New Road Between Binghamton and

Ansonia Is Now Assured. Special to the Scrapton Tribune. Towanda, April 6.-Another chapter of the proposed, long-talked of railroad from Binghamton to Ansonia, hes been published for the first time this week. On Thursday a contract for the sale of bonds was completed and signed in New York city, which now makes certain the construction of the Bradford Central railroad acress this county to connect with the Delaware and Hudson at Ringhamton; also with the Goodyear's road, the E. and S. at Ansonia. This fact was made binding by the signing, by representatives of the railroad company and officers of certain New York banks and other companies of large capital, of a contract to buy, when issued, the entire bonds of the proposed road at a price of nearly $25,000 to the mile from Binghamton to Ansonia. The distance is 110 miles, and would shorten the route from Albany, N. Y., and other Hudson river

Contracts have already been entered into with the Delaware and Hudson. the Buffalo and Susquehanna, the Pennsylvania, and the western New York and Pennsylvania railroads for the delivery of large quantities of freight every year. The board of directors of the new railroad company are: J. A. Hill, E. J. Angle, F. A. Sawyer, C. L. Tracy, E. F. Kizer, of Towarda; H. C. Crawford, C. A. Innes, J. N. Beardsley, of Canton: F. H. and G. W. Goodyear, of Buffalo; W. H. Kimball and G. W.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

Benton, Lowa.

New York, April 6.—Speculation in the industrials and the railroads showed a distinct decline today. Both departments were extremely pregular but genrally speaking the industrials were strong and the railroads were heavy. The The Electric City Wheelmen began rehears is for their minstrel performance and the affair will be in charge of W. C. Oit, of Lawrence's band, who so successfully directed the Lieder-kranz minstrels.

Alfred wooler has recently composed a sacred song, for tenor or soprano, with violin obligato, entitled "Hallelujah, Christ is Risen," which he will sing at the Easter song service at Elm 1 ark church.

The many friends of Mr. Richard Thomas will be glad to hear that he is again occupying his position as solo basso at Elm Park clurch, after a severe illness of several months.

The Liederkranz minstrels wii. take a trip to Honesdale and Wilkes-Barre about April 23; Lawrence band and orchestra will furnish the music.
