INVENTORY OF POOR PROPERTY

The newly slevied poor board will today take an inventory of the stock and furniture at the poor farm and in order that the public may get a full report of the existing conditions at the farm, the representatives of the local press have been invited to accompany them on their tour of inspection. It will be remembered that the old board took an inventory a few weeks and and the new board will go over the property again to make certain the amount stated in the old board's account is what they are responsible for.
