An unusually large representation of the membership of the Electric City Wheelmen attended the regular monthly meeting last evening and participated in the discussions and voted on the motions offered in secret session. Vice-President R. W. Luce presided and conducted the affairs of the club in a business-like manner. Two applicants were admitted to membership in the persons of James Burke and Emrys Joseph. Just before adjournment the following members were nominated for the several elective offices:

For president, David Owens and R. W. Luce; first vice-president, Guy R. Ralph: second vice-president, P. F. Struppler: recording secretary, Samuel McCracken; financial secretary, Luther Thomas and E. S. Joseph; corresponding secretary, Gus Weinss and Arthur Stover; treasurer, J. W. Bunnell and T. A. Evnon; captain, Elmer Crane, William Seagraves and Howard Williams; first lieutenant, Duncan Hall; second lieutenant, Edward Morse; ninth director, C. R. Pitcher and W. P. Williams. The officers will be elected at the next regular meeting.

After the meeting a palatable lunch was served by the club caterers, which was followed by a smoker and social session. The principal topic of discussion was the minstrel performance, which will be given in Mears' hall on Thursday evening, May 3. The club contains several natural comedians, and if some of the jokes sprung last evening are any criterion of what may be expected at the outing, they will be crackerjacks.

Among the well-known vocalists who will participate in the performance are Charles Bertine, Fred Weinss, Albert Davis, David Owens, "Willie" Willlams, Guy Ralph, Sam Lewis and others, and in all probability each will sing a solo. The ollo will be entirely original and the first part will contain some novel features. Rehearsals have already begun under the direction of Professor Ott. of Lawrence orchestra. and the participants will meet at § o'clock this evening for practice.

CONCERT THIS EVENING.

The testimonial concert for the benefit of William Evans will be given in the Jackson Street Baptist church this evening, and will doubtless attract one of the largest audiences of the season, as hundreds of tickets have already been sold to friends of the young man who is aspiring to a position in the musical world. A telegram was received from H.

Evan Williams yesterday, stating that ELECTRIC CITY WHEELMEN he will positively appear and sing his alloted numbers on the programme, He will leave New York at 10 a. m., arriving in the city at 1.55 p. m., and will be met by the committee in charge of the concert. Mr. Williams has alcompanist, and in a letter received by one of the committee, the celebrated Weish tenor stated that he was pleased to have an opportunity to sing o the Welsh people of West Scranton. Mr. Williams has appeared in this city as soloist of the Philharmonic orchestra and his ability is too wellknown to need any comment here. The other participants will be the Schubert quartette, Miss Elizabeth Thomas, Mrs. Rundall, Miss Norma Williams, Haydn Evans, George Martin, Llew Herbert, David Stephens and William Evans.

HUGHES FUNERAL TODAY.

All of the arrangements for the funeral of the late Eenjamin Hughes today have been completed and as it is expected that it will be the largest funeral ever conducted in West Scranton, it is necessary to appounce in advance the arrangements that have been made. The body will be borne to the First Welsh Baptist church this morning, where friends may view the remains between the hours of 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. The services proper will begin at 2.30 o'clock.

The members of the Sunday school, Bellevue and Fourth ward missions, will assemble in the gallery and assist in the congregational singing. One of the selections to be rendered will be "Meet Me There," Mr. Hughes' last words, which is contained in Gospel Hymns Nos, 5 and 6. A number of Welsh hymns will also be sung.

All of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western collierles, which Mr. Hughes superintended, will be represented, the company having given orders to cease operations for the day to permit the employes to attend the funeral. The various secret, beneficial, religious and business organizations, to which he was attacned, will also be officially represented at the services, but the members will not participate only as individuals.

The arrangements are under the personal direction of Funeral Director Will C. Price and David J. Davis, and the pallbearers will be the deacons of the church, John T. Williams, Henry broken leg while at work vesterday. P. Davies, Joseph Reynolds, David A. He was riding between the cars on a Morgan, Thomas M. Jones and James trip of empties when he struck his A. ANNUAL WEEK OF PRAYER.

The Salvation army's annual week of prayer and self-denial is being held this week and will continue until April The original announcement was made for last week, but owing to sickness in the home of Adjutant Yates, the officer in charge, the observance vas necessarily postponed.

The effort this year is especially on behalf of the 30,000,000 starving people in India, 19,000 of whom 'are members of the Salvation army. The national target fixed by the leaders of the army n New York is $50,000. Scranton is asked to raise $75 of this amount. Donations, large or small, will be

Art in Millinery

Fine materials do not necessarily make fine Millinery. Women of taste, refinement and good judgment fully realize that fact, but as the only way its truth can be demonstrated is through an appeal to the eye and reason.

> We invite the ladies of Northeastern Pennsylvania to attend our opening display of artistic Spring Millinery on Wednesday and Thursday, April 4 and 5,

When the choicest productions of home Decker's court, died yesterday and will and foreign artists in ladies' headgear will await their inspection. Extreme novelties that are a little odd will be found along side the more conservative ideas which appeal to women who never want to be conspicuously dressed.

We will show a most complete assortment of everything requisite for making millinery to order, or for the home milliners' use. Nothing that fashion demands has been omitted, and the exhibition will be found well worthy of the most critical attention.
