FACTORYVILLE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Factoryville, April 16.-If the weather man tail anything to do in regard to making Easter San-day an ideal one, he certainly must have done his duty, as the day here was perfect in every respect and gave our society four hundred an ample opportunity to display their finery. Large congregations taxed the seating capacity of both eligibles, the choirs of which rendered elaborate Easter music. At the First Baptist church, Rev. R. Smith delivered an eloquent sermon for the occasion, and the Methodist Episcopal church Rev. W. M. Hiller preached an appropriate and interesting sermon on the resurrection of Christ. The exening's programme at the Methodiat Univ. copal church was an Easter cantata, entitle! "Our Risen Lord," by Lorenz and was beautifully sung by a choir of twenty voices, under the direction of Chorister Charles Gardner, and required one hour in readition, and was one of programme of the Easter cantata which was published in yesterday's Trilune, and which was sung at the Baptist church last night, was emitted.

Owing to a confliction of dates the leature given on Rudyard Kipling at the Academy last Friday night, Professor Bromby Smith post-poned his entertainment at the Baptist cheach until Friday evening, April 20. We thrill at the story of "Curfew shall not ring to-night." Yet it is melodramatic and commonplace beside the peril every woman runs who faces motherhood. Women are strangely self-forgetful. The excitation of the fact of motherhood blinds them often to its peril. Yet the husband who can bear no tithe of the mother's pain or peril owes it to himself to see that his wife is in that condition of sound health which minimizes the risk both to mother and child. Many husbands have expressed their gratitude for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, because it makes the pain of mother-hood practically nothing and reduces the risk to its lowest possible point. *Five years my wife was in an almost helpless condition suffering from female weakases, writes J. S. Everritt, Esq., of Hagerman, Washington Co., Pla. "Last September I decided to have her try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. She took several bottles of the medicine and gave hirth to a ten pound son on lanuary ust. birth to a ten pound son on January 11st, 1899. She is now sound and well and doing her housework."

Transactions were large all day and the railroad list make a considerable show of strength in the opening dealings but there was heavy selling in the troe and steel stocks. But some of the railroad stocks were bid up contributly in the face of violent declines in this group. Missouri Partific was buoyant and carried the whore of the Southwestern group with it. This stock went to 61% and its influence promised at one time to overcome the reactionary forces, but it fell sudeveryone the reactionary forces, but it fell sud-denly to Thursday's level and the whole list fell heavily in sympathy. Union Pacific was the first of the railroad stocks to show acute sym-pathy with the demoralization in the metal siocks. Late in the day a rumor took form that ther was to be extensive shutting down of plants in the great metal companies on the ground of overproduction in an anticipation of business haring the early vary of this convenience.

~~~~~~~ Millinery.

'Whom shall we thank for this Millinery?" A new found friend who first discovered this millinery store Saturday, asked this remarkable question. To answer her, we went into details. Told her to thank the good judgment and common sense of the moulders of Fashion. Told her to thank the ingenuity and skill, the deft fingers and clever originators, who serve to keep Jonas Long's Sons' Millinery at the top-notch of fashion and beauty. She was a New Yorker, who had visited the fashionable shops of the metropolis; she had seen nothing more fashionable there-and prices here were much lower. So it is this Millinery store serves you best. It is the aurora in Scranton's realm of fashion-we are proud of it.
