Deliberate Suicide Last Evening. Serious Condition of Archie Martin-Other News of Interest.

Michael Manger, an aged man, residing with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Haas, of Main street, committed suicide at 6 o'clock last evening by shooting himself through the head with a 32-calibre revolver, his death apparently being instantaneous. The man, who was eightytwo years of age, had been sick for the past two weeks, and it is thought that this unbalanced his mind somewhat. He had hinted that he would shoet himself, and while Mr. Haas took the precaution to draw the charges from shotgun he had loaded in the house he forgot that the old gentleman had a revolver of his own. Mr. and Mrs. Haas both say they did not for a moment think the deceased would carry out his threat, although, as previously stated, Mr. Haas though! it unwise to leave the loaded gun where it could be so easily reached.

At a few minutes to 6 o'clock Mr. Manger went upstairs and his absence had scarcely been noticed when their eleven-year-old daughter went upstairs to close some of the windows. In passing her grandfather's room she wave him sitting in a chair, and, speaking to him, was surprised at receiving no answer. She alarmed her mother, who upon going unstairs made the discovery that her father was, to all appearances, dead. He was seated in an ordinary chair, holding a small lookingglass in one hand and a revolver in the other, both hands resting across his knees. With the exception of his head being bent forward, his position was perfectly natural, as though alive. Mr. Haas, who was in his store, which adjoins the house, was attracted by his wife's screams, and, upon being informed, rushed out and obtained a physician, who arrived a few moments fterwards and pronounced him dead. The deceased was born in Germany, and for many years was a resident of Honesdale, where he laid the first gas pipes put down in that town. He was for years superintendent of the gas works and later was connected with the water company. Until two years ago he resided with his daughter. Mrs. Young, at Honesdale, but since her death he has divided his time at the homes of his three children. Since last June he had been with Mr. and Mrs. Hans, both of whom have been most kind to him, and his sad end has given them both a severe blow.

The deceased is survived by a son. Peter Manner, of Honesdale, and two daughters, Mrs. Haas and Mrs. John Phillipson. The funeral arrangements have not yet been definitely decided. but interment will be made in Hones-

Coroner Roberts was last evening notified of the occurrence and sent word that he would be up this morning to Investigate the matter.

A fortnight ago Archie Martin, of wood's mine, in barring down some coal cut a bad gash in the back of his hand. Since that time his hand and arm has swollen greatly and pained intensely, and despite the attention of two physicians continued to get worse. Fearing that if an operation was not performed he might possibly lose his hand, it was decided upon to have adhome on Wyoming street, yesterday ditional surgical assistance and yesmorning. He leaves a wife and one terday afternoon an operation was performed by Dr. Thompson, of Scranton assisted by Dr. Bailey, of Carbondale, Deceased was born in this city thirty- and Manley of Mayfield. A quantity of pus was removed from the wound, which was thoroughly cleaned and resided there until ten years ago, when dressed, and it is hoped that the wound
