faithful. The reward is in seeing souls brought to Christ, in the erection of houses like this and in carrying on God's services, but there is a greater reward for the faithful, and he only receives that reward who faithfully occupies till the Lord comes. Be

At the conclusion of Rev. Schaeffer's address the choir sang an anthem and all of the clergymen present congratulated the pastor and congregation on their efforts in erecting the new church. The service was closed with

EVENING SERVICE.

Vesper services were held last even-ng, beginning at 7.30 o'clock. The serchumens were confirmed by the pas-

Services during the week will nusson, of Wilkes-Barre; Rev. O.

Lauer and Rev. A. L. Ramer.

Ettwein, of Pittston; Rev. W. C. L.

AMONG THE OTHER CHURCHES.

with the theme, which was received

The last sermonic lecture in the illustrated series was given in the Jackson

Street Baptist church last evening by Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, D. D., on

Rev. E. E. Teal occupied the pulpit of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church last evening. The pastor, Rev.

Rev. F. J. Milman delivered a patri-

J. B. Sweet, was suffering from a cold.

otic sermon in the Sumner Avenue

Presbyterian church last evening to the ders of United American Mechanics.

His theme was "A Revival of Ameri-

The Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper were administered at the morning service yesterday in the

Washburn Street Presbyterian church,

Several new members were received

Rev. John Owen Jones, of Wilkes-

Barre, occupied the pulpit of the Belle-yesterday at both services, with keen appreciation.

David and His Times."

into the church.

a large audlence.

large audience.

Holy Trinity church.

a hymn, prayer and benediction.

faithful and the reward must come."

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

CONSECRATION OF ST. MARK'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Attended by a Large Gathering Yesterday Afternoon-Sermon Delivered by Rev. William Ashmead Schaeffer, of Philadelphia-Rev. G. F. Spieker, D. D., Spoke in the Evening-News of Other Churches. General Notes of Interest Along Other Lines.

The new edifice of St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran congregation was consecrated with appropriate services yesterday in the presence of an audience that completely filled the spaclous auditorium. The church has just been completed and is located at the corner of Washburn and Fourteenth The pastor is Rev. A. L. getically towards the completion of the building, together with the members of his congregation.

The services were begun at 3 o'clock, the procession forming in the old building and marching to the front doors of the new edifice. First came L. Ramer, pastor of the Schaeffer, of Philadelphia; Rev. G. P. Spieker, of Philadelphia, and Rev. C. G. Spieker, of Holy Trinity church; Frescott avenue, and Rev. W. C. L. L. uer, of St. Paul's, Park Place. The deacons, members of the church, and congregation brought up to the rear. raments. At the left hand front door the procession halted, where a short ceremony was enacted.

clergymen took their places within the altar rail, and the choir left of the altar. Potted palms and altar decorations were prettily ar-ranged around the pulpit, which is elevated and located on the right of the altar. The interior finishings are in trust. oak and the general appearance of the church is attractive in every respect The seats are roomy and comfortable and the entire floor space is carpeted. Gas and electrical fixtures supply the

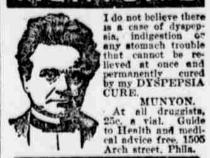

CONSECRATION SERMON.

When the audience was seated Rev. C. G. Spieker read the scripture lesson from 1 Kings, and prayer was choir sang an anthem and Rev. Sermon. He chose his text from the Him crucified, 19th chapter of St. Luke, 13th verse, "Occupy till I come," During the course of his remarks, the speaker

"It is with the profoundest feeling of gratitude that I unite with the congregation of St. Mark's in the consecration of this church. It has been

Dufour's French Tar Has Won Success, It Cures Your Cold And Gives You Rest. FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS.

Π...11 Λ

poses-among them where the word of God may be truthfully presented to man. It is consecrated not to secular exercises, but to holy uses. In order that we be prepared for the work which has been set apart for us, I invite your attention to the words of Ramer, Ph. D., who has worked ener- my text, 'Occupy till I come,' These words were spoken by a nobleman to his servants when he was about to depart for some far off country, giving each a sum of money to carry out his requests.

"We are the appendants of one who had wealth at his disposal, which has been placed in our hands. The trust church, and Rev. William Ashmead | here is the church for which the Savlor died, which we appreciate more than life itself. That we may make use of it to the glory of God and the Rev. John Randolph, of St. Peter's, benefit of our souls is my earnest prayer. In it we find a pure faith, a hely church and all it contains and confers upon men in life giving sac-

"How much are we likened to the pathy to the members of the First servants of the nobleman referred to Welsh Baptist church and the family in the text. No one dare say that the of the late Benjamin Hughes, which Lord will not accept the trust. We are were spoken of at last evening's serall servants of God and no one should | vice by Rev. D. D. Hopkins. were seated in the enclosure on the fail to share the responsibilities incumbent upon them. The honor con- day the pastor, Rev. S. F. Mathews, ferred upon mankind by the trust God delivered an eloquent and forceful serhas placed in him is a great conde-scension, and I thank God for that

THE FIELD OF WORK "There is also a duty devolving

"There is also a duty developing upon us in accepting this trust. We do not accept this edifice merely as a place to dwell in, but in another sense. In the church men are prepared for the kingdom of God, and while your influences may be felt elsewhere it is right here in this particular field that you must work. The church is also offered by Rev. G. P. Spicker. The a place of rest and refreshment for all who have begun to journey heaven-Schaeffer delivered the consecration ward. The cross is Christ only and members of the Senior and Junior Or-

"All things around me today seem to assure me that the faith of the can Patriotism." evangelists is to be taught and received here to the glory of God and his immortal soul. Your duty is far from being done. You must do the will of God and his gifts are to be used in carrying out his pleasure and most gracious wishes. Put not the church to base use or selfish purpose and remember to be diligent in using all nterests aright. "To work, pray and give is a part of the trust imposed upon you, and you must profit by and take care of it till the Lord comes. Be not weary in well doing. Earnestness and diligence is necessary to carry on the work of

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Gertrudg Raudenbach, aged eleven ears, died yesterday at her home, 216 Meridian street. The funeral will be private tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. which she died.

David X. Evans, of 822 South Main avenue, died at 3 o'clock Saturday morning. He is survived by his wife and eight children. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon. Inter-

The funeral of the late John Jones. who died from injuries received by falling from a building, was conducted at 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the house at 501 Chestnut street, Memtended the services. Interment was made in the Washburn street ceme-

CATHOLIC SOCIETY MEETINGS. St. Paul's Pioneer corps held a meeting in Masonic hall yesterday afterwhich was largely attended. Much business was transacted pertaining to the organization. A special meeting of St. . eter's Total Abstinence and Benevolent society was gates to the Diocesan union convention, which will be held in Avoca in

The Hyde Park Father Mathew, society met in St. Leo's hall yesterday afternoon and voted for delegates to the national convention.

Branch 44, Catholic Mutual Benefit association, met in Harl Garl hall at 8.30 o'clock yesterday morning and marched to St. Patrick's church in a body, where they attended the 9 o'clock

ACCIDENTS OF A DAY.

A boy named Gleason, residing in Morris court, was injured in the mines on Saturday. While driving a trip of cars his legs became entangled in the traces and the mule fell on him. spraining his leg. Dr. D. J. Jenkins is ttending him.

Joseph Smith, of Morris court, a miner in the Mt. Pleasant mine, had Luckawanna hospital.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. ompany will hold a regular meeting this evening. A lunch will be served after the meeting.

Fairview avenue. The Anthracite Glee club held a eeting in Robert Morris lodge rooms esterday afternoon.

Miss Bertha Crisman, of Factory-

A regular meeting of St. Brendan's ouncil, Young Men's Institute, will be held this evening in their rooms over Jenkins' drug store.

THERE IS A CLASS OF PEOPLE Who are injured by the use of coffee, Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over 1, as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15 cts. and 25 cts. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

the church. Many may appear to be diligent, but they are not faithful. It is most important that a man be found DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

FUNERAL OF LATE JACOB VAN DUZER HELD YESTERDAY.

Services Were Conducted from the Family Home on Chestnut Street. and Were Very Largely Attended by Members of Fraternal Organizations-Yesterday's Services at the Various Churches-Unclaimed Letters at Postoffice-Other News Notes and Personals.

mon was preached by Rev. G. F. Spieker, D. D., and a class of cate-Yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock occurred one of the largest funerals of tor. Rev. Spieker chose his text from the present year, that of the late Jacob Ephesians iiii, 15-16, and spoke of the Van Duzer. The services at the hom churchliness of the edifice, its archion Chestnut street were very impresstecture and the importance that ative and were attended by large numtaches to church work along human bers of the deceased's friends from this lines. The sermon had a particular borough and from out of town. application to the confirmation service Rev. Dr. Pierce, of the Penn Ave-

and was attentively listened to by a nue Baptist church, Scranton, Rev. Spieker is a ducted the services, assisted by Revs. member of the faculty of the Lu-A. J. Van Cleft and J. L. Kreamer, theran Theological seminary at Philaafter which the body was taken to the delphia, and father of the pastor of Dunmore cemetery, followed by the following organizations, who carried many beautiful floral emblems: Indeheld every evening at the church. pendent Order of Odd Fellows, Junior Among the speakers will be Rev. C. G. Order United American Mechanics and Spieker, of this city: Rev. A. A. Mag-Knights of Malta. After services at the grave, interment was made in the plot at the cemetery.

SERVICES YESTERDAY.

The last quarterly meeting of the The First Welsh Congregational conference year was held in the Methochurch, of which Rev. David Jones is dist Episcopal church yesterday mornpastor, forwarded resolutions of syming, Rev. J. F. Warner, the presiding elder of this district, preaching the sermon. At the close of his discourse, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to the members of the church. Rev. A. J. Van Cleft preached At the First Baptist church yesterat the evening service on the there. "The Crucifixion of Christ," and delivered a discourse which was closely folmon on the "Cities of Refuge." Both lowed by his large congregation. morning and evening were taken up

"The Headship of Christ" was the text of Rev. W. F. Gibbons' sermon yesterday morning, which attracted a church. In the evening the pastor spoke on "Unselfish Service." At the Dudley Street Baptist church resterday morning and evening. Rev. J. L. Kreamer occupied the pulpit and preached from the texts, "Chariots of A. J. Mulderig, the Pittston avenue Salvation" and "The Wise and the tailor, who has been confined to his Foolish." A spirit of interest was home from the result of an accident, manifested by the congregation at both is again able to be about. services.

Palm Sunday was observed yesterday at St. Mark's Episcopal church, special services being conducted by the rector, Rev. E. J. Haughton, Holy Communion was served at 8 o'clock a. m. and at the morning service at 10.39

UNCLAIMED LETTERS. Letters remaining uncalled for dur-

All persons calling for these letters should say advertised:

vue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church Ellen Bees, Jabiel Compton, Mrs. Mary Rev. Hugh Davis, of the South Main Deremer, Mrs. Philip Goerlitz (2), Mr. Avenue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church, preached an English sermon rank Hopkins, 149 Jefferson avenue: Mrs. David McDonough, Apple street; last evening, which was listened to by Mrs. Sarah A. McDonnell, "G. D." (2), - "706," corner of Monroe and Grove The gospel meeting at the Young streets; Mrs. Janes Ratchford, 312 Fel-Women's Christian association rooms vesterday afternoon was in charge of 917 Gibson street; foreign, Mrs. Royan, Miss Grace Peck. Many young women Fred Weyandt

OTHER NEWS NOTES

P. D. Manley, the owner of the property occupied by the Union Cash stores. on Chestnut street, is causing improvements to be made on the superstructure of the building, preparatory to enlarging the floor space.

The funeral of Mrs. John McHale, of Swartz street, was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were conducted at the home and were large-

Street Commissioner McDonnell has a force of men engaged Saturday improving North and South Blakely

Council will view the streets and look over any grievances of property own-

The school directors of the borough will try for another time to effect a quorum tomorrow evening. "How long is this state of affairs to last?" question that the citizens are asking frequently now. The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold their monthly tea in the church parlors Thursday evening from 6 to 9 o'clock. The ladies whose names begin with A. B and C will serve.

A little after midnight Sunday morning an alarm of fire was sounded, which proved to be on Drinker street. The firemen located the fire in a barn in the rear of the property of Louis Engle. The structure was destroyed, the loss being about $2,000. The barn was a very large one, and a large quantity of lumber was burned.

Pea Coal $1.25 a Ton Delivered to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to J. T. Sharkey, 1914 Cedar ave. 'Phone 6683.

SOUTH SCRANTON.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boettger, of 702 Prospect avenue, celebrated their fifteenth wedding anniversary on Saturday night, and a large number of their friends gathered at the family residence to celebrate the event. Mr. and Mrs. Boettger were the recipients of a large number of costly and useful presents, and royally entertained their guests his leg fractured on Saturday by a Refreshments were served during the fall of roof. He was taken to the evening, and at midnight a bounteous repast was partaken of by all. Junger Maennerchor held well attended meeting yesterday af-The Columbia Hose and Chemical termoon. The society is busy rehearsing the compositions to be rendered at the Brooklyn Saengerfest in June, and also are arranging for a concert and ball to be held on April 24, to defray ille, is the guest of Mrs. Cobb, of expenses to the Saengerfest. The society at their meeting yesterday, decided to buy a Chickering piano, which will be used for the first time next

> Fred Compter and wife, of Prospec avenue, entertained a number of their friends on Saturday evening at their residence. The usual party diversions were indulged in during the evening. and the young couple proved excellent entertainers. At a seasonable hour supper was served.

The ladies' auxiliary of the Welcom Dancing class, which organized a few weeks ago, will conduct its first social at Snover's hall this evening. An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baldner, of 440 Willow street, was yesterday buried in the Minooka ceme-Camp 430, Patriotic Order Sons of

THE LEADING AND LARGEST MILLINERY STORE

EPCSON'S

Charming Hats for Easter

It is the biggest Easter millinery business we ever knew. It's the best for you; and, if for you, for us as well.

We have made new standards of value: we let you bid good-bye to extravagance whenever you please. There are $15 and $20 hats-exquisite-demanded on occasion, but the millinery in which we are Chic, Stylish Headgear at $4.98 and $5.98 busiest is with

The season's styles are becoming almost picturesque. The plain face brightens and the beautiful face its best when the things the modistes have given for spring.

There are hosts of shapes. The trimming is built mostly on the brim—flowers, especially roses and

The Sailor Hat, the Walking Hat the term for every sort that 50c to $6 Pretty Hats for Children, $1.98, $2.48, $3.50.

And any little girl whom you can feel sale in letting take the journey alone can buy as safely as you, for with little folks and the most experienced shopper, we have such a liberal method of exchange, that buying is not only safe, but pleasant. Suppose the bat selected doesn't seem to suit you perfectly after it's home. please bring it back. We haven't made the busiest Millinery Store in town by being narrow. Style, satisfaction, fairness-but style first of all.

Gerson's Leading Millinery Store, 413 Lackawanna Avenue

America, will meet in regular session at Hartman's hall this evening. The Harmonie Quartette club will meet for rehearsal at their headquarters on Maple street this evening. Michael King, formerly of the firm of O'Connor & Co., wholesale liquor large number to the Presbyterian dealers, will leave today for Virginia, where he intends to make his home in the future.

A young son has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vanduzer, of Pear street.

A. J. Mulderig, the Pittston avenue

NORTH SCRANTON.

The funeral of Thomas H. Thomas was held Saturday afternoon from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Anna Griffin, of William street, at 2.30 o'clock. The remains were conveyed to the Welsh Baptist church on West Market street, where services were conducted. The Rev. Mr. Reese officiated, Memng the period ending Saturday, April bers of the Cariadlawn lodge, American True Ivorites, of which the deceased has been a member for some Mrs. Bell Brown, Larch street; Miss time, attended the funeral in a body, Interment was made in Washburn Street cemetery.

On Thursday evening, April 12, Bauer's orchestra will give a concert at the Court Street Methodist Episcopal church. This number will be the last of the services of literary and lows street; Miss Florence Richmond, musical entertainments given this winter at the church.

dence Methodist Episcopal church will meet this evening at 7.30 o'clock, instead of tomorrow afternoon. After the regular services a social time will be had. Mrs. Frank Battin, of Charles street, is ill with scarlet fever. Miss Annie O'Donnell and Miss Mary Clarke, of Brick avenue, were in Pittston Friday and Saturday.

The Crystal Literary and Dramatic club will produce "The Passion Slave" in Honesdale on April 16. This evening the Keystone Literary and Dramatic club will produce "One of the Brayest" at the Auditorium. The erection of St. Joseph's Lithuanian church, corner of North Main avenue and Theodore street, has been

Mrs. William Sterling, of Brooklyn, Susquehanna county, is the guest of friends in this section. Mr. and Mrs. J. McDonough, of Sumner avenue, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a young son. The Ladies' Aid society of the Wayne Avenue Presbyterian church will hold a pie social in the church parlors tomorrow night.

GREEN RIDGE.

The members of the Brotherhood of St. Paul will have a business meeting corner of Penn avenue and Delaware

The Lend-a-Hand Mission circle of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. F. L. Hitchcock, Tuesday evening, after prayer meeting. H. B. Reynolds, of Sanderson avenue, has returned from a business trip to New York city.

Dickson Kays, of Sanderson avenue, is home, after an extended visit with friends in Philadelphia. Services will be held in the lecture oom of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church this evening from 7.30 to 8.30 o'clock. The subject is "Sin, What it Is? What it Does?" Rom. 1., 18-32. Green Ridge street, near Sanderson avenue, was flooded again yesterday, the water main having burst a short distance from the leak sprung a week ago. The main is a six-inch one and is not strong enough to stand the extra pressure caused Saturday night by the closing of the mines and large works.

OBITUARY.

Hence, these frequent floods.

Thomas Walsh, the oldest residents of South Scranton, passed away on Saturday morning at his home, corber of Pittston avenue and Pear treet. Deceased had been ailing for some time, but his condition was not considered serious un-til a few days ago, when it became evident that t was critical and on Saturday morning he died. The deceased is survived by a large family, some members of which live in the west. The funeral will take place this morning

John, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Gabrie Murphy, of Stone avenue, died yesterday, poisoning being the cause of the doubt. uneral will take place tomorrow afternoon, with nterment in the Cathedral cemetery

Players Ordered to Report.

Philadelphia, April 8.—Manager Barrow, of Toronto Eastern league base hall club, leas dered his players to report in Philadelphia morrow to proceed to Atlantic City for sp practice. Exhibition games have been arrai for Easter week at Atlantic City with the ton, Brooklyn and Montreal clubs.

LUDDON CASE WILL BE CALLED TODAY

Barber and Fireman John Moran, gave McKenna a hand and Luddon was loored, with McKenna under him. Before he could be disarmed, Luddon raised himself slightly and sent a bulet into McKenna's body. McKenna, i was thought, was mortally wounded but he recovered, and will be one of the witnesses for the commonwealth.

Luddon was finally overpowered erated by Luddon's teeth, and the crowd, surging in upon the prisoner,

On the way to the borough jail the growd further assaulted him and, on

The commonwealth will press for a irst degree verdict. What line of defense will be followed is not known. The case will probably be tried before Judge Archbald, who presides in the main court room. Assistant District Attorney Thomas will represent the Quinnan and John J. Murphy.

OTHER IMPORTANT CASES,

next week. The five remaining libel cases against Richard Little and M. J. O'Toole are at Judge Edwards will sit in No. 2 this week and in No. 1 next week. Judge A. S. Swartz, of Norristown, will sit in No. 2 next week. Owing to the illness of District Attorney Jones, John M. Harris has been engaged to help Asurday afternoon, the Guernsey case was far from being concluded, and it was necessary to continue it over to tonight at the home of J. S. Miller, this week. Judge Savidge not being able to be here today, the trial will no be resumed till tomorrow.

work up the defendant's case, was the principal witness, Saturday. He told how he succeeded in having the plaintiff employ him, and how, by this means, he was taken into the plaintiff's confidence, and told of a scheme the plaintiff had concocted to mulct the defendant out of a large sum of money as damages for having discharged him. George Ackerman, who helped close out Guernsey Bros.' business, gave tes timony to show that the 5 per cent. commission which J. W. Guernsey was to receive on sales of the Guernsey Bros.' goods was not paid over in every case. Mrs. Edith Knowles, formerly Miss Smith, who was a bookkeeper for J. W. Guernsey, tegtified to accounts collected by M. W. Guernsey from patrons of Guernsey Bros., on which no commission was paid to J. W. Guern-

Court House News Notes.

City Solicitor Vosburg, on Saturday, etitioned court for the appointment of viewers for the new sewer in the Eley-A rule to open judgment was al-owed, Saturday, in the case of Eliza-

Weak Men may have our treatment — appliance and renedles—on trial and approval if not agreed execution all at our expense. Pay Northing. Robust health for men, secret drains cured, hervous control and vigor. New book sent under plain seal without charge.

beth Jayne against Elsle R. and William J. McKelvey. The hotel license of John Bovage, of

Fell township, was on Saturday transferred to John Taris, and that of Narcella Maxwell, of Jermyn, was transferred to Mary D. Solomon. Delicea C. Havens, through Attorney

Joseph F. Gilroy, began proceedings, Saturday, to secure a divorce from his wife, Margaret Havens, whom he married March 2, 1892, and who, he alleges, descrited him three years later, Through Attorney D. L. Fickes, Fred M. Vandervoort asked for a divorce from his wife, Jessie E., who, he says, deserted him in 1890, after they had been married eight years.

Raymond Resigns.

the board of regents of the West Virginia university states that President Raymond has resigned, owing to a disagreement with the regents; that the resignation will be accepted, ef-fective Oct. I, when the president's term ex-pires, and that there will be sweeping changes in the faculty.

Handsome Persian Silks, in rich Oriental, effects with Black Satin Stripes

| Hemstitched Silks.

New novelties in Silk Squares for ladies' waists at special prices.

Globe Warehouse

We consider this special offering in desirable up-to-date silks, the most meritorious event of the kind in owing to the nature of the disease from the history of the department. The makes, weaves, colorings and patterns are just such as you would probably select if we placed every piece in stock before you. Therefore, the difference between actual values ment will be made in Washburn street and this extraordinary sale price is just so much of a clear saving, without even the thought of a sacrifice, for (pardon the repetition, it is necessary, however,) these are desirable silks and have nothing that's job- bers of Carpenters' union, No. 563, at-bish or offish about them,

This Remarkable Sale Begins Tomorrow And there are special inducements for early comers.

MAGNIFICENT VALUES IN BLACK SILKS. You have our word for it, these silks are all right in every particular, and will give thorough satisfac- held yesterday afternoon to elect deletion to every buyer. 19-inch Black Taffetas that are really worth 69c., for 55c 20-inch Black Taffetas that are really worth 85c., for 69c 22-inch Black Taffetas that are realfy worth $1.00, for 78c 23-inch Black Taffetas that are really worth $1.25, for 95c 27-inch Black Taffetas that are really worth $1.00, for 75c

Fancy Silks, Deserving of Attention.

21-inch Black Satin Duchess, best $1.00 quality, for75c

27-inch Black Satin Duchess, best $1.25 quality, for.....950

Colored Taffetas—19 inch and Taffetas—19 inch

parcoalt Taffetas in about a serie of iscartiful colorings. Bright most and good value 55c Dot and Stripe Silks.

22 inches wide and in the choicest everine wear. In stylish waists nothing would excel these. A pure $1.00 quality, reduced 75c 24 inch Foulard Silks.

New "Jap" Silks.

Concluded from Page 3.

after a desperate struggle, in which Fireman Moran had his arm badly lackicked him into insensibility and fairly covered his body with cuts and contusions.

reaching Main street, took him away from the police officers, who had him in ow, and threw him in front of a radly approaching trolley car. Quick acion on the part of the motorman saved him from being ground beneath the wheels. Nearly two weeks passed be ore he had recovered sufficiently to b given a hearing. commonwealth, and the defendant will have as his attorneys, Hon, John P.

The Bowman murder trial is down or next Wednesday, and the Chipriano use for Monday of next week. The first of the Lexow victims to be tried are H. C. Pease, E. A. Knight and Harry Oblinger, charged with keeping a gaming house. Their trial is fixed for Thursday of this week. The cases against E. J. Maioney and H. T. Fellows are listed for Wednesday of next week. Martin Clark, Ira Mitchell

Joseph F. Woelkers and Ike Seidman are scheduled to be tried Thursday of the head of tomorrow's list

sistant District Attorney Thomas,

Guernsey Case Goes On. When adjourning time arrived, Sat

Detective Will F. Clifford, who helped

Attorney W. S. Hulsiander told of M. W. Guernsey having spent considerable time in collecting his old accounts, while under contract with J. W. Guernsey. George Dunn, a blacksmith, teatified that M. W. Guernsey contracted and paid for horseshoeing for the Ross & Co. livery in Green Ridge during this same period.

ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO. N.Y.

BURGUNDER & REIS, Lessees. H. R. LONG, Manager. MONDAY, APRIL 9.

The Elder

Tiss Blossom

Dime Matinee daily except Monday Evening Prices-10, 20, 30 cents.

AMUSEMENTS.

BURGUNDER & REIS. Lessors. H. R. LONG, Manager.

Monday, April 9.

MR. AND MRS. KENDAL.

Under the management of

DANIEL FROHMAN

Presenting a comedy in three acts

Prices-$1.50, $1.00, 75c, 50c, 25u,

ACADEMY OF MUSIC,

entitled

LYCEUM THEATRE

The Dickson Manufacturing Co. Ecranton and Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Manufacturers of

LOCOMOTIVES, STATIONARY ENGINES Bollers, Hoisting and Pumping Machinery

BUY THE GENUINE MANUFACTURED BY

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

