OLYPHANT. An adjourned session of the council was held on Thursday night, all members being present ex-cept Mr. Reap. The tax levy for the ensuing year was made as follows: Five mills for general purposes, 3 mills for the payment of the in terest and principal on bonds of series B, 4 nulls for bonds series C, and 5 mills on the general indebtedness of the borough. The commission of the borough treasurer was placed at 3 per cent. all money paid out, and no commission en mey received. The treasurer formerly received per cent, on all money received, thus it will seen that council is economizing along that ine. The salary of the secretary was made the ame as formerly. The salaries of other borough imployes were adjusted as follows: Street comnissioner, 81.75 per day; laborers, $1.50; teams, $5.50; electrician, $60 per month; engineer, $60 per month; fireman, $1.50 per day; borough atorney, $25 per year; police officers, $45 per north. The sum of $2,000 was alloted for street arposes; $1,10° for police, $290 for board of ealth and $2,000 for the fire department. A ster was read from the borough attorney stat-
