ERIE RAILROAD SCORES A POINT IN ITS FIGHT.

Permitted to File a Bond and Take Possession of Part of the Old Canal Bed—Make-up of the D. L. & W. Board for Today—Manner in Which the Pennsylvania Is Disposing of Its New Issue of Stock. Short News Notes.

The Erie Railroad company Thursday scored a point in its fight in Pennsylvania to prevent the Erie and Wyoming Valley and Pennsylvania Coal companies from building its proposed canal road from Hawley, over the abandoned Delaware and Hudson canal, to Tidewater at Kingston, N. Y. Last November the Erie company dumped 200 carloads of coal ashes in the canal at Lackawanna, where the Erie crosses it by a bridge. This was to prevent the new road from building on the bed of the canal, which is under the Erie tracks at this point. The matter was taken to the courts and Judge Purdy, the presiding judge of Pike and Wayne counties, ordered the Erie company to remove a wooden bridge it had built across the canal on a level with the bank while an injunction was pending, leaving the canal and other obstruction undisturbed.

Thursday the Erie company, through its counsel, sought to file a bond at Milford, which in effect would give it permanent possession of the land under its bridge No. 6 at Lackawanna. A special term of the county court was held at Milford before Judge Purdy and Associate Judges Klaerner and Honck, at which the Erie and Wyoming company asked for an injunction to restrain the Erie from filing its bond. The injunction was denied and the Erie permitted to file its bond. This gives the latter company the canal bed where it is obstructed.

Selling the Stock.

The directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad company have taken advantage of the demand for the shares of this company and they have been for some time past supplying the market with stock. It is officially stated that the company has sold all the stock it was entitled to, and within the past few days about $6,700,000 of the stock has been put out. The authorized capitalization of this company is $151,700,000, and the manner in which the stock was sold created some surprise, as the stockholders thought they would be given a choice to subscribe for this stock at par.

was sold around 70 or better, which has been the price recently, and the company has secured $3,450,000, or $2,650,000 more than if an allotment had been made.

Receivers Not Liable.

The United States supreme court decided Monday that receivers of railroads are not liable under the United States statute of 1873 prohibiting railroad companies from confining live stock for a longer period than twenty-eight hours at a time without unloading them for rest, water, etc. The decision was based on the ground that the statute is applicable to "companies" only, and the court held if there was an omission in the law it could only be supplied by congress.

The case was that of the United States vs. the receivers of the Reading Railroad company.

This and That.

Conrad Schroeder is erecting a new station for the Delaware and Hudson company at Saratoga, N. Y.

Work on the foundation for the new Baptist church on South Main avenue is nearing completion, and the contractor will soon begin work on the superstructure.

The line of the People's Telephone company to Pittston was opened on Wednesday and subscribers may talk to that city free of charge. Work on the company's lines in Scranton will be begun in a short time.—Wilkes-Barre Record.

Smith & Champion, of Mahanoy City, have been awarded the contract by the Reading railway for the grading and masonry in connection with its proposed new freight yard at Rutherford, on the Lebanon Valley branch. This new yard, which will be located an average of five miles west of Harrisburg, will be used for handling heavy western traffic coming over the company's line via the Western Maryland.

FLOWERS FOR EASTER.

There Is an Unusually Large and Gorgeous Display of Them This Year at the Florists.

It is the unanimous testimony of all flower lovers that never before in the history of the city has there been such an elaborate, lavish and varied display of Easter flowers as the florists are making this week. Nearly all of them have rented annexes, large empty store rooms and these are filled with such a profusion of flowers that one is almost bewildered when he enters.

"They may talk of their Paris flower markets," said one florist yesterday, "but we've got flower markets in Scranton this week that offer just as great a profusion of flowers of all kinds and varieties as any that the old world has."

The Easter lilies, of course, predominate, and they can be had by the hundred. They are selling at the same price they have sold for several years in the past. And it isn't only the well-to-do who are buying them, either, for the children of the poor may be seen coming in to get the beautiful white blossoms that typify so much in this most glorious season of the year.

A flower that is also very plentiful and one which is becoming very popular in this city is the "crimson rambler" rose. This plant grows with marvellous rapidity and twines itself just like the ivy. The wonderful part of it is that it is almost all blossom and when it is in full bloom, hardly one square inch of foliage can be seen, nothing but a mass of crimson petals.

The ever-popular azalias are also very plentiful and they may be had in almost every conceivable shade, from the lightest and faintest of pinks to a glorious cerise. Rhododendrons are also shown in profusion as are the hydrangeas, some of which are record breakers in the matter of size.

Among the other flowers that may be had are: Hyacinths, daffodils, geraniums, acacias, tulips of every color, marigolds, sweet scented lilies of the valleys, white lilacs, cinerarias, jonquils and delicate spreas. A novelty is also shown in the shape of calceolarias, or fisherman's baskets, a most peculiar shaped little flower, that is shaped just like the object it is named after, and that comes in such exquisite shades and blendings of shades that they cannot be described. Another novelty is sweet alyssum in pots.

Roses may be had, of course, in all kinds and varieties, and palms and greenery of all sorts are on exhibition.

Top Notch Luxury.

The finest hotels in the land cannot surpass the Lake Shore Limited for luxury and comfort. No one who has not taken a trip on this palatial train can appreciate the magnificence of the back, 29 cents a flower. And it isn't only the well-to-do who are buying them, either, for the children of the poor may be seen coming in to get the beautiful white blossoms that typify so much in this most glorious season of the year.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The regular meeting of the literary society, which was held Thursday was very enthusiastic. There being no business of importance to come before the society, the literary program was at once proceeded with. The Glee club quartette, composed of Messrs. Grant, Burns, Dean and Webb, sang, and received the hearty applause of all the students present. The recitation by Miss Beatrice Morris was delivered in her usual charming and impressive manner. Jesse Rodriguez, who has made himself very popular by the splendid manner in which he plays the violin, gave an exhibition of his skill with that instrument, for which he received the continued applause of the students and was compelled to play a second time. But the most interesting feature of the meeting was what was intended by the programme committee to be a pro-Rose meeting, but which some were evidently endeavoring to make a demonstration in favor of England. The speech of Mr. Sabatini, the chairman of the programme committee, was a very forcible speech, which clearly showed with which side his sympathies were. He was followed by a very short but concise pro-Rose declaration by Mr. Hooven. After this speech the meeting for some time continued to be one of cheers for President Kruger, resolutions of sympathy for the Boers, and, in fact, everything which tended to show that the vast majority of the students present favored the people of the Transvaal.

The pedestrian club held a meeting Thursday, at which a second communication from Mr. Evans, of Wyoming seminary, was read. In this letter Mr. Evans urgently requested that the Scranton High school be represented on the field on the day of the track meet. Trupp, who is into the work of training the students for these contests with all his might, requests that all who have any interest in the pedestrian club and who wish to train for the coming event, to meet him at Athletic Park next Tuesday. This is a list of the contests which will come off at the Wyoming seminary grounds: 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, 440 yard run, half-mile run, one mile run, 120 yard hurdle race (low), running broad jump, pole vault, putting, 72-pound shot, throwing 72-pound hammer, one mile bicycle race, running high jump. This will be governed by the rules of the National Inter-Scholastic association.

Arthur Hooven intends spending the coming week in Pike county, on a trout fishing expedition. But he is not the only one, the talk of trout fishing being the subject of conversation among the boys for nearly all of the past week.—Stephen Davis.

The Day of Little Things—Saturday

Easter suggestions are everywhere throughout the store and Easter sunshine, we hope, for this last day of Easter preparation. This will naturally be a day of little things, like gloves, and hosiery and neckwear. Yet, if the gown is not yet prepared, there is still time. Huge preparations on our part have resulted in immense favor at your hands. And this is but the beginning. The mercantile importance of Easter lies only in the fact that it fixes the opening of a season. With the passing of Easter our usefulness to you is only begun.

An Easter Hint for Men

It's a glove hint, so you'll not be surprised that it's of "Adler's" famous $1.50 gloves. One of our glove specialties, as you know, and a strong one, Mocha Gloves (undressed) in pretty shades of grey, mode and tan—a soft, fine, perfect fitting glove that is bound to give satisfaction in wear.

Men's Neckwear

Easter Neckwear—the new shapes and colorings from abroad, and the very latest effects, from the makers at home, 25c to $1.50, with large assortments at between prices. Of particular interest in the half dollar line. It comprises a fresh importation of English Twills in navy blue and black with white and colored figures. They're mostly in the popular "batwing" and English square shapes. Numerous other good qualities, stylish and well made in this 50c class.

Ladies' Kid Gloves

The "C. & W." is the dollar glove. The "Jouvin" is the dollar and a half glove. Each is an absolute leader in its line. Connolly & Wallace specialties are things to be regarded seriously, and we have no specialties in our entire business that we ourselves take more seriously than these gloves. They are positively better than any other glove sold at their price in America. All colors, all styles, all sizes in each.

Women's and Men's Hosiery

Good hosiery. Always worthy, dependable goods in this store, however little the price. A host of regular patrons indorse this claim. Each new patron makes a new indorser. Some inexpensive sorts below. Better goods, though than you get usually at these prices.

For Men and Women—12 1/2c a pair, medium weight, fast black cotton, double soles, toes and high spliced heels, full in size, elastic and durable. German make Not matched in quality at 20c pair.

For Men—19c pair, 3 pairs for 50c, of cotton, black, with unbleached feet, made with double soles, toes and high spliced heels. Thousands of dozens of these goods pass over our counters in a season. They're not to be found elsewhere at so low a price

Easter Shoes

At $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, $3.00, $4.00 and $5.00 for men and women. All styles, all leathers. All sizes and all widths, A to EE.
