DRAMA IN MEARS' HALL.

After many weeks of earnest prepartion the members of St. Patrick's Irish Catholic Benevolent union produced the three-act drama, "Not So Bad After All," in Mears' hall last evening, before a large and appreciative audience. The different characters were admirably sustained by John Mc-Donough, Daniel Regan, John Bourke, Joseph Gannon, Joseph Goff, James Conboy, Misses Nellie Cartin, Mary Gibbons, Mary McNulty, Julia Lamb, Elizabeth Thaynes and Mary Gaughan.

Particular mention should be made of the work of John McDonough, James Conboy and Miss Gaughan, who interpreted their respective parts in an able manner. Between the first and second acts Master Washburn sang 'On the Way to Madeline" and "The Tale of the Moth and the Flame" in fine voice. Several bours of dancing was enjoyed after the performance. Music was furnished by Mrs. Malott.
