We consider this special offering in desirable up-todate silks, the most meritorious event of the kind in South Main avenue to bid him farethe history of the department. The makes, weaves, colorings and patterns are just such as you would probably select if we placed every piece in stock before you. Therefore, the difference between actual values and this extraordinary sale price is just so much of a clear saving, without even the thought of a sacrifice, for (pardon the repetition, it is necessary, however,) these are desirable silks and have nothing that's jobbish or offish about them.
