CITY NOTES

D. & H. PAY DAYS—The Delaware and Hudson company paid yesterday at No. 2, No. 3 and Boston mines at Plymouth.

BOARD OF ENGINEERS—The board of engineers of the fire department will meet tonight in the office of Chief John H. Walker.

ACCUSED OF ASSAULT—Squire Conroy, of Dunmore, last night committed to the county jail Patrick Gordon, accused of assaulting his wife.

ANNUAL CARE WALK—The Moss Rose Social club will give its first annual walk and fancy cake walk Tuesday night, April 21, at Music hall.

MILITARY BALL—Company B, Thirtieth regiment, will conduct a grand military ball in Music hall this evening. Bauer's orchestra will furnish the music.

PAYING WITNESS FEES—The witness fees, amounting to some $500, which are due witnesses who have testified in city cases within the last two years, are being paid at the city solicitor's office.

NEGLECT AND NON-SUPPORT—A warrant was issued by Alderman Miller yesterday for the arrest of Will Lenny, of 102 Marion street, who was accused by his wife of drunkenness, neglect and non-support.

COMPANY K INSPECTED—Major W. S. Miller inspected Company K last night at the armory. Some fifty-five men lined up, under the command of Captain Bursen Bevan, and were put through the various military evolutions.

JOINT FIRE COMMITTEE—The joint fire department committee of councils will meet at the Crystal House tonight for the purpose of inspecting the new "water battery" which Chief Walker has just put into service.

SUPERINTENDENTS' CONFERENCE—A meeting of all the superintendents of the Lackawanna system will be held in New York today for the purpose of considering the schedule of summer trains which the company will soon adopt.

AMICABLE SETTLED—James Sullivan was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by Alderman Miller at the instance of William Anderson, who charged him with assault. The case was amicably settled between the parties, both of whom are boys employed at the Pine Brook colliery.

JOYCE FUNERAL—The funeral of Mrs. Patrick Joyce, formerly Miss Ellen T. Lavis, will take place from the family home at 214 Third street, at 9 o'clock tomorrow. Services will be conducted in the Holy Cross church and interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

PASSOVER SERVICES—The closing services for the festival of the Passover at the Linden street temple will take place this evening at 7:30 o'clock, when a sermon will be preached by the rabbi, Rev. Dr. Chapman. The last service of the festival will take place tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock.

AN ENJOYABLE SOCIAL—The Elite Dancing class gave their post-Lenten social last night in the rooms of John Boyle O'Reilly council, Y. M. C. on Lackawanna avenue. There were about eighty couples present. The committee in charge was composed as follows: Charles F. Marion, John F. Walsh and James J. Marion. The instructor of the class is Professor M. F. Cullin.

JOHN TYRELL INJURED—John Tyrell, of Bellevue, a machinist in the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad's round house, was taken to the Moses Taylor hospital last night when he was struck by a steel pin which flew from his grip as he was trying to hammer in a clinch pin. The force of the blow rendered him unconscious.

STREET CAR MEN'S BALL—The members of Division No. 125, Street Car Men's union, conducted their first annual ball last night at Music hall and the event proved a most successful one, there being something like 100 couples present. Bauer's full orchestra furnished the music for dancing. There were twenty-four numbers on the programme. The committee in charge of the affair was as follows: Chairman, T. I. Avery; John Barber, J. H. Whalen, Walter Evans and W. S. Brown.

JIFKINS-JEWELL NUPTIALS.

The Ceremony Took Place Yesterday Noon in St. Luke's Church.

Miss Mabel Jewell and John Handley Jifkins were yesterday noon joined in wedlock at St. Luke's Episcopal church by Rev. Rogers Israel. Mrs. Jifkins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jewell, of 302 Spruce street, and is a very popular young lady. Her husband is the receiving teller in the Merchants and Mechanics' bank.

The ceremony was performed at high noon, when the bride procession entered the church to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Charles Doersam. The bride carried a bouquet of bridal roses, and was attired in a handsome grey broadcloth traveling gown. Miss Dorothy Tennis, of Jersey, the bridesmaid, wore a grey gown, with lavender trimmings. Fred G. Scudder, of Binghamton, attended the groom, and G. A. Sharps and J. L. Knapp were the ushers.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, at which were present a very large number of the relatives and personal friends of the newly married couple. At 2:18 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Jifkins left the city for an extended bridal tour through the southern states. On their return they will reside at 1905 Gibson street.

LITTLE GIRL'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Tried to Cross Capouse Avenue in Front of a Trolley Car.

The four-year-old girl, whose parents' names are Minsky, had a narrow escape from death yesterday at Capouse avenue and Green Ridge street by being struck by a trolley car.

It was about 10 o'clock in the morning, and car 102 was going toward Green Ridge, when the little girl attempted to cross the street directly in front of the approaching car. She was struck by the fender and thrown to one side, fortunately escaping with bruises to the legs.

KIDNEY DISEASE KILLS.

Its Victims Are Numbered by the Hundreds of Thousands.

If you are suffering from Kidney or Bladder disease, the doctor asks: "Do you desire to urinate often, and are you compelled to get up frequently during the night? Does your back pain you? Does your urine stain linen? Is there a scalding pain in passing it, and is it difficult to hold the urine back? If so, your Kidneys or Bladder are diseased."

Try sending some of your urine in a glass tumbler, let it stand twenty-four hours. If there is a sediment, or a cloudy, milky appearance, your Kidneys are sick.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will surely relieve and cure even the most distressing cases of these dread diseases, and no physician can prescribe a medicine that equals it for diseases of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and Chronic Constipation. It will promptly correct the bad effects of beer and whiskey. All drug stores sell it for one dollar a bottle.

By sending your address to the Dr. David Kennedy's Corporation, Rondout, N. Y., and mentioning this paper, a trial bottle, together with pamphlet of valuable medical advice, will be sent you free of charge by mail. Our readers can depend upon the genuineness of this offer.

ANOTHER BUSY DAY OF THE PRESBYTERY

MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY TRANSACT MUCH BUSINESS.

Revs. William A. Nordt, William Jessup, E. P. Morse and F. Von King, Elected Representatives to the General Assembly—Popular Meeting Addressed by Rev. C. E. Robinson, Rev. W. H. Swift, Rev. S. C. Logan and Others—Final Sessions Will Be Held Today.

Two very busy sessions of the Lackawanna Presbytery were held yesterday at which considerable work was done by the clergymen and elders in attendance. Several pastors accepted calls to different churches, and delegates were elected to the general assembly.

The evening meeting was devoted to the cause of foreign missions, synodical sustenance and the foreign speaking people. Addresses were made by Rev. C. E. Robinson, D. D., Rev. W. H. Swift, Rev. S. C. Logan, D. D., and others.

MORNING SESSION.
When the members of the assembly met for the morning session, they devoted one hour to devotional exercises. Rev. W. R. Harshaw, D. D., read the narrative on the state of religion. It was accepted and ordered sent to the general assembly as the narrative of the state of religion in the bounds of the Lackawanna Presbytery.

Rev. W. H. Lukens read the obituary prepared on the death of Rev. W. B. Parsons, which was prepared by the committee appointed for that purpose. The report was accepted and the committee was directed to enter the same on the record and tender a copy to the family.

The deaths of the following elders were reported: Peter H. Goshan, Nathaniel Rutter, Calvin Parsons, John R. Thompson, A. Babcock, J. Y. Wren, Edward Van Dyne, and Andrew D. Williams.

Rev. T. S. Armentrout announced that he was ready to accept the call to the Wyandott church, which was placed in his hands, and Rev. Armentrout and Elder William Ellsworth were appointed to make arrangements for the installation, which will occur on the second Thursday in June at 7:30 p. m. Dr. Stewart, of Towanda, will preach the sermon. Rev. C. E. Jones will charge the people and Rev. M. L. Cook will charge the pastor.

Rev. C. E. Robinson, D. D., read the report of the standing committee on the financial condition of the Summer avenue church. The report was accepted and adopted and the committee commended for its faithfulness. The committee was discharged.

At its own request and Rev. C. E. Robinson, D. D., and Elders E. R. Sturges and A. W. Dickson appointed in their stead.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
The session was reconvened at 2 p. m. and a call from the Nanticoke church to Rev. W. S. Peterson was read and accepted. Rev. Peterson and Elder S. L. Hally were appointed to make the installation arrangements, which will be held on Tuesday evening, May 8. Rev. P. H. Brooks will preside.

Rev. C. E. Robinson will preach the sermon. Rev. S. J. Moon will manage the charge to the pastor, and Rev. T. A. Mills will charge the people.

The pastoral relations of Rev. J. J. Rankin and the Hawley church were dissolved and he was appointed to preach in the pulpit on the last Sabbath in April and declare the church vacant. Rev. Rankin has accepted the call to the Elmhurst church and will be installed May 22.

Rev. Herman A. Goff, Rev. W. H. Williams and Rev. James Hughes were admitted to sitting in the Presbytery as corresponding members. The Presbytery decided to reconvene at the First Presbyterian church at 3 p. m. on May 23, to install Rev. Thomas Archibald, who was licensed on Tuesday.

Rev. A. M. Higgins accepted the call to the New Hope church, and the installation will occur on May 24 at 7:30 p. m. Rev. R. N. Ives accepted the call to the New Milford church and will be installed on May 22.

The following members were nominated for representatives to the general assembly: E. P. Morse, F. Von King, D. T. Smyth, F. C. Jones, J. P. Moffat, William Jessup, W. R. Harshaw, H. J. Crane, William A. Nordt, James McLeod, and William D. Crockett.

Messrs. Nordt, Jessup, Morse and Von King having received the majority vote, were declared the regularly elected delegates. Revs. Moffat, McLeod, Crockett and Jones were elected alternates.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to consider the affairs of the Summer avenue church made their report and the Presbytery granted assistance to Rev. Frank J. Milman, who is supplying the pulpit.

Before the close of the afternoon session a lengthy discussion was entered into in reference to baptism, which brought forth much argument from many of the members.

EVENING SESSION.
A fair-sized audience assembled at the church last evening at the second popular meeting of the Presbytery. Rev. P. H. Brooks, D. D., of Wilkes-Barre, presided, and the Scripture lesson was read by Rev. F. C. Jones, of Ulster, Pa. Prayer was offered by Rev. William H. Peckover, of Meshoppen. Rev. Charles E. Robinson, D. D., of the Second Presbyterian church, presented the cause of foreign missions in an able manner. He also spoke of the Ecumenical conference which will open in New York on Saturday next.

Dr. Robinson said the conference promises to be the greatest that has ever been held and he advised all church workers to keep posted with reference to the meetings. He prefaced his remarks on foreign missions with the report of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society in the Lackawanna Presbytery, which showed substantial increases in contributions. Relative to missions, the doctor said any church worker who can be indifferent to this question is beyond comprehension, and no one can bear the banner of the cross but a converted soul.

Rev. W. H. Swift, of Honesdale, chairman of the permanent committee on synodical sustenance, made an eloquent plea in behalf of this cause and among other things said that no man has the proper missionary spirit who is not concerned in the cause of home as well as foreign missions. There is equal opportunity for glorifying God in both fields. He spoke in behalf of the country churches where the seed is sown and from which the city churches reap the harvest.

MISSIONARY WORK.
Rev. S. C. Logan, D. D., who has labored incessantly among the foreign speaking people, spoke of the work being done among them, and Rev. Leonardo D'Anna, one of the missionaries, also spoke along that line. The other speakers were Rev. Antonio Milinski and Rev. Julius Yamboski, who referred to the Christianizing of the Italians and Magyars in the surrounding towns.

The final session of the Presbytery will be held today. The devotional exercise will begin at 8:30 o'clock this morning.

GOING TO INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

THOMAS CONTINUES THE BRIBERY CASES

ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY DECLINED TO TRY THEM.

Counsel for Mr. Fellows Wanted to Go to Trial—Mr. Maloney Did Not Answer—Alleged Anarchists Enter a Plea of Guilty and Then Withdraw It—Priest Acts as Interpreter—Judge Kelly Conducts His First Trial—Heartless Robbers Go Free Because Victim Dies.

The bribery cases against ex-Solec Councilman Horatio T. Fellows and E. J. Maloney, superintendent of the Central Pennsylvania Telephone and Supply company, will not be heard at this term of court, Assistant District Attorney Thomas, exercising his prerogative of continuing a case, peremptorily, at least once, but both trials over to the next session, which begins on the first Monday in June.

Attorneys Joseph O'Brien, John F. Scragg and M. A. McGinley, counsel for Mr. Fellows, protested against the continuance, saying they were in court with their witnesses at a great expense and inconvenience, ready and anxious to meet the commonwealth's charge, and that it would be imposing a great hardship on them to put them off without trial.

Mr. Thomas replied that it occurred of the district attorney's illness, the commonwealth was not prepared to go on, and he would have to insist on the continuance. Judge Archibald ruled that it was the district attorney's privilege to continue a case once, at least, without assigning a reason, and as Mr. Thomas insisted on the continuance it would have to be granted. Thereupon the clerk was instructed to mark the cases continued.

Mr. Maloney was not present to respond to his name when his case was called, and inquiry from the bench revealed the fact that he has not as yet given bail. The sheriff sent word to him in Williamsport of his indictment and of the issuance of a capias for his arrest, but nothing has been heard from the notification.

TO BE CALLED TODAY.
The cases against the others indicted as a result of the Lebow are down for today, and it is the intention of Assistant District Attorney Thomas to dispose of some of them. The defendants are said to be ready and anxious for trial.

Jean Guilhot and Francis Merlier, the alleged French anarchists, who shot Policemen Snyder and Keyes, of Dunmore, July 1, 1899, and who were captured in Montreal last January, entered a plea of guilty when arraigned to answer the charge of felonious wounding.

Their attorney, John M. Harris, submitted letters from two of Merlier's former employers in Amiens, France, setting forth that he was of good character, and comes from a very reputable family. The letters were sworn to by the mayor of Amiens, and were accompanied by translations made by Prof. E. Lamaze.

Mr. Harris asked that the defendants be given an opportunity of making a statement. They did the shooting, he said, but they did not do it in the manner in which the commonwealth's witnesses related it.

Rev. D. J. MacGoldrick was secured as an interpreter and through him the two young men gave their version of the occurrence. They were on their way home to Dunmore on the night in question, when they were suddenly arrested by two policemen, one of whom pointed a revolver at Merlier. The other, Guilhot, who is a very excitable, quick, nervous fellow, as was readily evident on his examination, whipped out a revolver and fired, not recognizing the policemen and supposing that they intended to shoot at his friend. The whole thing happened like a flash.
