MAJOR GOODSELL'S FAITHFUL DOG.

An Electric Railway in Contemplation-A Lanesboro Man Discovers That Great Bend Is Not Heaven. The Christian Duty of Every Husband-Told in a Few Lines.

special to the Scranton Tribune. Susquehanna, March 22. - When Major Adam Goodsell removed with his family from Susquehanna county to Marion, Ohio, two months since, they left behind them an intelligent and faithful shepherd dog named "Rover." The family left for their new home in their carriage, to see the country and to visit relatives and friends en route. Rover was given to a neighbor, and for several days after the departure of the major and his family he refused to eat, mourned and refused to be comforted. Then he suddenly disappeared, to the keen regret of his new owner, who knew of his value upon a farm.

The Goodsell family arrived safely at Marion, and at once commenced housekeeping. A letter from there states that on Thursday evening last the family were awakened by the ringing of the door bell. The Major opened the door and was astounded to find Rover vigorously pulling the bell-knob. The faithful creature had followed the carriake tracks for over six hundred miles. He had carried his pants in his mouth, and all that tiresome journey he had but one scent. Rover was welcomed to his new Ohio home, and for the remainder of his days he will be fed with choice morsels from the ash barrel. There are few such cases of canine sagacity upon record.

Waseca Council, Daughters of Pocahontas will on Saturday evening pay Winguretta Council, of Binghamton, fraternal visitation. An adoption and banquet is included in the programme, It is expected that the Erie shop men will on Tuesday next be paid for ser-vices in the month of February.

Susquehanna has a return visitation from the "Monte Carlo Girls", March 29th.

Politicians are already trotting the country roads, seeking Democratic nominations. They don't ask much. Late advices from Hon, Galusha A Grow are to the effect that he is on the high road to recovery. And all odr people rejoice. One morning recently, when a couple who had registered as man and wife came down to breakfast at a hotel, one of the first remarks of the "Mrs." was to ask her alleged husband if he used sugar in his coffee. It was a very innocent inquiry, yet it led to much speculation. A certain Sunday school teacher told her class of young ladies last Sunday that it was "the Christian duty of every husband to buy a new Easter bonnet for his wife." And yet people speak shudderingly of anarchists and their teachings on sale this morning. Variety is big. while price is little. We expect the ribbons to flutter today.

c for Women's fine fast black Hosiery

One of the finest stocks in "The Leader" was its Hoslery-occupying a large section of the main floor. Here is one of the best lots in the stock: Women's full, regularly made and strictly fast black Stockings, perfectly seamless and carefully finished. New goods that had never been shown in "The Leader"-but were marked to sell at 10c pair. A big bargain at 6c.

/c for "Leader" is-cent Handkerchiefs

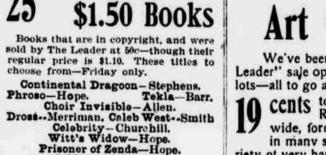

Handkerchiefs "The Leader" sold at 15 cents before Christmas cannot be bought for less than that today-so you'll do well to lay in a supply from these today at very much under half price. Some with lace edges, some embroidered edges and embroidered hemstitched; also mourning handkerchiefs, with from one to three stripes. Six cents for choice Friday.

Lace Curtains 45° Complete with pole

Hardly a dollar's worth of "The Leader's" Upholstery Stock had ever been on view; it was entirely new when the store was closed.

Today you buy a complete pair of pretty Lace Curtains, very nobby patterns and full length, with pole and trimmings, for less than one-half of the actual worth. There ought to be a big rush to the Third Floor today. Will you be among the number?

Unpleasant Experience of James Gaughan, a Pittston Miner.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Pittston, March 22 .-- James Gaughan, aged about 50 years, a miner employed in the No. 8 colliery of the Pennsylvania Coal company, had a rather unpleasant experience last night. While on his way out of the mine yesterday afternoon about 2.30 o'clock his lamp went out and he lost his way. Finally, coming in contact with an empty mind car, he got inside the car to await the arrival of some one with a light. It was 6 o'clock this morning when driver boys on their way to work found him sitting in the car. He was one the worse off for his eighteer hours solitary confinement, except the
