining board for the First district consists of Lewis H. John, of Providence: Edward Long. of Priceburg: Henry Cook, of Price burg: Thomas Finnerty, of Archbald: George Mowles, of Peckville; George Williams, of Olyphant: Thomas John. of Fell township: Henry Collins, of Carbondale; Joseph Soby, of Jermyn. They are to hold office for two years from the first Monday of January,

JOHN BUFFINGTON WILL GIVE HIS BULING TODAY.

Ex-Judge Jessup Who Represents the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company Presented Affidavits Showing That Two of the Important Witnesses for Defense Are Not Able to Come Into Court-Physicians for the Plaintiff Given the Privilege of Examining These Men

Judge Buffington will decide this Judge Whether or not the case of John T. Martin against the Delaware and Hudson company is to be continued. Judge W. H. Jessup made u motion yesterday for its continuants on behalf of the company, but it was strongly opposed by Major Eve wit Warren, Joseph O'Brien and Nathan Vidaver, who are the attorncys for the plaintiff. If the case goes to trial it will probably take about a week to dispose of it. Mr. Martin is a member of the Lackawanna bar and on April 4. 1899, was injured while riding in a Delaware and Hudson passenger train between his home at Olyphant and this city. He asks damages in the sum of $100,time since the accident he has resided at Easton, which was the home of ms parents and where he lived until he came here to practice law atout six six years ago. Yesterday he came incrutches. He was accompanied by his wife and their two children and his

SELECTED A JURY.

When court opened in the morning Judge Buffington suggested that a jury be selected to try the Martin case, that he might discharge the other jur-ors on the panel. Ex-Judge Jessup told the court that he might have to ask for a continuance, as two of his witnesses were unable to come into court and he had received a telegram from Mr. Carr, of Albany, N. Y., who is associated with him in the case, stating that he would be unable to come here at this time. Mr. Carr is the general counsel of the Delaware and Hudson Canal company.

A jury was selected, but not sworn. It is made up of the following: W. H. Baumgardner, merchant, Wells Tannery, Fulton county; A. B. Black, deputy sheriff, Bloomsburg, Columbia county; A. J. Colborn, sr., attorney, Somerset county; James Curry, manufacturer, Waterside, Bedford county; Robert W. Darragh, attorney, Beaver, Beaver county; Thomas S. Hagerman, artist, Williamsport, Lycoming county; Edward Hirsch, patrolman, Pitts-burg; Robert G. Madge, insurance agent, Mercer, Mercer county: H. H Mullen, editor, Emporium, Cameron county; T. J. Nichols, teacher, Oriental, Juniata county; Herbert C. Olmstead, merchant, emporium, Cameron county; James P. Weisel, farmer, Williamsport, Lycoming county.

APPLICATION FOR CONTINUANCE After the Walker case had gone to the jury at 3.45 in the afternoon and the court was ready to proceed with the Martin case, ex-Judge Jessup made a formal application for its continu-ance. He presented an affidavit from Dr. S. S. Shields, of Carbondale, which set forth that Alexander Copeland, engineer of the train on which Martin was riding at the time of the accident, was injured on Tuesday, in the Delaware and Hudson round house at Carbondale and it unable to come into court. He also presented an affidav't from Dr. F. M. Van Sickle, of Olyphant, that Martin Crippen, the claim agent of the company, is ill with ton-silitis at his home in Olyphant. He prepared the case and Mr. Jessup said he would be compelled to rely upon him a good deal during the trial. He is also an important witness and the defense could not afford to go to trial without him. Major Warren and Attorney O'Brien bjected most strenuously to the continuance of the case. They said that Crippen was around Thursday and intimated that they had small faith in his reported illness. They charged that he had told the wife of the plaintiff at Easton that the case would not be tried here at this term even if he had to be sick. Major Warren urged that the condition of the plaintiff is such that the case ought not to be continued, that if Crippen and Copeland cannot come into court their testimony can be taken at their homes. Judge Buffington decided not to pass upon the matter until this morning. ny can be taken at their homes. and in the meantime allowed physiclans for the plaintiff to examine Crip pen and Copeland. Their condition will be reported upon today.

THE WALKER CASE.

When court opened yesterday C. P. Jadwin was put upon the stand to of-fer testimony in rebuttal in the case of Calvin Bruce Walker against the Harvey Brothers, of Wilkes-Barre. The closing addresses to the jury were made by Major Everett Warren and Attorney W. A. Wilcox and at 3.45 Judge Buffington completed his charge and the jury retired. A verdict was not returned up to the hour of adjourning. THE DISTRICT COURT. All of the business of the district court has been completed, and yes terday District Attorney Heiner and his assistants left the city. Marshal's Clerk Iron will leave today and take the prisoners with him.

Judge Buffington yesterday made the formal order placing Jacob Grone, the young post office burglar, in the re-form school at Morganza.
