BUDGET COMPLETED.

Appropriations for the Coming Fiscal Year. After a hard struggle on the part of the estimates committee to make the appropriations satisfactory to all interests the budget was completed and passed two readings by the common council Saturday evening. The effort will doubtless be rewarded by a speedy passage of the ordinance in select council and the affixing of the mayor's signature. Last year the law was violated by leaving the appropriations for the new councils. This is the way the taxpayers' money will be spent Remains of Mrs. Mary A. Dailey at Rest - Farewell Reception - Personal and Other News Matter.

Many of the best known and aged residents from this town and up and down the valley were in attendance upon the services held in connection with the burial of the late venerable Mrs. Mary A. Dailey, which were held yesterday from the Atherton home-stead on South Main street. The obsequies were impressive and eloquent and were conducted by the Rev. Fran-50 0) cis Gendall, of the Methodist Episcopal church, and Rev. L. R. Foster, of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church. Both paid a deserving tribute to the memory of the aged deceased and eulogized her numerous excellent characteristics. The singing was rendered by the choir of the Presbyterian church. The floral offerings were beautiful. At the close of the services the remains were borne to the Presbyterian cemetery, where interment was made. The pall-bear-ers were: Messrs. Archbald Boyd, Samuel Harlas, John Cooper, Henry 2,000 00 Baker, C. H. Van Horn, William Stone and Robert and William Sykes, of Green Ridge. A farewell reception was given in honor of Miss Mamie Francis at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Morris, on Friday evening, previous to her return to resume her studies at the Bloomsburg State Normal school. The evening was spent in a sociable manner, including, music selections given by Misses Gendall and Francis. Delicious refreshments were served. In attendance were: Misses Lena Gendall, Mamie Francis, Gertrude Morris, Margaret Jones, Jennie Harris Henrietta Harris, Lizzie Owens, Maud Davis, and Messrs. Frank and Bert Gendall, Thomas E. Evans, John Owens, John R. Thomas and Edward Fox. Flashlight pictures were taken during the evening.

OLYPHANT.

One of the most successful local in stitutes ever held in this county was held at this place on Saturday. The afternoon session was held in the Cen-tral school and was very largely attended. The session opened with a song, "My Country 'Tis of Thee.' which was followed by a talk on "Spelling," by Professor M. J. Lloyd, of Dickson. He explained the necessity of teaching a child the use of words as they learn to spell them. Miss Cora Matthews recited "The Stolen Watermelen," in a pleasing manner. Professor Cummings, with the aid of a diagram on the blackboard, explained how a bill is passed through congress, which was very interesting. Misses May Kennedy and Daisy Donnelly sang "Evening Shades." fessor Hockenberry, of Carbondals, gave a short talk on arithmetic, which vas listened to by a very attentive audience. The subject was discussed by Professor Lloyd. "Somewhere a Heart is Waiting," was sweetly sung by Miss Barbara Patten. This was followed by a song "Baby Bye," ren-dered by the little tots from the primary department. They received an encore and sang "Once I Got Into a Boat." Miss Black, of Wilkes-Barre, gave a very entertaining talk on the method of teaching children to read by the Polliard system. She gave several blackboard illustrations of the work. The afternoon session closed with singing "The Star Spangled Ban-The evening session was held in the Father Matthew Opera house, where a very large audience assem bled. The opening song was rendered

Cummings then introduced Professor Bible, principal of the Stroudsburg State Normal school. He gave an excellent address on the "Progress of the Ninetcenth Century." He told a number of amusing anecdotes, which were greatly enjoyed by the audience He received a very hearty applause. Miss Margaret Evans rendered "I Am Waiting for Thee Asthore." She received an encore and rang "My Little Georgia Rose." County Superintendent J. C. Taylor made a few remarks He praised the teachers of this place on their successful institute, which he said had never been equalled in Lackawanna county. Professor Bible then gave a humorous selection; Mrs. and Miss Anna Brown rendered a selection which delighted the audience. "The Star Spangled Panner," by the audience, brought the institute to a close. Among those present from out of town were Professors Boyard, Dunmore; Davis, Dunmore; Hockenberry, Carbondale: McConnon, Wilkes-

For the fourteenth time the Olyphant council met in session on Saturday evening in their efforts to effect an organization, but failed to do so, and they will have to appear before the court this morning to show cause why they should not be unseated and twelve men of their political faith appointed to take their places. At the meeting Saturday night, Mr. Gallagher created a mild sensation by offering to withdraw and named Mr. Gillespie as his successor. This was after the thrid ballot had been taken. Mr. Reap said that as long as Mr. Gatlagher wished to resign, it would be proper for the council to reconsider the former motion of clesing nominations and have them reopened. Mr. Brown then moved the nominations be re-opened. A vote was taken which was lost on a tie. Mr. Reap then said that inasmuch as Mr. Gallagher had resigned that it left but one candldate for president in the field, Mr. Van Sickle, and moved that he be elected unanimously. Mr. Brown protested to this and stated that while Mr. Gallagher had offered to withdraw, his resignation had not been accepted, and therefore he was as much a candidate as Mr. Van Sickly. Mr. Reap's motion was put before the house, however, but was lost on the usual tie vote. Balloting on the two candidates was again proceeded with and twelve more ballots were taken. when Mr. Brown moved that the meeting adjourn. This was also defeate1 by a tie vote, and the balloting went en for another hour, until thirty-one ballots were taken. The meeting then adjourned indefinitely. The number of ballots taken since the first right mount to 121. The Delaware and Hudson collieries at this place will be like today.

"A Young Wife."

The scenery of "A Young Wife," which will be presented here again to-night at the Lyceum is said to be very elaborate. The first act set, which is the library of the Douglass country residence near New York city, was fashioned after the real residence of a famous New York banker. All the scenery, effects, properties and draperies that were used during the long run at the Fourteenth Street theater, New York, will also be seen here.

Malcoim Williams, one of the leading ctors of "A Young Wife" company, is a song writer of considerable reputation, having written "My Aunt Ellzer" and several other very popular ballads. He has written a song especially for the "A Young Wife" company, which is introduced in the second act and sung by the comedian of the play, entitled "Everything Is Lovely on the Bowery.

"An Actor's Romance."

"An Actor's Romance" will be presented in Scranton Tuesday afternoon by the Cook and Church Stock com pany, which opens a week's engage ment tonight at the Academy of Music. As the title indicates, it deals with the life of an actor and brings clearly before the public eye not only what is seen in front of the footlights, but what transpires behind the scenes, giving one a perfect picture of the way in a play is produced, how and where the actors dress, how the scene shifters work, how artificial snow and thunder storms are made; in short what goes on behind the scenes which the audience does not see from the

Imagine seeing a large crowd of moving figures, wildly gesticulating, show ing their anxious desire to satisfy a terrible vengeance, in their midst figure bowing with meekness and holiness to their abuse, and we gain an idea of some of the scenes in the life of Christ which are brought out in the

"The Carpetbagger."

Hepburn Jones, the dramatic critic of the Chicago Chronicle, in a criticism on "The Carpetbagger," says: "It is a great and good American play." It is in this play, a political romantic comedy, that the eminent comedian Tim Murphy, will be seen at the Ly ceum tomorrow evening.

"The Carpetbagger" is a clean cu comedy of American manners, the time chosen being the reconstruction period in the south after the war of the bellion. The play is conceived in the best artistic spirit, and its execution is really beautiful. The dialogue is hu morous and witty.

"The Girl from Maxim's."

"The Girl from Maxim's," one of the funniest French farces ever seen in this country will be the attraction at the Lyceum theater on Wednesday, March 28. This is the play which Charles Frohman declared over his own signature to contain more ingenious and laughable situations than any farce he ever produced.

When it was presented at the Criterion theater last August its success was instantaneous and crowded houses were played to at every performance but owing to an arrangement for the appearance of another attraction, Mr.

Thursday evening will be Kirke L Shelle's Opera company, in "The Princess Chic." In this new and original opera comique, its author, Mr Kirke La Shelle, it is said, has give a charming story of love and war with a most romantic setting. While the sentimental motive is dominant, there is a wide vein of comedy running through it of such genuine fun as to keep the audience in a state of hilarity when not entranced by the beautiful music and exquisite prettiness of faces, forms, costumes and scenes.
