TUNKHANNOCK. Special to the Scranton Tribune. Tunkhannock, April 2 .- An alarm of ire was sounded at about 3 o'clock this morning and on a response by the hose company the fire was located in the Iwelling house of George B. DeWitt, on Bridge street. Three streams of wa-ter were quickly turned on the building and the fire was soon under control. The night was without wind otherwise the fire might have proved serious, as the Wyoming hotel is situated next to the burned property on the south, separated by only a few feet of vacant land and on the north is the residence of Spencer D. Reed, just across a nar-row alley. The fire evidently started from the root and the whole upper story of the building is a total loss. The amount of insurance is not known.

> about three years ago, on the day the soldiers' and sallors' monument was dedicated here. Supervisor Nelson Ball, of Clinton township, was in town on Monday. There will be a number of changes among the business men of this place ifter today. The Consumer's company vill remove from the old National bank building to the Remington store building, occupied for a long time by the O.

5. Mills Hardware company, who have emoved to Sayre. Herrick Bros. will ecupy the room vacated by the Consumers' company until their new block is finished. The rooms vacated by Herrick Bros, will be extensively repaired and then will be occupied by Louis Hilkowich. Orlando Ace vacates the conectionery store purchased by him from D. E. Gray and Mr. Lyons, of Montrose, moves in, Mr. Ace going to the ooms over F. C. Burgess' store. C. F. Goodrich will move here from Wilkes-Barre and open a jeweiry store occu-pying half of the McLeod carpet store. P. R. Borden removes from the Alvin Day store room to the building next postoffice recently occupied by G. H. Ross. J. F. Sickler goes from the rooms now occupied by him in the Stark block to the new building being rected by the Starks on Tiega street, and the local exchange of the Tunkhannock Telephone company will be moved from the F. B. Jennings store o this place. Squire J. T. Kethledge will take his office from the Platt block o the store room lately occupied by Charles Crawford on Bridge street. Dr. A. H. Murray moves from the Dennison house across the street to rooms over S. D. Reed's music store and will have his office there until the new Herrick block is finished when he will remove to that block. Dr. H. L. Mc-Kown moves into the house vacated by Dr. Murray, having purchased it from Dr. J. W. Dennison. The local

Knights of Pythias lodge will move from their present quarters on South Tiago street to the Platt block, where quarters have been fitted up for them. In addition to these business moves there are many changes among the residents of the place, more in fact than for several years. License court convenes here this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the various proprietors of hotels in the county are nere to see that everything goes right. There are no remonstraces and the session will be short.
