

NO FIRST DEGREE VERDICT EXPECTED

Mr. Murphy went to court to meet the commonwealth to call Edward Garvey, another eye-witness, alleging he had been subpoenaed and then, when it was discovered that his testimony was favorable to the defense, told he would not be needed. Judge Archibald refused the motion and charged Mr. Murphy for his remarks. Mr. Murphy had a bill of exceptions sealed. Mr. Murphy, in opening for the defense, clearly outlining the theory as given in Ludden's story and contending for a verdict of acquittal on the ground of self-defense.

B. Woolsey. A portion of the tools, it was alleged, Greiner disposed of to Michael McHugh, of Dunmore. Several witnesses testified that one day in the latter part of January, Greiner was in the shop. Edward Howell was the only other person present. He left the shop for a few minutes and when he returned Greiner and the box had disappeared. In his defense Greiner said he was intoxicated on the day in question and had no intention of stealing the tools of the prosecutor.

Ex-Patrolman Brings Suit.
Inspired by the verdict in the Saul case, ex-Patrolman Martin Flaherty yesterday instituted suit in assumption to recover $220 pay for the two periods he was under suspension.

The sum of $217.50 is claimed for the time he was under suspension during Mayor Bailey's term. He was laid off June 12, 1897, and reinstated Sept. 15, 1897. He alleges that the suspension was unjust and illegal and at all events, he claims his pay continued because select council did not approve the suspension.

The case was brought by M. W. Guernsey to recover $12,000 under a contract which he alleged he had with J. W. Guernsey. The case was tried before arbitrators heretofore and a judgment given in favor of J. W. Guernsey, who alleges that the entire case was part of a scheme to ruin him in a business way.

The case was one of the hardest legal battles of recent years in this city.

Court House News Notes.
Attorney H. D. Garry, acting for Thomas H. Merritt, of Jersey, brought a suit in replevin yesterday to recover a lumber wagon which is owned by C. J. and Augusta Goswami, of Scott, have possessed themselves of illegally.

An action in ejectment was begun yesterday by James Murray, against Hon. J. C. Mangham, to gain possession of a lot in Dunmore, at the corner of Chestnut street and Shoemaker avenue which, it is claimed, is illegally held by Murray, William, Annie and Stella McDonough, Mrs. Ellen O'Hara, Richard O'Hara, Maria and Barney McCann.

The charter of the Carbonate Citizens' Water company was filed yesterday with Recorder Wankel. The company is authorized to operate in Wayne, Lackawanna and Susquehanna counties. John W. Kipatich, George A. Herbst, E. A. Roberts, James Rutherford and Thomas O'Connell are the incorporators. The capital stock is $5,000.

A general committee was formed, which includes members of the various organizations, and sub-committees were appointed to attend to minor details. Indications point to the largest labor demonstration ever held in the city. The mass meeting will be held on Park's heights. Many speakers of prominence will participate.

Connolly and Wallace

SCRANTON'S SHOPPING CENTER.

The Silk Sale

The most potent achievement that secured economic distinction for the Silk Department was the acquisition of immense quantities at the rates quoted before the recent large advance in price. The following items should establish cordial relations between Connolly & Wallace and all who have not heretofore grown familiar with our way:

27-Inch Printed Habutai Silks, 75c.

Printed Habutais have certain charms and characteristics that keep them in popular favor. They are soft and clingy, and yet they are exceptionally strong and serviceable. You may rely upon the spinning and dyeing of these. And the patterns are right. Black grounds with white and colored dots, blue grounds with dainty white stripes and with white dots, violet grounds with white dots and stripes, and various other effects.

Foulard Silks.

Their popularity is in the ascendancy, our stock is at its zenith. No silken fabric is daintier for summer wear. The colors are yale, gobein, violet, national, medium and dark blue, cardinal, old rose and heliotrope. Small neat designs, large, elegant effects. Three grades, 75c., $1.00, $1.25 per yard.

Fancy Taffeta Waist Silks.

The variety is infinite—indescribable. Here's a hint: White, pink, Nile, lemon and soft blue grounds, overwrought with small broche figures—leaves, diamonds, triangles, vines and dashes, divided by half-inch satin stripes aglow with Dresden and Sevres embroidered effects in bright contrasting tints. Many many beautiful effects, 50c. to $1.00 per yard.

Silk Handkerchiefs for Waists

It takes from two to three to make a waist. What won't the disciple of fashion evolve next? But the effect is not so startling, nor the effort so great as the proposition would lead one to suspect. Large Bandana Handkerchiefs, Persian patterns, in pretty color effects, are used. One dollar each.

Corded Kai Kai Silks.

The cord craze continues—intensifies. Of course, stylenmakers will sustain the dainty, strong effects that women have come to like so well for waists and full suits. It was fortunate for you that this lot was secured by us. They are pretty and crisp—directly new and are deservedly popular. 50c.

Plain Taffeta Silks—Black and Colored.

There is no cheap dyeing or flimsy weaving or stinkiness in these Taffeta Silks—they are the best of their kind. Taffetas made for wear and service, of good weight and correct finish. Silk pure and simple—silk light and strong. Our Taffeta Silks take precedence. Colors, 75c.; black, 50c. to $1.25.

Novelties.

Greenadines, colors and black, $1.00 to $7.00 yard.
Crepe De Chine, pastel shades, $1.00 to $2.00 yard.
Our purpose is to awaken curiosity concerning our Silks. That done, the visit follows and then the buying.
