Jeffries-Sharkey Fight.

At the Lyceum last night a vita-Sharkey fight was given. It is a faithful presentation of every blow that is the fight minus the excitement that would invest it at the ringside. It is by far the most satisfactory exhibition of the fight ever given in this city. Beginning at 2.15 this afternoon and tonight the pictures will be again

A Neighbor's Opinion.

The Brockway course will give the tenth and last entertainment of the series at the Lyceum next Monday evening. Of the company which will be the attraction that evening, our neighbor, the Wilkes-Barre Record, has the following to say in an issue of last year:

"One of the most enjoyable numbers of the Young Men's Christian association course so far given was the Rogers-Grilley entertainment last evening Mr. Rogers has a beautiful harp, said to be the largest and one of the most costly in the world, and he certainly is master of the sweet-toned instrument. His selections were classic and popular and each rendition was encored. Good performers on the harp are very rare, but Mr. Rogers is one

"Shaft No. 2." the greatest of all modern electrical melo-dramas, will be opening bill of Maude Hillman and her talented company. A large amount of scenery and mechanical effects have to be carried for this production alone.

The great shop scene with machinery in full operation and the scene from which the title of the play, "Shaft No. 2," is taken, showing a mine hundreds of feet under ground. Both are wonders of mechanical stage craft.

"The Cracker Jacks."

Frank B. Carr's Indian Maidens will close their engagement at the Gaiety has something that will tickle the risibilities of all in "The Cracker Jacks," a show up-to-date, and, perhaps, a little beyond, condensed into opera comedy, tragedy, extravaganza, Novel, new, unique and grotesque, with hits that are local, specialties that are bright, comedians that are funny and girls that are pretty.

Laughing is at a premium in both satires, the one, "The Sousa Girls," and the other the take-off on "A Female Drummer," are great laugh-makers. This attraction will appear at the Galety next week. Also the reproducof the Dixon-McGovern fight round by round, and the Boer war.

"A Milk White Flag."

Tuesday evening at the Lyceum Hoyt's "A Milk White Flag" will be presented. Of all the bright absurdiies that have come in such rapid sucession from that prolific fun-maker, Charles H. Hoyt, none have been so bright, so original and so daring as 'A Milk White Flag." A brilliant piece of semi-dramatic crazy-quiit work for which the domain of opera bouffe, the sparkle of comedy. the gorgeousness of spectacle and even the robustness of melo-drama have all been called upon.

Every accesory that could add to the success of this splendid bit of nonsense has been looked after and the beautiful settings, with the gorgeous costumes of the Ransome Guards and the bright dresses of the vivandlerres make a wonderful pleasing picture under the dazzling brightness of the culclums.
