BRIEF MENTION OF MEN OF THE HOUR

· LIEUTENANT HARDENBERGH IN THE PHILIPPINES.

He Is Having Some Novel and Exciting Experiences There-Walter Burnham Who Will Be Manager of the Scranton Ball Team-P. J. Murphy the Retiring Poor Director. George W. Jenkins, the New Chairman of the First District Committee-Phillips and the Recordership

Lieutenant Ray Hardenbergh, son of Senator E. B. Hardenbergh, of Honesdale, is having experiences in the Philippines. Chiefly they are of a nature that he had not calculated when he enlisted. For some months he has been acting as captain of a detached company and one of the honors thrust upon him since his advent in the debatable land was to wake up one morning and find himself governor of a town of 800. More recently it was desired that in his spring moving he should Aguinaldo's house. Much pressure was brought to bear upon the young officer to urge him to do this, but a mother was installed therein and there was no absolute necessity for ousting the old lady from her home. Lieutenant Hardenbergh refused to take the advantage offered.

In letters to his parents he expresses loathing for the "gentle Filipino" of the poetically inclined newspaper editorial. The Filipino he finds to be an individual who when he has sur rendered and given up his arms and promised several kinds of peace and love, will be around again that night with a new gun to shoot you in the back, a feat which is frequently accomplished with the American sol-diers. In this Lieutenant Hardenbergh's ideas agree with those of every officer and private from this region who has given his impressions of the new Americans of the Pacific, Walter Burnham, who, with M. E. Sanders, of this city, has taken hold of the base ball situation, is one of the best known ball managers in the country. For the past fifteen years he has been connected with teams in the Eastern, Atlantic, New England and other leagues and has invariably brought his nine either at or very near the head. Among the clubs managed by him were the Boston Blues, Worcester, Providence, R. I., Portland, Brockton, New Haven, Augusta and numerous others, Together with Pat Powers, president of the Eastern lea-gue, he organized the Atlantic association, and in its first year brought in the Worcester team champions. In the following year he was at the head of the New Haven team and made that city's nine the leaders of the league.

Among the players he has developed are "Billy" Hamilton, the great Boston outfielder, who played with Manager Burnham's nine at Worcester in '88. Sheckerd, who played such a splendid game in Baltimore last season, was sold to the Brooklyn club by Manager Burnham, as were also Magoon, now playing short stop in Chicago, and McKenna, the young pitcher, now with Hanlon's Superbas a very successful event and the variin Brooklyn. Mike Kelly, who played ous numbers were received with much first base for Louisville last year, Do. favor. The programme rendered was: herty, who played such a fine third te for Scranton last season, and Butler, the heavy-hitting Mnotreal catcher, were all under Manager Burnham in Augusta some years ago. Mr. Burnham also was president of the Maine polo league and proprietor of the Portland club, in that associa-

P. J. Murphy, who retires from the poor board after the next meeting, to be succeeded by Timothy Burke, has a record of seventeen years continuous service without having missed a regular meeting except one, when death in his immediate family made it impossible for him to attend. This in itself is an earnest of faithful service but it was in the work outside the meeting room that Mr. Murphy made his best record; the one that is written in the hearts of the thousands of poor men, women and children in Dunmore borough, whose needs he has ministered to as the agent of the charftable public during all these years.

It is said of Mr. Murphy that he never expended a dollar of the district's money without first satisfying himself that it was to be expended on a deserving person. He was also always active in the administrative affairs of the board and it is safe to say no other man has done as much as he in the work of transforming the old "poor house" into the beautiful Hillside Home, acknowledged to be one of the finest institutions of its kind in the country.

George W. Jenkins, who has been appointed chairman of the First Legislative District Republican committee, to succeed Dr. W. A. Paine, is one of the most untiring workers in the ranks of the Republican party. Although he has never aspired for office, his counsel is widely sought. Owing to the growth of his business during recent years, Mr. Jenkins has not permitted the party workers to encroach upon his time, and it was only after much deliberation that he consented to the appointment of the district chairmanship. He is one of the self-made, successful business men of this city and represents one of the oldest and most prominent families in West Scranton The fact that Mr. Jenkins has taken the chairmanship of the First district committee insures an active, businesslike campaign. T. J. Reynolds, the Republican candidate in that district, is not likely to have opposition of a very serious nature, for the district is safely Republican, but if the fight was sharp and exciting Mr. Jenkins could be depended upon to bring his man in under the wire a winner.

Deputy Sheriff William Phillips, who officiates as one of the night keepers at the county jail, is being urged by his friends to allow his name to be used in connection with the Re ublican nomination for recorder of deeds. he is in favor with all factions of the party and would undoubtedly make a strong candidate if tendered the nomination. Mr. Phillips was appointed by Sheriff Pryor to his present position and has filled it with great efficiency. He has won the esteem and confidence of every one in and about the county prison and always has a kind word for

There is but a single medicine which is a radical specific for catarrh. It is Peruna which has stood a half century test. It has cured thousands of cases of catarrh. Ninety times in a hundred, those who have been cured of catarrh by Peruna thought they had some other disease.

The remedy to cure catarrh must be able to reach the mucous membranes, and this is exactly what Peruna does. Peruna operates at the fountain head. MIOTERS HELD FOR TRIAL.

Twenty Men at Dubois Are Now Under Bail.

Dubois, Pa., April 3 .- Twenty of the en who participated in the rioting at Horatio mines a few days ago, were today held for trial at court. Five of furnished bail and the others were taken to Brookville jail. Th thirteen women and the rest of the men who were arrested were discharged. The situation at the workings of the Berwind-White company is the none of the men returning to work. At Dubois there was a break in the ranks of the strikers today, fifty-four of them resuming work. The mine officials express themselves as confident that it is only a matter charged men when it was learned they of a few more days until they all resume work. The families of the miner are in sore straits and an organized union and non-union men that the effort is being made to relieve them by a house to house solicitation for The strike leaders are unceasing

COEUR D'ALENE INVESTIGATION

MANAGER BURBRIDGE PRINCI PAL WITNESS YESTERDAY.

Story of the Troubles That Have Aroused Almost World-wide Interest-Dynamite Used on the Plant in 1896-The Witness Tells of Warnings of Death-Presence of Military Was Essential.

Washington, April 3.-Frederick Bur. bridge, manager of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mine ness at the Coeur D'Alene investiga. tion today. It was the mill of this company which was blown up in the uprising last April. Brigadier General Carlin was to have continued his testimony on the insurrection in 1892, but his official report of that occurrence was accepted as sufficient and he then gave way to Mr. Burbridge.

Mr. Burbridge took charge of the mine in 1893. At that time the miners and laborers were paid $3 a day, as against $3.50 the union scale. There were continual threats to "clean out" the Eunker Hill mire, but the troops brought there during the Coxey army excitement had a calming effect. After being closed for a time the Bunker Hill was started up as a strictly nonunion mine. The union men had control, however, of the approaches to the Coeur D'Alene and with arms frightened away non union men and "scabs." The mine succeeded, however, in manning its plant. In 1896 he said, dynamite was used against the mine and fire did some damage to the mill. The mire was injured. Threats continued, he said, up to the time of the culmination of the agitation last April. 'The Miners' union at Wardner met on Sunday, April 23, a week before the explosion, and sent a delegation to him (Burbridge) to demand $3.50 a day all around. After fruitless conferences a strike was ordered. The Bunker Hill employes were stopped on the road by an armed mob, revolvers were flourished and the workmen were chased through the streets. Later in the day an armed mob took possession of the tramway of the mine and held it for a time, Mr. Burbridge said he received frequent warnings that he would be killed and the mine blown up. Representative Sulzer asked for the names of those giving the warnings, Mr. Burbridge declined to give the ames, saying it would imperil the lives of those who gave the warnings. The Idaho courts had upheld him, he said, in this refusal to divulge names. Mr. Sulzer protested, but the committee, on a vote, permitted the witness to proceed without disclosing names.

Mr. Burbridge told of the warning nessages received by him, of the arming of 800 men, the putting on of masks and the details of the march on th

Where are those messages?" asked Mr. Sulzer. "Blown up with the mill," replied the witness. Mr. Burbridge said he took such preautions as were possible for the protection of the mill and then, believing that he would be an object of special attack, he left the mill and did not see the explosion

The witness said the presence of military was essential to the maintenance of peace; the only objections to the military came from those who wished to break the law.

Mr. Crosthwaite, of counsel for the state of Idaho, directed the examination and was followed by Attorney Robertson in cross-examination. This brought out that the company disbelonged to a union. The witness said there was such a conflict between the company took its side with the nonunion men, declining to employ members of the union.

Verdict in Case of Man Drowned in Blast Furnace Reservoir. In the arbitration room of the court ouse vesterday afternoon an inquest was held in the case of the unknown man whose dead body was found in the reservoir alongside of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company's blast furnace last Thursday afternoon. The furors were: D. S. Ryan, G. W. Willlams, Timothy Burke, Patrolman William Thompson, Palmer Williams and

Dr. B. S. Sutton. Coroner Roberts explained to the jurors that his post-mortem revealed the fact that death was due to drowning and that there were no marks of violence on the body. The man had ither tumbled into the water accidentally or thrown himself into it, Deceased was a man about 35 years of age, unusually large and apparently a tramp. There was nothing on his body and Mrs. James Edwards, Mr. A. G. that gave any clue to his identity. He had a razor in one of his pockets, on the blade of which was scratched the and Dr. and Mrs. R. FOR THE NEXT GRAND JURY. Some Information That It Might

Make Good Use of. In the report of the grand jury, made last Saturday, complaint was made that magistrates are wont to place fictitious values on stolen property in working up the transcript of a larceny case so that the sum will exceed $10 and the grand jury will be left without any say in the disposition of the costs, the law prescribing that in such cases the costs shall be borne by the county. A prominent member of the Lackawanna bar, who has an eye to the public weal, said, yesterday, in commenting on the matter, that the jury was misinformed regarding its powers in this regard. The jury, he said, is not compelled to accept the magistrate's appraisement, but can place its own value on the property, and if in its opinion it is worth less than $10 can amend the transcript and act accord-of dealing with transcripts. His idea would be to make the county liable for costs only in cases of the higher felonies and provide that magistrates be salaried instead of feed. as at present.
