EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

EXCITEMENT IN ALDERMAN MOSES' OFFICE.

Miss Shea Made an Assault Upon Her Brother's Wife and Was Arrested and Fined for Contempt of Court-Needle Taken from the Foot of Miss Eva Appar-Michael Finnelli Arrested on a Charge of Beating His Wife-Sleighing Party Went to Pittston.

Alderman Moses' office, on South Main avenue, was the scene of much excitement last night; in which a stove lifter, hair-pulling match and a woman's tongue, figured quite promi-nently. Mrs. Ellen Shea, of 910 Hampton street, had her husband, John Shea, arrested on a warrant charging him with unlawfully assaulting and chok-her and further asserted that on Saturady night during the severe cold weather in the dead of night, he drove her from their home. After hearing the evidence in the case the Alderman held the defendant in $300 ball for his appearance at court.

Meanwhile, a sister of Mr. Shea appeared upon the scene and caused the commotion, also enriching the alderman's coffers. For some time past bad blood has existed between Shea's sister and her sister-in-law, and many times the former has threatnened to exterminate the latter. Last evening they met each other in the squire's office. Shea's sister, upon seeing Mrs. Shea, became infuriated and grabbed the stove lifter and dealt the prose cuerix several crushing blows upon the Constable John Lance came to the rescue of Mrs. Shea. The excitement quieted down for a short time and Shea's sister resumed her seat. Soon she made a leap and grabbed the defenceless sister-in-law by the hair and started to pull her over the floor. This aroused the court to indignation and she was arrested, charged with contempt of court. She was heavily fined. At the conclusion of the excitement her father arrived, balled his son out, and paid her fine.

After their departure, Mrs. Shea had warrant issued for the arrest of Miss Shea, charging her with assault and making threats to kill. A hearing will be held this evening.

EXTRICATED A NEEDLE.

Dr. Heermans, of Scranton street, performed a successful operation upon the right foot of Miss Eva Apgar, of Strafford avenue, Lincoln Heights, and extricated a large needle which has been lodged in the member for several days. The needle had turned black and caused the foot to swell to an enormous size.

A few days ago, Miss Apgar was performing some duties about the house, when she acidentally stepped upon the needle, which penetrated her foot. She was incapacitated for some time, not being able to walk. It is feared that blood poisoning might on Thursday at noon at the home of Thomas Edwards, of Mount Dewey, when his daughter, Miss Martha, was united in marriage to John Locker, of Pine Brook. Rev. Howells, of Elmdale, tied the nuptial knot. Ada Edwards, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Henry Fox acted as best man. The bride was attired in a gown of brown broadcloth and carried white carnations. The bridesmaid was similarly dressed.

At the conclusion of the ceremony wedding dinner was served, followed by a reception. Mr. and Mrs. Locker were the recipients of many handsom and useful presents. They dispensed with a wedding tour.

A CHOIR SOCIAL.

The choir of the First Baptist church will hold an entertainment and social on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Banning, on North Bromley avenue. A literary and musi-cal programme has been arranged and will be published in this department in a few days.

DRINKER TURNPIKE IS TO BE IMPROVED.

List of Uncalled for Letters That Are at the Post Office Awaiting Owners. Funeral of Mrs. Edward Higgins from Her Late Home at Sport Hill. Edward Swartz Is a Candidate for Poor Director-Death of Ervin, the Young Son of Mr. and Mrs. William Van Ness-Other Notes.

The old Drinker turnpike, extending from the corners up Sport Hill, which has been an eye-sore to the residents of the borough for many years and upon which toll has been charged by the turnpike company up to the pres-ent time, will in a very short time be thing of the past, unless court takes action contrary to general expectation. The people living on this road have petitioned the court to have the road become the property of the borough. and once council gets the opportunity of looking after its welfare the condition of the sidewalks and the general grading of the road will take place. For years this part of the corners has been in a most deplorable state, owing to council having no jurisdiction over the same. The news of its becoming borough property will conse-quently be halled by considerable de-light by not only the residents living on the road, but the business men the corners.

MRS. HIGGINS BURIED.

The funeral of Mrs. Edward Higgins, Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, occurred yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services were well attended and a large and sorrowing number followed the remains to their last resting place in St. Mary's cemetery, where inter-

Mrs. Higgins was held in high esteem by those with whom she had come in contact with. Her sudden demise at the age of 25 came as a cruel shock to the husband and three children who survive.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES. A party composed of the following: Misses Frieda Ludwig, Grace Stevens,

Blanche Oakley, Maud Palmer, May Palmer and Masters Lester Yost, Stewart Seigle, George Winterstein, Garfield Angwin, Clarence Harper, Ray Oakley and Walter Harper, enjoyed a pleasant sleigh-ride to Jermyn Saturday. After resting and partaking of refreshments the return trip was made without mishap. and Mrs. William Van Ness, of Willlams street, died suddenly Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The little was a bright and interesting child and was developing into a promising son. The parents have the sympathy of many in their grief. The funeral arrangements will be announced later. Petitions are being circulated by Edward Swartz and P. J. Murphy for the office of poor director of the borough. The office is one which pays well and considerable rivalry is being manifested between the two aspirants.
