

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

MARRIAGE OF FRANK JONES AND MISS GRACE ACKER.

Ceremony Performed in Simpson Methodist Episcopal Church by the Pastor, Rev. J. B. Sweet—Lecture on Temperance by Rev. Dr. Bird in St. David's Hall—Party at Councilman Norton's Home—Sudden Death of Mrs. Sarah Hennigan—Other Notes and Personals.

The wedding of Frank Harwin Jones, of North Hyde Park avenue, and Miss Grace Dale Acker, of South Main avenue, was solemnized in the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church at 12 o'clock yesterday in the presence of hundreds of friends of the contracting parties.

Before, during and after the ceremony, Organist Walter Davis played the wedding marches and the bridal party occupied the centre aisle in their march to and from the altar.

The bride was becomingly attired in an Easter colored silk debrise dress, with lace trimmings, wore a hat to match and carried white roses and maiden hair ferns. The groom was dressed in white organdy and carried pink carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Jones were driven to the bride's home, where dinner was served, and they left at 12:35 for Trenton, N. J., and before returning will visit New York, Boston and Philadelphia. They will be at home on West Locust street after May 10.

WOMAN'S SUDDEN DEATH. Mrs. Sarah Hennigan, an aged resident of Price street, expired suddenly last evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Quinnan. After partaking of the evening meal, she went to her room with her daughter, and in a few minutes after the latter had left the room, Mrs. Hennigan sank to the floor and expired.

Deceased had resided here many years and was well known. She is survived by her daughter and two sons, Patrick and Anthony. The funeral announcement will be made later.

REV. DR. BIRD'S LECTURE. A small audience greeted Rev. Dr. Bird at St. David's hall last evening to hear his lecture on the temperance question. The speaker grew eloquent at times, during his portrayal of the demoralizing effects of the rum traffic.

Dufour's French Tar Has Won Success, It Cures Your Cold And Gives You Rest. FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS.

Rare Value Easter Offerings In Ladies' Suits And Silk Waists....

Price is not the leading feature in these handsome Silk Waists, Suits or Serviceable Rainy Day Skirts, in fact they are out of the cheap sale class altogether and worthily represent the highest forms of skilled tailoring and the accomplished modest arts, brought right down to date.

Ladies desiring stylish garments at a moderate price that will give no disappointment to either the buyer or the wearer, will do well to give the following very special values intelligent consultation.

Four Fashionable Favorites Far Below Every-Day Prices

- No. 1.....$4.98. Ladies Taffeta Silk Waists in all the leading shades, in the popular "Boiler's" style, with white yoke and rich lace trim. Truly a surprise at the price. $4.98. No. 2.....$5.98. An exceedingly smart Taffeta Silk Waist of fine quality and all the favorite shades of the season, heavily appliqued and corded, with white tucked yoke. $5.98. No. 3.....$3.98. Rainy Day Skirts made from all wool suitings and well made at that—Strapped and Stitched Bottoms, side pockets and lapped seams. A perfect ideal in comfort and long service. $3.98. No. 4.....$8.98. Ladies' Suits in fine Wool and Homespuns, Light and Oxford Greys, Silk Lined Eton Jacket. Skirt with box plait back. Tailored throughout to perfection in marvel in style and quality for $8.98.

It takes enterprise, backed by rare facilities in buying, to offer such values so early in the season, as are represented in these remarkable specials. But it's Easter week, the time of all the year when they ought to be most appreciated by women who value a real bargain opportunity presented at the right moment.

Globe Warehouse

Spring Fever

During the winter extra work is thrown upon the various organs of the body. Spring makes this manifest. The appetite becomes poor, sleep restless, bowels constipated, nerves irritable, dyspepsia, liver or kidney troubles. Life seems not worth living. This is the time to take Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is better than any other spring tonic in the world. It refreshes, strengthens, rebuilds. A Private Revenue Stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

The Conqueror of Stomach Ills.

A few brief remarks, and the vocal numbers were furnished by the Central City quartette, Miss Robertson and Mr. Abrams. Miss Dorsey recited several pleasing numbers.

PHONOGRAPH ENTERTAINMENT.

An enjoyable phonograph entertainment was given at the home of Councilman M. J. Norton, on Jackson street, recently, by John McAndrews and Frank McColligan. All the latest records were reproduced and enjoyed by the following:

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. John Gannon, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Kennedy, Mrs. Mary Norton, Patrick McColligan, Frank Dowd, Thomas Grant, Thomas McGraw, William Norton, Patrick Hughes, John May, John Baldwin, Misses Bessie Grant, B. Norton, B. Gibbons, Nellie Gannon, Mame Healey, Sadie Harrison, Mary McHale, Mary McColligan, Mame Maher, Annie Maher, Johanna Courtney and Kate Courtney.

NEWS NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Miss Lulu Morgan, of 28 North Main avenue, has successfully passed the examination for pharmaceutical chemist at the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy.

Edgar Allen Jones, of South Main avenue, is home from Yale college for the Easter vacation.

Alderman Davies left yesterday afternoon on a business trip to New York. His office will be closed until Monday morning.

Good Friday services at St. David's parish will be held at 9 o'clock, and three hours services from 12 to 3 o'clock. Every one is invited to these services. At the three-hour service those who attend may leave when they so desire.

A stag party will be given at the Electric City Whelmen's Club house this evening. Each member is privileged to invite a friend.

Rev. W. C. Lauer, of Park Place, will conduct the services at St. Mark's Lutheran church this evening, and Rev. A. L. Reimer will be in charge tomorrow evening.

The remains of the late Mary Williams were interred in the Washburn street cemetery yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Jane Reimel, of Hazleton, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Christian Fisher, corner of Street and Broadway, and Bromley avenue, has returned home.

Mrs. Jane Jenkins, sister of R. J. Hughes, of North Bromley avenue, returned yesterday from an eight months visit with relatives in Wales.

Mrs. A. L. Reimer, of North Bromley avenue, visited in New York yesterday.

Keystone lodge, Loyal Knights of America, will meet in Hari Gari hall this evening.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Wat-

Pain in the Back

A Sure Sign of Kidney Trouble. A Trial Bottle Sent Free of a Medicine That Will Stop It. Let us give you a piece of advice: Pain in the back is an almost infallible sign of kidney disease. It really cures all diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and Chronic Constipation and corrects the bad effects of whiskey and beer on the system. It is wonderful how it makes that pain in the back disappear, how it relieves the desire to urinate often, especially at night, and drives away that scalding pain in passing water and in a remarkably short time makes you well and strong. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is sold at all drug stores for $1.00 a bottle, or six bottles for $5.00.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Gomer C. Jones Weds Miss Pearl Loveland—New Quarters for William Connell Horse Company.

A very pretty wedding was last evening solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Loveland, when their charming daughter, Miss Pearl Loveland, was united in marriage to Gomer C. Jones, Rev. Doty, pastor of the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, officiated and tied the nuptial knot. The groomsmen was Thomas P. Davison, of Wilkes-Barre, and the bridesmaid was Miss Elvira Jones, sister of the groom.

A large number of friends of the contracting parties witnessed the pretty ceremony, and afterwards extended their congratulations. The front parlor, where the marriage ceremony was performed, was beautifully decorated. The bride is an accomplished young lady and has a host of friends in this city, and the groom is the popular young druggist at Humphrey's pharmacy.

NEW CONNELL HORSE HOUSE.

It is expected that work will be begun on the new addition to the Connell Horse company's quarters on Monday morning next. The contract is in the hands of Mulhern & Judge, contractors, who will push the work with great rapidity until the building is completed.

The annex will be of brick and will be two stories high. The entire building will be a large horse drying tower erected. The improvements will cost $2,500, and when completed the Connells will have one of the best equipped horse houses in the city.

TOLD IN BRIEF.

The funeral of the late William Hart took place yesterday morning from the family residence on Rlyer street and was very largely attended, the home of the bereaved family being early thronged by the numerous friends of the deceased. At 9 o'clock the funeral cortege moved to St. Peter's cathedral, where a requiem mass was celebrated. At the conclusion of the church services the funeral procession moved to the cathedral cemetery, where interment was made.

Annie Galloway, of Prospect avenue and Hickory street, was given a burial at the South Scranton station house yesterday morning before Alderman Lenton, on a charge of drunkenness, but was discharged.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bubenbach, of Cedar avenue, on Monday evening, the arrival of a baby girl.

A young girl has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bour, of Hickory street.

Pea Coal $1.25 a Ton Delivered to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to T. T. Starkey, 1914 Cedar Ave., Phone 6653.

NORTH SCRANTON.

Last evening the Ladies' Aid society of the Welsh Baptist church, West Market street, conducted an entertainment in the parlors of the church. A long program was rendered, each number of which was well received by the large audience. The program included the singing of "America," by the audience, after which an address was made by the president of the society, The Young Women's Christian association, which rendered some selections. During the evening several generous donations were given by D. F. Davis, Misses Wilhelmina Griffin and Lulu Constantine, in a pleasing manner. Mr. Brown and John T. Cans sang and solos were given by Miss Nellie Tilton, George Eberhards, William Isaac and Mrs. J. H. Kossing.

Friday evening, April 29, an entertainment will be given in the auditorium, the proceeds of which will be for the benefit of Francis Jones, who had the misfortune to lose one of his legs amputated. The committee having the affair in charge are working hard to make the entertainment a success. A social will be held at the close of the program.

The funeral of the late Thomas Reigha was held yesterday afternoon from his home on West Market street. At 2:30 o'clock the remains were conveyed to the Holy Rosary church, where services were conducted. The Rev. J. V. Moran officiated. After the remains had been blessed the funeral cortege moved to the cathedral cemetery, where interment was made.

Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, who have a number of friends at their home on Deane street Tuesday evening. The guests were entertained with a number of interesting entertainments given by Henry Horst and James Atkinson during the evening.

The funeral of Andrew, the 48-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. West, of Stanton street, was held yesterday afternoon.

The eulogical choir will meet at the Young Women's Christian association rooms this afternoon.

Sunday afternoon there will be special Easter services at the Young Women's Christian association rooms.

Marionne Bonding, who has been employed by the Correspondence school of Williamsport for the past three months, is visiting his parents on Church avenue.

George Laurin, of Church avenue, is convalescing.

Albert Rays and family, of Summit avenue, have returned to the central city.

Rev. S. F. Reiding, who has been in Williamsport for the past few days, returned home yesterday.

Bour's orchestra will give an entertainment at the Central Street Methodist Episcopal church this evening.

MINOOKA.

Mr. John O'Neill, our popular young townsman, will leave in a few days for Richmond, Va.

Pain in the Back

A Sure Sign of Kidney Trouble. A Trial Bottle Sent Free of a Medicine That Will Stop It. Let us give you a piece of advice: Pain in the back is an almost infallible sign of kidney disease. It really cures all diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and Chronic Constipation and corrects the bad effects of whiskey and beer on the system. It is wonderful how it makes that pain in the back disappear, how it relieves the desire to urinate often, especially at night, and drives away that scalding pain in passing water and in a remarkably short time makes you well and strong. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is sold at all drug stores for $1.00 a bottle, or six bottles for $5.00.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Gomer C. Jones Weds Miss Pearl Loveland—New Quarters for William Connell Horse Company.

A very pretty wedding was last evening solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Loveland, when their charming daughter, Miss Pearl Loveland, was united in marriage to Gomer C. Jones, Rev. Doty, pastor of the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, officiated and tied the nuptial knot. The groomsmen was Thomas P. Davison, of Wilkes-Barre, and the bridesmaid was Miss Elvira Jones, sister of the groom.

A large number of friends of the contracting parties witnessed the pretty ceremony, and afterwards extended their congratulations. The front parlor, where the marriage ceremony was performed, was beautifully decorated. The bride is an accomplished young lady and has a host of friends in this city, and the groom is the popular young druggist at Humphrey's pharmacy.

NEW CONNELL HORSE HOUSE.

It is expected that work will be begun on the new addition to the Connell Horse company's quarters on Monday morning next. The contract is in the hands of Mulhern & Judge, contractors, who will push the work with great rapidity until the building is completed.

The annex will be of brick and will be two stories high. The entire building will be a large horse drying tower erected. The improvements will cost $2,500, and when completed the Connells will have one of the best equipped horse houses in the city.

TOLD IN BRIEF.

The funeral of the late William Hart took place yesterday morning from the family residence on Rlyer street and was very largely attended, the home of the bereaved family being early thronged by the numerous friends of the deceased. At 9 o'clock the funeral cortege moved to St. Peter's cathedral, where a requiem mass was celebrated. At the conclusion of the church services the funeral procession moved to the cathedral cemetery, where interment was made.

Annie Galloway, of Prospect avenue and Hickory street, was given a burial at the South Scranton station house yesterday morning before Alderman Lenton, on a charge of drunkenness, but was discharged.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bubenbach, of Cedar avenue, on Monday evening, the arrival of a baby girl.

A young girl has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bour, of Hickory street.

Pea Coal $1.25 a Ton Delivered to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to T. T. Starkey, 1914 Cedar Ave., Phone 6653.

NORTH SCRANTON.

Last evening the Ladies' Aid society of the Welsh Baptist church, West Market street, conducted an entertainment in the parlors of the church. A long program was rendered, each number of which was well received by the large audience. The program included the singing of "America," by the audience, after which an address was made by the president of the society, The Young Women's Christian association, which rendered some selections. During the evening several generous donations were given by D. F. Davis, Misses Wilhelmina Griffin and Lulu Constantine, in a pleasing manner. Mr. Brown and John T. Cans sang and solos were given by Miss Nellie Tilton, George Eberhards, William Isaac and Mrs. J. H. Kossing.

Friday evening, April 29, an entertainment will be given in the auditorium, the proceeds of which will be for the benefit of Francis Jones, who had the misfortune to lose one of his legs amputated. The committee having the affair in charge are working hard to make the entertainment a success. A social will be held at the close of the program.

The funeral of the late Thomas Reigha was held yesterday afternoon from his home on West Market street. At 2:30 o'clock the remains were conveyed to the Holy Rosary church, where services were conducted. The Rev. J. V. Moran officiated. After the remains had been blessed the funeral cortege moved to the cathedral cemetery, where interment was made.

Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, who have a number of friends at their home on Deane street Tuesday evening. The guests were entertained with a number of interesting entertainments given by Henry Horst and James Atkinson during the evening.

The funeral of Andrew, the 48-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. West, of Stanton street, was held yesterday afternoon.

The eulogical choir will meet at the Young Women's Christian association rooms this afternoon.

Sunday afternoon there will be special Easter services at the Young Women's Christian association rooms.

Marionne Bonding, who has been employed by the Correspondence school of Williamsport for the past three months, is visiting his parents on Church avenue.

George Laurin, of Church avenue, is convalescing.

Albert Rays and family, of Summit avenue, have returned to the central city.

Rev. S. F. Reiding, who has been in Williamsport for the past few days, returned home yesterday.

Bour's orchestra will give an entertainment at the Central Street Methodist Episcopal church this evening.

MINOOKA.

Mr. John O'Neill, our popular young townsman, will leave in a few days for Richmond, Va.

Pain in the Back

A Sure Sign of Kidney Trouble. A Trial Bottle Sent Free of a Medicine That Will Stop It. Let us give you a piece of advice: Pain in the back is an almost infallible sign of kidney disease. It really cures all diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and Chronic Constipation and corrects the bad effects of whiskey and beer on the system. It is wonderful how it makes that pain in the back disappear, how it relieves the desire to urinate often, especially at night, and drives away that scalding pain in passing water and in a remarkably short time makes you well and strong. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is sold at all drug stores for $1.00 a bottle, or six bottles for $5.00.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Gomer C. Jones Weds Miss Pearl Loveland—New Quarters for William Connell Horse Company.

A very pretty wedding was last evening solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Loveland, when their charming daughter, Miss Pearl Loveland, was united in marriage to Gomer C. Jones, Rev. Doty, pastor of the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, officiated and tied the nuptial knot. The groomsmen was Thomas P. Davison, of Wilkes-Barre, and the bridesmaid was Miss Elvira Jones, sister of the groom.

A large number of friends of the contracting parties witnessed the pretty ceremony, and afterwards extended their congratulations. The front parlor, where the marriage ceremony was performed, was beautifully decorated. The bride is an accomplished young lady and has a host of friends in this city, and the groom is the popular young druggist at Humphrey's pharmacy.

NEW CONNELL HORSE HOUSE.

It is expected that work will be begun on the new addition to the Connell Horse company's quarters on Monday morning next. The contract is in the hands of Mulhern & Judge, contractors, who will push the work with great rapidity until the building is completed.

The annex will be of brick and will be two stories high. The entire building will be a large horse drying tower erected. The improvements will cost $2,500, and when completed the Connells will have one of the best equipped horse houses in the city.

TOLD IN BRIEF.

The funeral of the late William Hart took place yesterday morning from the family residence on Rlyer street and was very largely attended, the home of the bereaved family being early thronged by the numerous friends of the deceased. At 9 o'clock the funeral cortege moved to St. Peter's cathedral, where a requiem mass was celebrated. At the conclusion of the church services the funeral procession moved to the cathedral cemetery, where interment was made.

Annie Galloway, of Prospect avenue and Hickory street, was given a burial at the South Scranton station house yesterday morning before Alderman Lenton, on a charge of drunkenness, but was discharged.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bubenbach, of Cedar avenue, on Monday evening, the arrival of a baby girl.

A young girl has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bour, of Hickory street.

Pea Coal $1.25 a Ton Delivered to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to T. T. Starkey, 1914 Cedar Ave., Phone 6653.

NORTH SCRANTON.

Last evening the Ladies' Aid society of the Welsh Baptist church, West Market street, conducted an entertainment in the parlors of the church. A long program was rendered, each number of which was well received by the large audience. The program included the singing of "America," by the audience, after which an address was made by the president of the society, The Young Women's Christian association, which rendered some selections. During the evening several generous donations were given by D. F. Davis, Misses Wilhelmina Griffin and Lulu Constantine, in a pleasing manner. Mr. Brown and John T. Cans sang and solos were given by Miss Nellie Tilton, George Eberhards, William Isaac and Mrs. J. H. Kossing.

Friday evening, April 29, an entertainment will be given in the auditorium, the proceeds of which will be for the benefit of Francis Jones, who had the misfortune to lose one of his legs amputated. The committee having the affair in charge are working hard to make the entertainment a success. A social will be held at the close of the program.

The funeral of the late Thomas Reigha was held yesterday afternoon from his home on West Market street. At 2:30 o'clock the remains were conveyed to the Holy Rosary church, where services were conducted. The Rev. J. V. Moran officiated. After the remains had been blessed the funeral cortege moved to the cathedral cemetery, where interment was made.

Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, who have a number of friends at their home on Deane street Tuesday evening. The guests were entertained with a number of interesting entertainments given by Henry Horst and James Atkinson during the evening.

The funeral of Andrew, the 48-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. West, of Stanton street, was held yesterday afternoon.

The eulogical choir will meet at the Young Women's Christian association rooms this afternoon.

Sunday afternoon there will be special Easter services at the Young Women's Christian association rooms.

Marionne Bonding, who has been employed by the Correspondence school of Williamsport for the past three months, is visiting his parents on Church avenue.

George Laurin, of Church avenue, is convalescing.

Albert Rays and family, of Summit avenue, have returned to the central city.

Rev. S. F. Reiding, who has been in Williamsport for the past few days, returned home yesterday.

Bour's orchestra will give an entertainment at the Central Street Methodist Episcopal church this evening.

MINOOKA.

Mr. John O'Neill, our popular young townsman, will leave in a few days for Richmond, Va.

SALE OF CURE THE ONLY SPECIFIC FOR KIDNEY OR LIVER DISEASES.

Spring Hats and Easter Neckwear NOW BEING SHOWN AT BROWN & M'GANN'S 109 Wyoming Avenue.

The St. Denis Broadway and Eleventh St., New York. Opp. Grace Church—European Plan. Rooms $1.00 a Day and Upwards.

WILLIAM TAYLOR & SON. WESTMINSTER HOTEL, Cor. Sixth St. and Irving Place, NEW YORK.

MADE ME A MAN. MAKE PERFECT MEN. DO NOT DESPAIR! Do not despair! Do not despair! Do not despair!

Today, Friday and Saturday Big Bargains in Shoes and Slippers for Easter. Special Easter Bargains. Men's patent leather hand-sewed shoes, worth $4, at $2.98.

GRAIN-O THE FOOD DRINK. Coffee injures growing children, even when it is weakened. Grain-O gives them brighter eyes, firmer flesh, quicker intelligence and happier dispositions.