CARBONDALE.

DEATH OF MRS EDIC.

Paralysis caused the death of Mrs. Helen Edic Saturday morning, at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. L. Gollands, of Brooklyn street. She was born in England seventy three years ago, and when alout 4 years old came to this country with her parents, who located in Syracuse. In that city she married huspand, James C. Edic, who died in 1987. Lust October Mrs. Edic came here to live with her sister and since time has made many warm friends, who will sincerely regret her demiss. Deceased is mourned by these survivors: Mrs. J. L. Gollands, of this city: Mrs. E. J. Souls, of Providence. R. I.; R. S. Edic, of Brooklyn, N. Y. P. A. Edic, of Knoxbero, N. Y.; Clara Edic, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Chas, A., of Clear Lake, Iowa. The funeral will be held this morning. At 16 a.m. a short prayer service will be conducted by Lev. R. A. Sawyer at the home of her sister, No. 102 Brooklyn street. The body will be taken on the 11.31 Ontario and Western train to Utica, N. Y., for interment.

BILL OF EXTRAS AGAIN.

After scoring three failures to get a contractor to act as arbitrator on Mr. Nolan's bill of extras, the school board chance off the $10 in gold and the rescinded its resolution to settle by arbitration and now stands where it did at the start. THE SILK MILL SITE.

Subscriptions for the silk weaving mill, which it is proposed to locate in Carbondale are being made liberally. and the industry now seems to be assured. The most probable site is on Brooklyn street, that of the old Campbell pump house. It is on the street car line and convenient for shipping. A better choice is hard to imagine.
