GREEN'S RACE FOR LIBERTY.

He Runs Without Shoes Through Snow Until Exhausted.

Special to The Scranton Tribune.

Towanda, March 19 .- Rather than he be placed under arrest, Charles Green, jr., ran away from Officer McCrancey at Canton in a partly clad condition and in consequence almost perished from exposure. His experience is very thrilling. The officer had a warrant for Green's arrest on a charge of larceny. He had been discovered endeav-oring to steal hides at a slaughter house in that vicinity and it was late in the evening when the officer went to Green's home, where he found the accused in bed. He began to dress. but when he had drawn on but shirt and trousers he asked the officer to be allowed to go into an adjoining room for shoes and hat. Without getting these articles, however, he broke through the house and fled. Officer McCrancey gave chase, following him to a creek, when Green dashed into stream and went to the opposite side. Taking up the trail at the creek bank the tracks of Green's bare feet could be easily followed in the snow and there was blood along the trall

He followed the tracks until nearly noon the next day, when Green, near dead, was found in a clump of bushes on the Grover road. He was minus a hat, coat, vest or stockings and his pants were frozen stiff, while his hair was matted with ice. He was soon resuscitated and, at a hearing before the just ice, was held in $500 ball for his appearance at May court.

FIRE AT MONTROSE.

The Residence of S. B. Rogers Totally Consumed.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Montrose, Pa., March 19 .- Sunday evening a few minutes before 8 o'clock the alarm of fire was given, which proved to be the residence owned and occupied by S. B. Rogers, situated on Lake avenue, nearly a quarter of a mile from the engine house. The firemen responded promptly and made connection to a hydrant in front | She is supported by a carefully selected of the Armsby residence, but the supply of hose not being sufficient to reach the Rogers house the building was entirely consumed. Mr. Rogers carried $800 insurance on the house and $200 on the household effects, which only partly covers the loss.

What to Do Until the Doctor Arrives

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup, Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and Chamberlain's friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. THEATRICAL.

The Hillman Company.

"Shaft No. 2," a sensational electrical melodramo was presented at the Academy of Music last night by a company headed by Miss Maud Hillma. Miss Hillman did clever work in the role of Marion Dale and among the very excellent members of her supporting company were J. M. Donavin. W. H. Barwald, J. J. Coogan, Florence Dalton and W. A. Dillion. Incidental to the play specialties were introduced songs very acceptably; W. A. Dillion, an entertaining Irish comedian, and company's concert orchestra, under the direction of Professor J. P. Hansen, rendered the music between the acts.

The company gives an evening's en-tertainment that is duplicated in quali-ty and variety by few of the reper-toire company's now before the public.

Last of the Course.

The tenth and last entertainment of of the Brockway course was given at the Lyceum last evening to a large and fashionable audience. The entertainers were Van Veachton Rogers, harpist, and Charles T. Grilley, recitationist. Mr. Rogers proved himself a thorough master of the harp, the volume of tone elicited and the crystalline clearness of his arpeggios being remarkable. was especially successful in variations upon the air "Old Black Joe," with mitations of a banjo. Mr. Grilley, who bears a strong facial resemblance to Roland Reed, is one of the best entertainers that has ever appeared in this city. He gave a num-ber of recitations involving the portrayal of many different characters, all of which he represented successfully in voice and manner. The course as a whole has been very successful this season, and " is hoped that enough interest may be taken by its patrons to insure its continuation next winter.

"The Crack-a-Jacks."

One of the best, if not the best, of impanies that have appeared at the Galety theatre this season is now playing a three days' engagement at that popular house. "The Crack-a-Jack Burlesquers" have demonstrated that it is possible to please an audience even in Scranton by a clean and meritorious performance that is marked by the absence of obscene tokes and inanattempts to create mirth by local hits. The curtain-raiser is a musical farce in which Miss Legender, the Lyric star; Miss Irene Young, dancing specialist, and Miss Louise Von Woel-lener, the Viennese nightingale and yodler, assisted by a chorus of fresh voices, gave a delightful season of melody. In the second review, the trick bicyclist, Snyder, gave a marvelous exhibition on the wheel; A. H. Weston appeared in new English songs, which ere heartily encored, and the funmakers of the troupe, the McDonald brothers, were seen to good advantage in a laughable specialty. Miss Belle Wilton, descriptive vocalist, introduced Paul Dresser's latest songs with great

The only real tedious number on the programme came in this part in the shape of one of the usual "scope" series of pictures, supposed to represent the Dixon and McGovern fight, etc. The "Drummer's Paradise," which sparkles with wit and bright music. Crack-a-Jacks" will be at the Galety today and tomorrow, afternoon and evening.

"A Milk White Flag."

Hoyt's "A Milk White Flag" will again wave for the amusement and gratification of theater-goers. It comes to us this season re-written and up to the times, replete with military hits and containing good natured satire in profusion. A new dress of scenery has been provided and the costuming is spick and span, and as for musical number and specialties, it is promised that many novel surprises will be given.

For the past few seasons "A Milk White Flag" has won a large clientage and the management has always kept faith with the public by providing them with a first class entertainment and one of novel and surprising features. The company of fifty people is number of farce favorites, and includes several members who have become fast favorites in their respective roles. This attraction will be at the Lyceum to-Kelcey-Shannon Company.

Undoubtedly the most thrilling and intensely dramatic situation of Ciyde Fitch's great society drama, "The Moth and the Flame," which comes to the Lyceum Thursday, is that of the marriage in high life. It represents a splendid church wedding in one of the most exclusive and aristocratic of New York parishes, where the villianous groom is suddenly confronted by the woman he has wronged, the wife he has deserted, and when there, at the foot of the altar, as she denounces him, strikes her a cowardly blow and fells her to the floor. This, however, is only one of a serie of supremely interesting climaxes, every one of which shows the genius of playwright. Mr. Herbert Kelcey and Miss Effic Shannon, who will play the leading roles, will be seen to greater advantage in "The Moth and the Flame" than in any of the New York Lyceum Theatre productions in "The Moth and the Flame" will be seen in its entirety, with all the splendid scenery and costumes, and the original cast, as first presented at the Lyceun for a period of 125 nights last season.

"Mile. Fifi" Friday Night. Friday night "Mile, Fifi" will be presented at the Lyceum. The Miners'

Journal, of Pottsville, says: Those who were at the Academy last night had the fortune of witness ing the production of an exquisite French comedy, 'Mile. Fifi,' by the Pilar-Morin company. It was a comedy of the very highest order, tinged with a Parisian atmosphere, but with nothing to offend American ideas of morality. There was throughout th play some deliciously funny situations and the presentation was in decidedly skillful hands, the company being composed of comedians of a very high

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Beview.

New York, March 19.—The stock market gave evidence today of a disposition on the part of the speculative contingent to discount the prospects of relief to the money market. But the speculative contingent is dependent on the money market for funds to operate with, and while there were symptoms of reliaxation in money rates, the present supply is still restricted. Lenders of money are inclined to hold out for high rates on the assumption that interest rates will not relax until after the Aoril 1 settlements have been disposed of. Borrowers take a more hopeful view of the immediate outlook and are inclined to await the expected early easing of rates. There was an appreciable surring of speculative interest today which was notably manifest in the railroad list, but which was mostly confined to a few stocks. Baltimore and Obio was the most conspicuous, with a rise of 3 points. Union Pacific, Baltimore and Obio Preferred, Atchison Preferred and the Colorado and Southern stocks were all in good demand and gained over a point. Mobile and Obio and Minneapolis and St. Louis each gained two points. The bears made attempts to obstruct the rising tendency of prices but their attacks were not very effective in breaking up the strength manifest among the railroads. In fact, the railroad list showed much hesitation in the face of violent raillies in the local traction group than in the weakness of the specialties, it is well anderstood that the vicissitudes of the New York stocks are nearly concerned with a rival railway approaching the character of a feud among some of the most powerful financial interests in the sircet, and neaceful bystanders have been shown to be as likely to be injured in this conflict as the actual participants. The chief episode in this conflict today was the severe punishment inflicted upon the short interest in Third avenue. This stock touched 66%c in the sarried pants, the chief pasode in this conflict today was the severe punishment inflicted upon the short interest in Third avenue. This stock touch from the formulas which made four physicians famous.

They are the result of years of practice, and can be taken with absolute confidence by young and old.

The relief they give is prompt, the cure The relief they give is prompt, the cure—the complete cure—is speedy.
We propose this free distribution because we know precisely what these extraordinary Tablets will do.
We call them "extraoramary" because that's the only word that describes them.
You may be sure that we would not risk our business reputation and our future welfare in these Tablets unless we know the cure that will get at the seat knew the cure that will get at the seat of the disease.

They are unlike any other tablets that you ever heard of.

All that goes into them to make them strong and sure in the cure of Dyspepsia comes from foreign climes, where a large body of men are engaged by specialists to collect and combine.

With all their remarkable strength they are free from such dangerous drugs as Calomel, Opium or Aloes. They cannot fail to do good. Believe us, if your physician knew what these Tablets contained, he would, (if he had your welfare at heart) be the first to recommend them to you.
