tendered a farewell party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrica, No. 6 Cherry lane, on Tuesday evening, by the members and friends of Zion United Evangelical church. For three years this amiable gentleman and his wife have labored acceptably among these people and it is with saddened hearts that they learned that the annual conference had decreed that they must nove to a new field of labor.

Mr. Fredrica, with that tact for which he is noted, beguiled the reverend gentleman to his home, there to await hour the various members of the church were to be seen hastening in all directions, their mecca being Mr. Fredrica's home, where they enjoyed themselves highly.

The Providence Council quartette, of which Mr. Moore was director, rendered some charming vocal numbers, ending with a charming selection entitled "Good Night." Previous to the departure for their homes the guests were photographed. Mr. Moore departed last evening at 7.39 on the Delaware and Hudson train for his new field of labor on the Cumberland cir-
