DISCOVERY OF CAPTAIN WADS WORTH'S DISCHARGE.

New Presbyterian Church of Gulf Summit Freed from Debt by a Singular Scheme-County Sunday School Convention-He Got the Job-Flashes of News Here and There About Susquehanna County.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Susquehanna, Pa., April 22.-Abran Wadsworth, of Cascade, was a gal-lant veteran of the civil war. He fought for three years in the 177th Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteers, and came home first sergeant of his corps. He was proud of his discharge papers, and instead of framing them he car ried them upon his person, in a cellulold case. Three years ago the case and contents suddenly disappeared. and Abram mourned and could not be comforted. He felt the loss more severely because he needed the papers in order to secure a pension.

Last week three of Abram's cattle were attacked with tuberculosis, and they were killed. In exploring the stomach of one of the cows, to find further traces of disease, the veterinarian discovered, among other things, a pocket rule, a quantity of nails and buttons, part of a silver watch case, pocket compass, a harness buckle, a tiny hymn book, three thread spools, some tape, the handle of a shaving brush-and the celluloid case containing Wadsworth's discharge papers. Abram thinks he lost the case while baling hay in his barn. In some manner it fell into the mow, and it was fed to the cow. Today Abram is the happiest man in all the Cascade sec-

When Hon, Amos J. Cummings ar rived in New York after the civil war, he had a most excellent opportunity to be a wanderer. All he possessed be-sides a job lot of old clothes on his back was 20 cents' worth of postage stamps, badly glued together. He wore a pair of battered cavalry boots, and about three-quarters of a pair of pants, The place where the missing parts of the latter should have been were conealed by a sun-burned army overcoat. In this garb he climbed up to Horace Greeley's editorial den and asked Mr. Greeley for a job. He did not ask to be appointed to either the position of managing editor or foreman. He was willing to do anything.

"No place for you," squeaked Mr. Greeley, without turning from his desk to look at the applicant, "Don't you see I'm busy? G'way! scat! Damit!"

"But I tell you I must have a job." Mr. Greely turned around his revolving chair, and glaring at Cummings, said: "Must? For what reason, young man, do you say must?'

"For this reason," replied Amos, turning his back on Mr. Greeley, lifting the drapes of his old blue overcoat, and exhibiting the vacant places where the wild winds had whistled through his trousers. He got the job.

Dillon, the former Scranton first baseman, is a disappointment, according to the writers of that city.-Wilkes-Barre Record. That is indeed news. Frank Dillon in all the practice games played this season by the Pittsburg team, has or of the bright particular stars, and the Pirate scribes have been halling him as a Fred Tenney In the two regular games played he showed Manager Burnham and his collection of colls will this morning journey out to Athletic park, and there at 10 o'clock the first practice of the base ball season will take place. Nearly ail of the players arrived in town yesterday and Among those who were in town yesterday after soon were Pitcher Kennedy, who reported last week; Third Baseman Mike Doberty, who looks to be in the pink of condition; Center Fielder Dick Knox, Second Baseman J. J. O'Brien, who in view of his having played throughout last season with Pittsburg, will have to be dubbed "Pirate" O'Brien, to distinguished him from J. J. O'Brien, the shortstop, and W. H. Stoll-worthy. The last named player has just been signed and can play either the infield or out-field. He is from New Hampshire and comes slighly recommended as a fielder and intiman. The players are all making their headquarters at 519 Mulberry street. Saterday morning the uniforms for the team arrived and are on Washington avenue. They are orf gray ma-terial, with navy blue stockings. Manager Burn-ham renews his request to have the local play-ers turn out during the week and line up against his regulars. It will be excellent practice and it is more than likely that in case they show the proper speed, Manager Burnham will give some of them a chance on the nine.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, April 21.—The stock market took on an appearance of general liquidation before the conclusion of the Saturday short session. Stocks were thrown over in large blocks and the whole list broke badly, the general lange of prices of the most prominent active stocks falling to a level from 1 to 2 points under last night's close, in many instances the loss exceeds those figures. There was a sharp break in all the iron industrials on the opening transactions. It reached 4 points in Steel and Wire and nearly that in others. The general list gave way in sympathy but met with powerful support. The steel stocks rallied with the rest of the market on covering by shorts. But it soon became evident that the support accorded the market was simply to afford an opportunity for realizing. Liquidation set in on a large scale. Stocks which have been "bulled" had the heaviest work and the slump on account of speculative profit taking. Missouri Pacific and Baltimore and Onio were in that class, the former falling 3½ and the latter 2½. Declines reaching up to 2 points were numerous all through the railread and industrial list and in several stocks exceeded that. The bears were disposed to cover on the appearance of a favorable bank statement, but the raily renewed the pressure to liquidate and prices fell to the lowest. Among the steel stocks the extreme declines were: Steel and Wire 6½, Federal Steel 5, Steel Hoop, National Steel and Tennessee Coul 3, losses elsewhere in the group ranged from 2 to 2½. There were some spassmodic railies on the taking of quick profits by the bears but activity and general weakness continued up to the close. Total sales, 417,200 shares. The bond market has not kept, up to the tuble level of activity and general weakness continued up to the close. Total sales, 417,200 shares. Observations

Walking around the store with both eyes open, one sees many things of passing and noteworthy interest.

The main floor is abloom with Springtime richness. Here, there, everywhere, are the pretty things that add to attractive dressing and comfort during the heated

Have you observed the new Mercerized Foulards in the Dress Goods store? Quite a novelty-and exclusively here. Thirty-seven and one-half cents the yard, though they're worth 50 cents. But one of the many pretty things you'll see in this corner.

The captivating Millinery blinds us with its extravagant beauty. It is the charming spot of enthusiasm in the store, while the new things for dress and street wear, close by, vie with the hats in comeliness and

The Men's Tailoring store is a new adjunct to this business. Making Men's Clothes to order at legitimate prices is its mission-though it does not lose sight of the fact that style and cut and fit are worthy of first consideration.

A sea of Furniture covers the entire fourth floor, and what a busy place it is. There is nothing for the home, the office or the studio that does not find its place in the stock.

We're tired now. Let us to the Restaurant for dinner. Here is home-cooking of the most pronounced type; home-made pies, rich spring delicacies-everything to make the table attractive. Largely visited-Yes, because a quarter pays for the dinner.

We might interest you for hours in the store system-the painstaking efforts to serve you quickest and best; the energetic and prompt method of delivery; the freedom of the store to all comers at all times; the liberality of our money-back policy when satisfaction is not manifest; the careful and considerate attention to your wants, whatever they may be. But why all this, which you'll come to know as you know the store better.

PITTSTON.

Special to the Scranton Tribune Pittston, April 22.-The funeral of the late took place yesterday afternoon, interment being nade in littston countery. In the Luzerne county court yesterday, Stanley Fabules, of Duryea, who had been convicted or felonious wounding, having stabled his victim sixteen times, was sentenced to the full penalty of the law, $100 fine, the costs and seven years mprisonment. The judge, in passing said it was the most vicious case that has eve come under his notice.

The Pennsylvania Coal company has a force of men at work rebuilding the Yatesville dam, which burst owing to a flood several years ago, and has not been used since. On Saturday morning about 2 o'clock a mine cave occurred along the Lehigh Valley cut-off, opposite the Butler breaker. The west-bound track sunk a distance of two feet and the east bound track about fifteen inches, the tracks being affected for a distance of ninety feet. A short time after the cave occurred a fast west-bound freight came thundering along, and passed over the tracks at the cave, but, strange to say, the cars kept the rails. One of the brakemen was standing on the top of the freight cars a they passed over the aunken tracks, and, by the surging of the cars, was thrown to the ground. His scalp was bade cut. Trains were delayed for neveral hours while repairs were being made The jury in the case of Timothy Dougherty of West Pittston, yesterday returned a verdic of acquittal. Dougherty was accused of run nining a "speakeasy." At the trial he acted as his own attorney, cross-examined the common wealth's witnesses, testified in his own behalt wealth's witnesses, testified in his own behalf and made a half hour's closing speech to the jury. His defense was that he sold only cider and that the beer taken to the house was for the use of his boarders. His closing speech was of a humorous nature and evoked an almost continuous roar of laughter from those present during its crivery. William Newhart, or West Pittston, was called as a witness, but was not

The game was the most exciting one played on the grounds this season, Keystone playing an almost errorless game, but were outclassed in batting and base ranning. The batteries on both sides holding the hits down remarkably well. D. E. Nield, of Scranton, umpired the game, the store being 9 to 27.
