$300 ball for his appearance at court. The charge grew out of an attack made on the saloon about a month ago, when O'Donnell, with two companions, broke the windows in the building and threw a large stone through the bar mirror. They escaped, but left evidence which was sufficient to identify them. Warrants were issued, but O'Donnell was the only one captured and he offered much resistance.

The prisoner was also wanted for resisting Patrolman Evans and escaping from him some time ago. An additional warrant was issued for this offense and the alderman fined him $10 when he was arraigned on the other

Mrs. Samuel R. Jones, of 1308 Eynon street, Hyde Park, says: 'I suffered for many years with kidney trouble. My doctor said it was catarrh of the bladder. There was a constant, duil pain in the small of my back, which extended up between my shoulders. When stooping or doing any work about the house the pain was sharp as to be almost unbearable. I might say that I hardly knew what it was to be without a backache for years. I could not sleep nights and had to get up often before morning and walk the floor. ### ATTORNEY OKELL'S STATEMENT Gives His Version of the Facts in the McAndrew Case. The following statement is made by Attorney George M. Okell, concerning the McAndrew case reported in The Tribune of Saturday:

Last August, while attorney for the Dunmore school board, I had occasion to call on the McAndrews a number of times in reference to a bad deed which they had given to Byron Brady. On one of my visits they informed me that P. D. Manley, of Dunmore, and the Dime Savings bank were endeavoring, by unscrup-ulous methods, to steal their property from them, such as ararnging with the give them an opportunity to foreclose etc., and that they desired to transfer the loan to strangers, and asked me if I could negotiate a loan for $2,500, and

I immediately made application to the sale. This was the first knowledge I had of the property being in the hands of the sheriff I immediately called upon the McAndrews and informed them I could no make the loan, and to apply elsewhere. They informed me that they had and could not get the loan, and that it was no use to bother trying any further, and that they would do anything so that Mapley and the rest could not get the property. They offered to transfer it to ovided I would stay the sale and I immediately went over to the sherift to pay off the mortgage, but the sheriff requested poundage, which I declined to pay, and instead I decided to take an assignment of the judgment from Mr. Comegys, who held an assignment of the bank's judgment. Mr. Comegys was sick, but a few days later, upon payment of the debt, interest and cost which had accumulated, amounting to about $2,800, he
