Special to the Scranton Tribune. Montrose, April 10.—The April term of the criminal court is now in session here. The calendar list, as it appears below, is smaller than usual, there being only sixteen cases on the list. Following are the cases: Commonwealth vs. Patrick Hassett, burglary, four counts; commonwealth vs. Henry White, William Church and Frederick Burdick, burglary; commonwealth vs. Peter Kenyon, assault and battery; commonwealth vs. Mary Trumbull, assault and battery; commonwealth vs. Mrs. Katie Kelly, assault and battery; commonwealth vs. William Church, larceny; commonwealth vs. Fred Lindsey, rape; commonwealth vs. Andrew Kross, assault and battery; commonwealth vs. Leroy Whittaker, assault and battery; commonwealth vs. Frank Swick, assault and battery; commonwealth vs. Samuel Smith, larceny; commonwealth vs. Andrew Shoemaker, three counts, larceny; fraudulently securing property and false pretence; commonwealth vs. Leroy Whittaker, surety of the peace; commonwealth vs. E. C. Gardner and Richard Gardner, surety of the peace.

WHITE CONVICTED.

Burglary Is the Last Crime Laid at the Door of Man from Montrose.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Montrose, April 11.—Henry White, the notorious thief and jail-breaker, was found guilty of burglary, larceny and receiving by a jury of twelve men here on Tuesday afternoon. The crime for which he was convicted was the robbery of an old man named Perry Harding, over eighty years of age, who lived alone near New Milford. Mr. Harding positively identified White as one of the three men who came to his home and, after breaking down his door, bound and gagged him, and escaped with a gold watch and $220 in money. White, who was captured the next day, practically acknowledged his guilt before Justice of the Peace Shepley, of New Milford. The trial of his alleged confederates, William Church and Frederick Burdick, is now occupying the attention of the court.

Auburn Smallpox Scare.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Montrose, April 11.—According to latest reports, the victims of the supposed smallpox epidemic at Auburn are all doing finely, and no deaths have occurred. The doctors say that the disease is not smallpox but the Cuban chickenpox.

NICHOLSON.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Nicholson, April 11.—Miss Ada B. Dean will give an entertainment in the Methodist Episcopal church on Wednesday evening, April 18. Miss Dean is an accomplished pianist, being a graduate from Emerson's School of Oratory in Boston. At present she is a teacher of elocution in the Scranton Conservatory of Music. Music will be furnished by Nicholson talent. Proceeds for the benefit of the Epworth League. Admission, adults 15 cents; children, 10 cents. Come one, come all.

It is reported that C. W. Moresch has rented the hotel at Lake Nicholson for the coming season and expects to move there next week. Easter openings at the millinery stores here this week. Mrs. William C. Lord is quite ill with grip this week. With the exception of three, the thorough roads do not furnish any more street lights. Mr. Banno, the street commissioner, is repairing the road on Williams street, where it was washed out by the late flood. The Ladies' Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. William Baldwin on Friday afternoon. All members are requested to be present and all other ladies are invited to attend.

HONSDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Honsdale, April 11.—The Honsdale banks will be closed on Friday. It is presumed that the trout fishermen will all remember that the season opens in Wayne county on the 15th, which occurs on Sunday. The inspection of Company E will take place Thursday evening, April 13. Rev. G. A. Place, of the Methodist church, will leave for the Oregon conference next Monday morning. Vice President H. G. Young, Chief Engineer M. Martin, Superintendent M. Manville, Roadmaster Nugent and Real Estate Agent Weston, of the Delaware and Hudson, were in Honsdale yesterday on a tour of inspection. The next attention at the opera house will be "The Passion Play" on Tuesday evening, April 17. Honsdale people have no time to discuss Admiral Dewey's conduct. The new Ketchikan hat and the glass cutters' strike are receiving all their attention at present.

HONSDALE.

The remains of John Fletcher, who died at the Huntington reformatory, were brought to Honsdale today and the funeral will take place from the residence of his sister, Mrs. William White.
