Easter Observance in the Churches Bengough-Bennett Nuptials-In teresting Notes

The Easter festival was observed in all the local churches on Sunday with special music. Miss DeGraw, of Scranton, a pupil of Prof. John T. Watkins, who has been spending a few days at the home of Mrs. E. J. Prior, of Second street, assisted very materially with the singing at the First Baptist church. At the morning service she sang the solo, "Palms," and in the evening "From Gloom to Glory." Miss Emma Scutt, of Bacon street, was the very efficient accompanist. floral decorations were very beautiful

At Sacred Heart church the choir sang Battman's beautiful mass in C the duet in the credo, "et inter natus est," and the "Agnus Del" being very effetively rendered by Miss Sadie Timlin and Prof. William Kelly, leader of the choir. The decorations were most exquisite, the flowers and potted plants having been supplied by local Florist

At the Primitive Methodist church in the afternoon and evening the services were almost entirely given up to music. The choir, which had been augmented to nearly fifty voices, sang excellently and their leader, Mr. John Martin, has reason to feel pleased at the choir's success. The floral wreaths and deocrations used were the gift of Mrs. George Tompkins, whose kindness was much appreciated by the pastor and ocngregation.

the choir, under the leadership of Mr. parents. Joplin, sang with much ability several been rehearsing for several weeks.

There were three services in St. James church, the first being at 6 a. m; at the 10.30 and evening services the choir sang several special anthems and solos, the latter being undertaken by Miss Gertie Vail, Miss Myra Hills, Mr. Johnson Bennett and Mr. L. A. Green. Miss Hills' solo, Dawn," at the evening service deserves special mention. It was one of the best rendered solos heard in the church for a long time. The floral decorations were very pretty. OLYPHANT.

Large congregations attended both services in the Blakely Eaptist church on Easter cay. The decorations were beautiful. Surrounding the pulpit were masses of flowers and potted plants. The large choir under the direction of T. D. Edwards rendered superb music. The pipe organ and piano with Miss Carrie Kenyon as organist, and Miss Jeanette Kingeley as pianist, aided much in the strength and tone of the melody. Several solos in the authems sung were rendered with excellent effect. The sermons preached by Rev. Dr. Spencer were in harmony with the day. In the Presbyterian church an excellent programme of music was rendered by the choir. At the evening service the singing of "Calvary" by Mrs. Ross Lloyd, was one of the most en joyable features. Appropriate sermons were de-livered at both services by the pastor, Rev. B. Bartholomew's mass in E flat, Credo, from Weber's mass in G and Regina Coell from Werner, were sung in an excellent manner in St. Patrick's church by the choir led Interment will be made in Pros pect cemetery.

Chicken thieves have again made their ap pearance. On Thursday night they depleted the cops of S. G. Hurd and F. A. Peck. At the former place twelve chickens were taken and at the latter place eight. This is the third time within as n'any years that Mr. Hurd has sus-tained the loss of his poultry. Burglar alarms, set guns, etc., do not seem to deter these thieves from plying their nefarious work, as the burglar alarms fail to work and the guns miss fire, but the thieves always generally make a good haul and escape without detection. But there will come a time when a surprise party will be sprung on the thieves and woe betide any chicken thieves who may be captured within Peckville's classic precincts.
