MALOS PLEGAN" SURBOUNDED WITH AN AIR OF MYSTERY.

Young People Are Preparing to Surprise the Public with a Production Which Is as Yet Unknown to Any One but the Participants-Funerals of Solomon Arnold and Mrs. Maddocks-Minstrels of the Electric City Wheelmen-Other Items of General Interest.

A mysterious performance as being rehearsed at the Washburn street Presbyterian church, which has begun to attract attention, but the promoters are guarding their actions as cautiously as the proverbial tabby watches a mouse. The name of the production is "Kalos Plegan," whatever that means, and it will be publicly pro-duced at Mears' hall on April 25 and 27 for the benefit of the church. It will be entirely different from anything ever presented in this city, and over 100 performers will be it the cast of

From what can be learned of the entertainment it is said to be "oriental, classical, fantastic, clever, picturesque, attractive, poetical, musical, martial, patriotic, delicate, refined, elaborate, enjoyable, amusing, aesthetic, unique and entrancing." The participants are constantly drilling under the direction of Misses Surah A. Jones and Clara Sanders, and Lieutenant David M. Davis and Benjamin Allen are assisting in perfecting the military manoeuvers.

The Sunday school orchestra will assist in the production and the following young ladies will be the "Vivian Giers" of the production: Misses Catherine Harris, Allie Jones, Kate Owens, Bessie Morgan, Mary Edwards, Esther Sanders, Anna Jones, Bertha Sanders Bessie Winans, Ella Sanders, Jemima Jones, Maud Sanders, Gertrude Jones, Flora Frank, Anna Edwards and Olive

A Word on Men's Underwear

The bitter cold of Winter has passed and the temperate season, when medium weight Underwear is most desirable, is now upon us.

April and May Will Each Bring

Its share of warm and chilly waves alternating, and the man who values both health and comfort will adjust his Underwear to the special demands of this changeable period.

We Have Underwear

Of all weights and makes, ready to show you at a moment's notice, in fine wool, silk and wool, cotton and wool, etc., and we can assure you of garments that will fit you like a glove, no matter what your height, breadth or circumference may be. Our experience, however, is that

Otis Underwear Fills the Bill

At this time of the year better than anything you can buy, if you get it in a good medium-weight Balbriggan make. It is always soft and kindly on the skin, is warm enough even for chilly days, and it fits snugly to the form without being bulky or clumsy.

That's Why We Say Otis.

No, it isn't a bit more expensive than good qualities in other makes, and Otis possesses good qualities that none of the other makes have. Drop in today and we'll both show you and tell you why.

Mercerized Underwear

In light blues or flesh color tints will be exceedingly popular this season. Fast colors always, and the appearance of silk at cotton's cost, makes mercerized underwear safe buying.
