"Solid as a Rock."

The Dime Deposit and Discount Bank is backed by men of mark, money and financial skill. Management conservative; vaulis burglar proof and fire proof; tacilities modern in every respect; officials courteous to rich and poor alike.

Reputation in town and state not excelled anywhere. That reputation stands back of every dollar deposited with it. These facts explain the popularity of the

Dime Deposit

Discount Bank

DR. TAYLOR, ENTIST

131 Wyoming avenue, next door to Ho-tel Jermyn. Residence, 1789 Sanderson Avenue. Experienced, practical, scien-tific. No complaints against charges or ## ackawanna aundry.

268 Penn Avenue. A. B. WARMAN.

PERSONAL

W. R. Storrs is seriously III at his hom on Wyoming avenue. Major and Mrs. W. S. Millar returned last night from their honeymoon in the Bermudas. They are at the Jermyn. Henry J. Carr, librarian of the Scran-ton public library, is in Washington atng a convention of the librarians of New Jersey. Pennsylvania and Washing-

The following Scrantonians were reg istered at the Hotel Albert, New York city, last week: P. H. Warren and wife, John T. Watkins and wife, B. F. Lynch, L. J. Northrup, P. J. McCann, William H. Campbe'l and J. E. Swift.

Mrs. A. H. Shopland, of Wyoming ave he went to visit friends in Westfield about a month ago, was taken ill while there, and has been under care of a trained nurse for three weeks. On Tuesday her condition was considered serious when she was removed to St. Bar-nabas's hespital, Newark, N. J.

Dr. A. J. Connell and F. S. Barker, of Scranton, Pa., arrived in town last night and will make a protracted stay. It eems good to see the rotund counts ince and hear the folly laugh of neigh-or Barker again. He has many friends here and they all told him before he left for Scranton last fall that he would be back again soon. Every visitor comes back.-Alamogerdo News.

Very Interesting.

There are many novelties in White Wash Goods this season. See them any time after today at the Globe

ITALIAN CHURCH BLESSED.

Bishop Hoban Preached the Dedicatory Sermon.

The new Italian Catholic church of St. Mary of the Graces, on Chestnut street, West Scranton, was blessed by Rt. Rev. Bishop Hoban yesterday in the presence of a large gathering. Rev. Dominic Landio, pastor of the church, assisted in the services. The dedicatory sermon was preached by Bishop Hoban in Italian and English.

A number of Italian Catholic societies from this city and vicinity participated in the exercises, which were preceded by a short parade, in which the Roma band discoursed music. During the services music was turnished by Fiore's orchestra.

The new church building was for merly occupied as No. 16 school, and has been remodelled to meet the requirements of the Italian congregation. It is also used as a school, chapel and convent.

They Come with Spring.

White goods and spring time comtogether. There's a lovely display of all the new styles and weaves at the Globe Warehouse.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[Under this heading short letters of in-terest will be published when accompa-nied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune does not assume re-sponsibility for opinions here expressed.]

Kindness Acknowledged. Editor of The Tribune

Sir: The Howard Place African Meth edist Episcopal church hereby acknowledges its lasting gratitude to Messrs. E H. Ripple, Charles H. Schadt, Thomas R. Brooks and Luther Weller, for their very cheerful gift of coal, by means of which we were enabled to successfully prosecute our work during the past winter. Geo. W. Brown, Trustee.

Per Campbell Hughes. Lakewood in the Pines.

Lakewood, situated in the balmy pin helt of New Jersey, is noted as the best midwinter and early spring resort of the Middle States. In addition to the curative power of the air, impregnated with the peculiar qualities of pine forests and the medicinal qualities of its mineral springs, it has become known as the winter headquarters of the ultra-fashionable sports, and offers great advantages for golfing, drag hunting, cycling, riding, etc.

The introduction of the new fast express train between Atlantic City and New York, via the Philadelphia and Reading Route (Atlantic City Railroad and the Central Railroad of New Jersey), stopping each way at Lakewood and connecting with trains to and from Philadelphia, at Winslow Junction, places Philadelphia and Lakewood in touch. Train leaves Chestnut Street and South Street Ferries, Philadelphia at 2.00 p. m., arriving Lakewood 3.48. Eleturning, leaves Lakewood 5.00 p. m., arriving Philadelphia 6.55 p. m. Additional trains leave Philadelphia 8.00 a. m., and 4.10 p. m. and Lakewood 7.40 a. m. and 3.40 p. m. On application in advance to any of principal agents Philadelphia and Reading Railway arrangements can be made for through tickets and baggage

Take a Look Tomorrow or following days this week at the new beauties in White Wash Goods shown at the Globe Warehouse.

SUDDEN DEATH OF BENJAMIN HUGHES

EX - MINE SUPERINTENDENT SUCCUMBS TO PNEUMONIA.

While Attending to Some Legal Business in the West Side Bank Last Wednesday He Suffered a Chill, Which Resulted in a Heavy Cold and Finally Caused His Death. Deceased Was General Superintendent of the D., L. & W. Coal Mines for Thirty-five Years.

Benjamin Hughes, ex-general mine superintendent of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, died at 2.15 o'clock vesterday afternoon at his home, 1201 Washburn street, after an illness of only a few days.

His death was so sudden and unexpected that it came as a shock to the entire community, but few people outside the immediate relatives having been aware of his illness. Despite his advanced age, his rugged constitution and regular habits bespoke for him many more years of usefulness, but he succumbed to the dreadful results of neumonia within five days after bene stricken.

Last Wednesday Mr. Hughes had an ppointment with a friend at the West Side bank and at 10 o'clock went there to meet him. Shortly after his arrival he took a chill and was hastily assisted to his home, where he immediately took to his bed and Dr. W. E. Allen, his physician, was summoned. He pronounced Mr. Hughes' aliment a heavy cold, and was confident of his ultimate recovery, but pneumonia set in and the patient grew worse, until it was apparent to all in attendance that there was slight hopes for his recovery.

A trained nurse was engaged, and everything possible was done to prolong his life, but the end came peacefully, and he was conscious almost to the last, surrounded by the members of his family, who had been in constant attendance upon him. He died as he lived, at peace with the world, His death is a great loss to the entire community, as he was loved and respected by everybody who knew him

LOSS TO THE CHURCH.

Probably the most affected people will be found among the members of the First Welsh Baptist church, congregation and Sunday school, where Mr. Hughes' counsel and advice was as much revered as within the confines of his home. For over fifty years he had been the leader of that flock, serving them constantly in one capacity or another, including the presidency of the trustees, deacons and clders, and for thirty-five years superintended the Sunday school work in all its departments.

It was not until the first of the present year that he relinquished that honored position, feeling that his advanced age would not permit him to accept another term, and it was with the deepest feelings of regret that the members accepted his resignation. He continued, however, up to the time of his dath in the several offices bestowed upon him by the church.

Mr. Hughes was born near Bryn Mawr, Breconshire, South Wales, on the history of that locality. He was the son of Daniel and Esther Hughes, ninety-seven and the former at sixty-The education of deceased was ng a brief attendance at the pay schools of his native land. When ten years old he began to assist his father to assist in the management of his father's business

In the fall of 1848, when twenty-four after a voyage of thirty-six days, durng which he had a narrow escape from drowning, arrived in Philadelphia, and afterwards went to Pottsville. There he was employed in mining for the company until January, 1850, when he ame to this region and entered the employ of the Scranton Iron and Coal ompany. That position he resigned in July, 1853, to accept a position with the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company in the Diamond mine.

INSIDE FOREMAN.

In 1855 he was appointed inside foreman of the Diamond, and remained in that position until 1862, when he accepted a better position at the Luzerne slope in the North End. While engaged at the last named place, Mr. Hughes was selected by the late J. J. Albright to conduct a prospecting tour in Cape Breton, Nova Scotia. In this capacity he arranged several leases for extensive mining interests and when ne returned to Scranton at the contusion of his mission was appointed superintendent of the Storrs shaft, perated by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company.

In 1865, Mr. Hughes was promoted t be general mine superintendent under the company, in which capacity he served until July 1, 1899, when he resigned. At the time he became connected with the company there were only five shafts here, but this number has since been incerased to thirty, with twenty-one breakers.

During all of this lenghty period Mr. Hughes was one of the most successful mine experts in the anthracite region and his advice was constantly sought by operators and superintendents of other mines in cases of difficulty, where his skill and extensive experience always proved of supreme value. As an officer of a great cor-poration, having under his charge thousands of men Mr. Hughes was singularly successful. While faithfully adhering to the interests of his employers, he was ever ready to listen to the complaint or application of the men who were under his care, and it may be surmised that the number of callers with real and imaginary grievances were sufficient to require the exercise of more than ordinary Nevertheless, Mr. Hughes patience. was never found without a genial smile and kind greeting and listened patiently to all comers and, whether their mission was successful or not, his visitors departed with a favorable impression of a man who was willing to receive them at all hours. In West Scranton the name of Benjamin Hughes was more than the proverbial "household word." He was always loyal to the West Side, its people, its interests and institutions, and assisted in a material manner to the marvelous growth of the important suburb of Scranton. Above all other institutions, however, his constant attention was earnestly devoted to the development of the First Weish Bap-tist church, on South Main avenue. In this direction eternity alone will reveal the fruitful results of his work. As superintendent of the Sunday school for a number of years he was never content unless planning and arranging some feature for the extension of the work, and by these means he imparted so much of his undoubted energy into the institution that its progress from year to year indicated in a substantial manner the worthy, excellent and last-ing work of its faithful superintendent.

His cardinal point in conducting the school was "Example: Not Precept and he furnishes a great example the value of the trite saying. strove to be punctual and regular in attendance and thus impressed the golden rules upon the teachers and scholars. He always showed his willingness to perform in a thorough manner all the duties of his office, even to the most minute details, and in this he expected the large corps of teachers o do likewise. In this respect his example was also inculcated and the passing years in recording the progress of the school, have proved the wisdom of his methods. After having accomplished the desired ends in Sunlay school work, he resigned in favor of one of his most ardent supporters A large number of the Baptists of the West Side and other sections of the city, as well as those who have left for various portions of the world, have always testified to the thoroughness of Mr. Hughes' work as a Sunday school

A PRIZED ADDRESS.

In his life and teachings Mr. Hughes was a Christian first and a Baptist afterward. In 1887 the young men of his class presented him with an iluminated address, as a slight token of their deep and sincere appreciation of his serrvices and Mr. Hughes said of the address: "I prize that more than any gift ever given to me outside my family," and he explained the reasons for his preference by stating the gratification it gave him to witness the young men who had sat under his discipline grow up into a life of usefulness and consecration, and that he could reflect upon the many happy hours spent in their company and entoy the thought that his slight services had been of some value. But when, he added, they came and thanked him and showed that they appreciated his work, it was easy to surmise why he expressed some pride as the receiver of the address.

As president of the official board of the same church Mr. Hughes rendered invaluable services and it has been a matter of comment that, while a strict disciplinarian, his ripened intellect has always kept under control any premature step which might be proposed in church administration. His liberallty in the cause of religion, and particularly to his own church, will never be known, as he acted upon the principle of always giving according to his ability. While encouraging others to subscribe liberally he never forgot to set an example which compelled others to follow. The First Welsh Baptist church loses in him their greatest pillar. In all respects he was eminently a leader and it will be absolutely impossible, at all events for the present, to supply his place. The members will mourn his loss as a family would mourn the loss of an affectionate father #### and a wise counsellor ASSISTED THEM ALL.

Although a devoted and strong Baptist, Mr. Hughes, however, was always ready to assist other churches and found it impossible to turn a deaf ear to appeals for any charitable and October 25, 1824, and came of a family deserving object. His philanthropic identified for many generations with work was not confined to religious institutions, and it would be impossible the latter of whom died at the age of organizations which he has befriended and supported. As president of the Hyde Park Welsh Philosophical society limited to the knowledge acquired dur- he has upon many occasions showed his zeal in the cause of assisting the young men of West Scranton in the work of self-education and mental im in the mine, but afterwards returned provement. In other directions he has shown his desire to encourage the riaing generation to avail themselves of the opportunities to improve their poyears of age, he left Liverpool, and sitions, and there are numbers of young men ready to attest their suc cess in life to his ready advice and willing assistance.

Before leaving Wales, Mr. Hughes married Miss Mary Davis, who accom-Philadelphia and Reading Railroad panied him to this country and remained here until her death on October 6, 1880. Of their children, five daughters are living, namely, Mrs. Esther Evans, widow of Rev. John Evans, of Westerly, R. I.; Mrs. Eliza Jones, widow of Luther Jones: Mrs. ennie Eynon, wife of A B Eynon, cashier of the West Side bank; Mrs. William Stephens and Mrs. Jenkin T. Reese. In November, 1881, Mr. Hughes married Mrs. Ann Rosser, or Shamokin, who also survives him.

Daniel, a brother of Mr. Hughes, died at the age of sixty-six years; Evan, another brother, was killed in the Avondale disaster, and Elias, also a brother, died in West Pittston in September, 1894. Three sisters survive him, Charlotte, of Pittsburg; Rebecca, in Wales, and Mrs. Rachel James, of North Hyde Park avenue. Fourteen grandchildren of Mr. Hughes' are living. Mr. Hughes was one of a family of twenty-one children, all of whom lived to enjoy long life. His second wife, who survives him, is over eighty years of age, and has been an invalid for several years, and is now in an enfechied condition.

MEMBER OF COUNCIL

In 1859 Mr. Hughes was elected a nember of the council of the borough of Hyde Park and served until 1862. In 1861 he was schooledirector; and for three years was a member of the select council of Scranton, serving one year as president of that body. In 1892 he was a delegate to the convention at

00000000000000000

Fancy Jersey Eggs Per Dozen.

[LETTER TO MES. PINCHAM NO. 78,465] "I was a sufferer from female weakness. Every month regularly as the

PERIODS OF SUFFERING GIVE PLACE TO PERIODS OF JOY

menses came, I suffered dreadful pains in uterus, ovaries were affected and had leucorrhoea. I had my children very fast and it .left me very weak. A year ago 1 was taken with flooding and almost died. The doctor even gave me up and wonders how I ever lived. "I wrote for Mrs. Pinkham's advice at Lynn, Mass., and took her medicine and began to get well. I took several bottles of the Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and can truly say that am cured. You would hardly know me, I am feeling and looking so well, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me what I am."-Mrs. J. F. STRETCH, 461 MECHANIC ST., CAMDEN, N. J.

How Mrs. Brown Was Helped.

"I must tell you that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than any doctor.

"I was troubled with irregular menstruction. Last summer I began the use of your Vegetable Compound, and after taking two bottles, I have been regular every month since. I recommend your medicine to all."-MRS. MAGGIE A. BROWN, WEST PT. PLEASANT, N. J.

Minneapolis that nominated Benjamin Harrison for the presidency, and he had the honor of casting one of the original eleven votes from Pennsylvania for Harrison. He also attended the national convention of 1896 at St. Louis, with hon. William Cornell as delegates from this congressional district

When the West Side bank was or ganized in the early '70s, Mr. Hughes was vice-president and assisted in its establishment, and was recently reelected president, which office he has held for over fifteen years. He was also one of the organizers of the Cambrian Mutual Fire Insurance company, and continued as its president from the organization to the close of the company's business about a year ago. Fraternally, he was a member of Hyde Park lodge, No. 339, Free and Accepted Masons, and assisted in organizing the Ivorites society in this city, and was the first grand president, which office he held for about nine years.

In addition to the above offices, Mr. Hughes was president of the Chamberlain Coal company, which operates in Schuylkill county, and also active as general manager of the company since he resigned from the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company. The Welsh Philosophical society, now the Hyde Park Free Library association. also honored him with the highest office within their gift.

The funeral services will be conduct-ed at the First Welsh Baptist church on South Main avenue Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Rev. D. D. Hopkins, the pastor, will have charge of the services. The interment will be made in Forest Hill cemetery.

Mr. Hughes' death was announced while the Sunday school was in session yesterday afternoon, and adjournment was made shortly afterwards. At last evening's service one of his favorite hymns was sung by the congregation as a mark of respect.

PASSED UPON FAVORABLY

There Is a Strong Probability That Sub-Postoffice Will Be Located in West Scranton.

The movement recently instituted by the West Side board of trade for the establishment of a branch postoffice in that populous section of the city was vigorously promoted at Washington by Congressman Connell and word has just been received by him from the postoffice department that it has been passed favorably. The details will be made known in a few days.

The next step which Congressman Connell will take in the effort to improve the postal facilities of the district will be in the direction of having Lackawanna county included in the limits of the rural free delivery system which is being tried experimentally in a number of states. If successful this will mean a very great convenience to residents of the townships living some distance from the postoffice, as it will bring the mails at stated intervals to their doors. Mr. Connell is hopeful that he can induce the department to give the system a trial in this county.

The new United States court bill is in the hands of a sub-committee of the house judiciary committee. This committee has not yet made any reports to the house, but there is reason to hope that when the present bill shall come before it for consideration its action will not be unfavorable.

LEBECK & CORIN FAILURE.

Sensational Testimony Given by C. E. Bradbury, Expert Accountant.

At a meeting of the representatives of the creditors of the late firm of Lebeck & Corin, proprietors of the Lead-er, held in the office of Referee in Bankruptcy Van Wormer Saturday afternoon, Expert Accountant C. E. Bradbury testified that there was a discrepancy of $75,000 between the net imount of the inventory taken just after the failure and the amount of the goods purchased during 1899. This fact was discovered by Mr. Bradbury after an exhaustive examination of the books of the concern.

Both Messrs. Lebeck and Corin, who were themselves examined later; explained that this was due in a large extent to the low value placed upon the goods by the men who took the inventory. They contended that in many instances that came under their personal observation this valuation was away below the cost of the goods. They further explained that a very arge amount of goods were sold by them at figures below their cost during the last few months of their business career.

Ex-County Commissioner William Franz has opened a smoking parlor and cigar store at 310 Washington avenue, opposite the Tribune, where he will be pleased to see his friends, and promises them something new in his White Goods Tomorrow. The first display of the season will be made tomorrow at the Globe Ware-

Flatulence is cured by Beecham's

AND INTIMATED THAT THERE WERE OTHERS

BILLS AGAINST NINE.

Twenty-three Indictments, All Told, Charging Bribery in Two Cases and Slot Machine Illegalities in the Others-Select Councilman Fellows, E. J. Maloney, Constables Ira Mitchell and J. F. Woelkers, Detective "Ike" Seidman, H. C. Pease, E. A. Knight, Martin Clark and Harry Oblinger the Victims.

Twenty-three indictments against nine different persons is the result of the grand jury's Lexow, which kept the city all agog during the past two The return was made at II clock Saturday morning.

Indictments for bribery were re-turned against Select Councilman H. T. Fellows, of the Fifteenth ward, and E. J. Maloney, superintendent of the Central Pennsylvania Telephone and Supply company.

Constable Ira Mitchell, of the Ninth ward; Constable Joseph F. Woelkers, of the Eleventh ward; Detective "Ike" Seidman, of Corcoran murder fame; Martin Clark, H. C. Pease, E. A. Knight and Harry Oblinger were indicted for various offenses in connection with the slot machine scandals.

The offense charged against Councilman Fellows is that he solicited a bribe either for himself or some other councilman, during the first Lackawanna telephone fight. One vote was needed to carry the measure through and Mr. Fellows, it is alleged, told one of the Lackawanna company's lobbyists that a vote could be secured for $500; that he knew where to get the vote, and that if $500 was left in an envelope at a certain place he would see that the vote was forthcoming. The offer was not taken. Mr. Fellows' vote was recorded against the measure.

The charge against Mr. Maloney is said to be based on the testimony of Common Councilman Zizelman, of the Eighth ward, who, it will be remembered, admitted to the grand jury the truth of a story to the effect that had refused $150, offered by Mr. Maloney, to vote against the Lackawanna telephone ordinance.

AS TO THE SLOT MACHINES.

Pease is charged with maintaining slot machines in seven saloons, as follows: Joseph Cassesse's, J. J. McDonald', Charles Kaestner's, Oram's hotel, Martin O'Boyle's, Conway house, J. J. Brogan's. A separate indictment is returned in each case.

Six indictments are returned against Knight for maintaining slot machines in the hotels of George Mabey, M Leonard, Charles Miller, E. J. Loftus, Harry Chappell and Mulherin & Guth-

Clark is indicted for collecting money from three saloonkeepers on the plea that it was to be expended for the purpose of buying police protection for the slot machines which these parties maintained in their premises. Mitchell, Seidman and Woelkers, who are charged with larceny and receiving, are accused of seizing slot machines in Cassesse's hotel, the Grand Cntral, Horn's hotel and Callahan' hotel, removing them to Mitchell's restaurant and never accounting for the machines or the money they contained. A further charge is made against Constable Woelkers to the effect that he endeavored to levy tribute on South Side saloonkeeper who ran slot machine. Judge Edwards directed that captases be issued for each of the nine indicted parties and that they be brought in by the sheriff. Clark left town before the Lexow began and is still away. others are about the city, or at least ere last week. That the indicted parties are not the only offenders, in the opinion of the grand jury, can be gathered from the detailed report which follows:

LIST OF TRUE BILLS. Bribery-Horatio Fellows; Thomas

Exclusive Designs in Neckwear, is Our Hobby. Our 50c Line Will Please You.

203 Washington Ave.

OFFICE-Dime Bank Building.

Leyshon, pros. E. J. Maloney; Thom as Leyshon, pros. Larceny and Receiving—Ira Mit-chell, Hyman Seidman, Joseph F. Woelkers; Thomas Leyshon, pros. Conspiracy to Compound a Misde-meanor—Martin Clark; Thomas Ley-shon, pros. Martin Clark; Thomas Leyshon, pros. Martin Clark; Thomas Leyshon, pros.

GRAND JURY RETURNS TRUE

Misdemeanor in Office—Joseph Woel-ers; Thomas Leyshon, pros. Keeping a Gaming House—H. C. Thomas Leyshon, pros. Thomas Leyshon, pros. Thomas Leyshon, pros. Knight: Thomas Leyshon, pros. Knight: Thomas Leyshon, pros. Knight: Thomas Leyshon, pros. Thomas Leyshon, pros. Thomas Leyshon, pros. Knight; Thomas Leyshon, pros. Harry Oblinger: Thomas Leyshon, pros. E. A. Knight; Thomas Leyshon, pros. H C. Pease; Thomas Leyshon, pros. Besides these the jury made a voleminous report concerning the inves tigation, recommendations concerning the court house and jall. The full re-port is as follows: To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of the Peace, in and for the County of Lackawanna.

The grand inquest inquiring in and for the county of Lackawanna, respectfully report as follows, to wit:
In relation to the matters especially entrusted to us and concerning which the honorable court referred generally in the first charge to the jury and more particularly thereafter, to wit: First—The rumors prevalent in the city of Scranton that gambling devices known as slot machines were permit-ted to be operated in said city of Scranton, and that certain city officials and others were demanding and receiving large sums of money for alowing said gambling devices to b operated.

Second-The rumors current and

[Continued on Page 8.]

CRAND OPENING OF SPRING AND

Tuesday. Wednesday and Thursday, April 3d, 4th and 5th

The latest Millinery fashions for Spring and Summer will be exhibited in our magnificent nev show room. This is the most beautical and comprehensive showing of Pattern Hats including many reproductions of the French Models as well as a grand assortment of American designs. Do not fail to attend this GRAND OPENING as it will pay every lady to come miles to see the exquisite creations of Fashions latest production. A most cordial invitation to attend this grand opening is extended to all the ladies of Scranton.

Best 5c. Cigar

THE MODERS HARDWARE STORE

At Every First-Class Dealer's.

DRIVE THE DIRT

out-but you'll need mops and scrubbing brushes. A large 🕕 line here to select from, from 5c up.

Foote & Shear Co. 119 N. Washington Ave Prompt Delivery.

Prompt Denvery

C. F. BECKWITH & CO.,

Mine and Mill Supplies, Machinery, Etc.

WAREHOUSE-Green Ridge

The quality of the oils used in mixing colors determines the durability of the paints.

Oils

such as we offer will make paint of great smoothness and durability. A large surface can be covered and the coating will not peel, crack or wear off until it has done its full duty.

These prices will show that good oils are not expensive.

MATTHEWS BROS. 300 Lacks Wanna

Electric Supplies

We Carry In

STOCK

A full line of Electric Light ane Bell Supplies. Prices right. Call or write for quo-

Chas. B. Scott

119 Franklin Ave.

TELEPHONE 222

SPRING STYLES AT CONRAD'S

Foote & Fuller Co, Mears Building. 140-42 Washington Ave

HowAnyBoy

Can get an Ingersoll Stem-Winding

Watch for NOTHING

All we ask is a single halt yearly subscription to the beautiful Cassel's Little Folks Magazine, of London, England, at Twenty Cents a Month, for six months. Any Boy can do this in fifteen minutes, and he will get an Ingersoll, guaranteed, stem winding, $1.25 Watch, for doing so.

February, March and April copies now ready.

