

Of the Grand Army of the Republic, whose lot was fire, and blood and prison pen, for four terrible vears, almost to a man, contracted disease of some form. When younger, they withstood it bravely, but now that age is creeping on and the vital forces more feeble, the need of a reliable vegetable tonic to assist nature, is keenly felt. To all such we can with confidence recommend Warner's Safe Cure-a remedy with a reputation of twenty-one years of remarkable success in all parts of the civilized world. Hundreds of veterans bless the day this great remedy was brought to their notice, not the least among whom being Comrade Frendenstein, who, under date of Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 25, 1900, gratefully writes as follows:

I am pleased to say that I have the greatest confidence in Warner's Safe Cure, as I suffered for years with kidney troubles contracted in the army, which nothing seemed to help until I tried Safe Cure. A 1-w bottles did more for me than all the doctors and medicines previously tried. I now feel strong and we'l, and thou h at an advanced age, can enjoy life, thanks to this medicine. A special meeting of the school board was held last evening to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Ella Mulholland. The vacancy was filled by the promotion of Mrs. Jenkins, who takes Miss Mulholland's place. Miss Sarah Mullen was promoted from room 7 to 8; Miss Cora Davis from room 6 to 7; and Miss Murray from room 5 to 6. By the changes Miss Murray will receive an ncrease of $2 per month and Mrs. Jenkins $5 per month in their salaries. The board then considered the applications for the vacancy in room No 5. The applicants were: Miss Ger-trude Vall and Miss Annie McChrone, of this borough; Miss Barrett, of Archbald: Miss Williams, of Peckville; Miss May Phillips, of Kizer, and James A. McGinty, of Olyphant. Contrary to expectation the election was settled with the first ballot, which resulted as follows: For Miss Vail-Shields, Blake, Hunter, Morcom and Mellow. For Miss McChrone-Lough-ney, Grant, Edmunds and Pritchard. Chairman Pritchard then declared Miss Vail elected and the meeting was af-
