COUNCILS MEET.

P. F. Carden Confirmed for Police-

man-Other Business. Select council met last evening and confirmed the mayor's appointment of P. F. Carden to the police force. The resolution for a joint session of counclis to elect a city engineer on March 26 was concurred in. The building committee reported favorably on Columblas' request for a cutting down of the windows of the hose house, the cost not to exceed $43. The special committee appointed to confer with the mayor recommended an ordinance regulating the police.

The commoners ordered paid the bill of Blair & Kennedy for $27.50, con-curred in Columbia resolution and resolution authorizing the purchase of two fire whistles-one for the brewery and one for the Hendrick

Abe Sahm made a strong plea for the filling and extension of Seventh avenue and said he would insist upon its being provided for in the appropriation, which was referred back to the joint committee.

TRUE BILL AGAINST MOYLES.

Chief of Police McAndrew has suc ceeded in getting a true bill against Robert Moyles, of Spring street, charged with threatening his family. This case is a peculiarly sad one. Mr. Moyles has a wife and five fine children. For several years he has at irregular intervals shown signs of insanity. Twice he went to England on some pretense or other and was no sooner in the old country than he steered for home again. And what money, which his wife worked hard to pay back. Three times within as many months he has been taken to the Hillside Home and three times he has escaped and walked home. When accompanied by an officer he seems as rational as any man. Now he is in the county jail, where he will remain until some time in April, when it will doubtless devolve upon the court to make some permanent disposition of

COALBROOK IS GROWING.

The incapacity of the large new Coalbrook breaker to take all the coal for preparation which was formerly broken in several smeller ones hereabouts has caused some apprehension on the part of miners, who dread slack times. seems, however, that the plant is still incomplete. Screens and cleaning devices are being added daily and soon it will have grown sufficiently to do all that was expected of it.

WILL COMMEMORATE BIRTH.

Pioneer City castle, No. 205, Ancient Order Knights of the Mystic Chain, will observe the third anniversary of the institution of the order in this city omorrow evening. Invitations have been issued to Jermyn castle, No. 162, and to a limited number or friends to participate in the event, which will take place in their hall in the Leader building. An excellent programme has been arranged especially for the occasion. Rev. H. J. Whalen, the new pastor of the Berean Baptist tabernacle, will deliver the principle address.

THREE FRACTURES IN SKULL.

John Flaherty, an employe of the Richmondale mine, was taken to Emergency hospital yesterday with his skull fractured in three places. He was struck by a trip of cars. Doctors Niles. Lowry and Kelly trephined his skull and last night his pulse was a little stronger. though there is grave doubt of his recovery. He is 40 years old and has a family at Richmondale.

Nebo Church Fair Opened Last Evening-Large Attendance Nightly at the Evangelistic Meeting-Per-

The fair of the Nebo Congregational church at Kendham was opened last evening under most ensouraging circumstances. The young ladies connected with the church have labored zealously in the past to make the event a grand success. The attendance last evening was very large and a number of valuable and useful articles were chanced off and otherwise disopsed of. The features of last evening's event was the grand musical and literary programme which was rendered in the following manner: Address, John Gwynne; solo, Edward James; recitation, John E. Evans; solo, Prof. W. T. Jones: duet, W. T. Jones and M ss Sadie Edwards; instrumental duet by Banfield sisters; duet, H. M. and Mrs. Henry Evans; solo, George Powell. The above programme was immensely enjoyed. This evening's programme will be as follows: Piano selection, Miss Lydia Haskins: mandolin selection, A. C. Duke; recitation, Miss Sallie solo, Olwen Howells; recitation, Louisa N cholas: instrumental duet, Miss Lydia Hoskins, planist and A. C. Duke on mandolin; solo, Miss Margaret Davis: solo, Edward Davis. Refreshments are being served by the Ladies' Ald society. A tempting repast is being served. Ice cream extra. The young ladies deserve the hearty cooperation of the public. The fair will ont nue tomorrow evening Mr. Samuel Mitchell, of Union street, left for Johnstown, Pa. yesterday to permanently reside.

The Taylor colliery will resume operations this morning, after a few days' suspension for repairs.

Evangelist B. F. Armstrong, of the Young Men's Christian association of Scranton, who has been conducting evangelistic services in the different thurches throughout this town during the past two weeks, delivered an eloquent sermon to a large and appreciative audience at the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday evening. During the evening Mrs. John R. Nee ley sang a beautiful solo, being assisted by Miss Florence Armstrong on the viol n. The men's meeting held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon was also largely attended. Mr. T. DeWitt Edwards sang an excellent tenor solo during the meeting. The programme of services this week will be as follows: In the afternoon at 4 o'clock, children's meetings will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church, and also every evening during the week, commencing at 7 o'clock.

All are cordially welcome,
Mrs. John Welbel, an old and respected lady of Main street, passed away on Sunday even ng, after a prolonged illness. Deceased had been deprived of her eyesight from her dread tilment. Funeral announcement will be made later.
