DESCRIPTION OF PROPOSED FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Structure Will Be One of the Handsomest in Northeastern Pennsylvania-Corner Stone Will Be Laid Next Week-Marriage of Harry Jones and Miss Jessie Wicks. Caught a Large Trout-Heptasophs Will Entertain-Funeral Announcements and Other News Notes.

The corner stone of the new First Baptist church on South Main avenue will be laid with appropriate services some time next week, the date not having been decided upon as yet. The members of the church will meet tomorrow evening, when the executive board will complete the arrangements for the event and decide upon the date. Ministers from this city and adjacent places will participate in the exercises, and a special programme of addresses and singing will be carried out.

The foundation walls of the proposed edifice are nearly completed, and the building is expected to be one of the most imposing structures in Northeastern Pennsylvania. It will be Gothic in its general style of architecture. and will be built of stone and vitrified brick. The interior will be unique in its design, and the ceiling will rise in groins and curves to the base of a large dome, which will surmount the structure.

At this point a beautiful effect can be obtained by an art glass decoraion. The dome will admit a flood of light which passes through the art glass and is diffused over the auditorlum with softening effect. The fresco work in the auditorium will be exquisite. On the sides underneath the dome light deficitely finted panels and a deed-mellow-tinted border will encircle the entire room

The seating capacity will be ample enough to accommodate a large aud)- in white satin, and carried a bouence and antique pews will be furnished. All the floors and corridors will be mosaic, and the Sunday school room will open directly into the main room. This will be semi-circular 4in form. with a primary school department connected directly therewith.

The Sunday school apartments will include a mother's room and nursery. with ready access to all other parts. as the occasion may require. The ar-rangements will be such that the school superintendent from his position in front of the school will have before him and within range of voice and vision every class in the school. By a simple mechanical arrangement these apartments can all be thrown into one large room

The basement will contain the assembly room, dining room, kitchen,

An Exciting Runaway Last Night. Dance and Euchre of Y. M. I. Tomorrow Night-Other Notes.

Last evening, a little after 6 o'clock, as two men, whose names could not be learned, were driving home from work, their horse became frightened by a Washburn-Drinker street car, which was coming down Sport hill behind them. The driver was unable to control the horse and in front of Coleman's saloon it ran up on the raised platform, throwing one of the men out. The other jumped and escaped with less injury than his comrade,

The injured man was taken into E. A. Stevens' grocery store and later removed to the Exchange hotel. He complained of injuries to his back and later was taken to Scranton.

LETTERS TO MRS. PINKHAM FROM WOMEN RELIEVED OF SUFFERING

Mrs. George Osmun, of Belvidere, Warren Co., N. J., writes: "Suffering as I had from weakness, irregularities and backache for several years, a release from this suffering was a blessing. Oh! how I wish more suffering women would accept your kind offer and be relieved. There is no need for women to suffer. Mrs. Pinkham's advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will relieve them."

Mrs. Ida Peters, Milan, Tenn., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM-When I wrote to you the first time asking your advice I was a great sufferer. Menstruations were irregular, sometimes a week too soon and then a week or two late, and when they appeared were very profuse; great pain and tenderness in the bowels, pain in back and limbs, leucorrhoea all the time. I was weak and nervous and had no appetite. Burning and choking sensation in my throat. I received your reply and followed all your instructions and now I am cured. I owe my recovery all to Mrs. Pinkham's advice and her wonderful remedies."

I have now taken three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and feel like a different woman."

Mrs. H. A., 124 Cedar Street, Owosso, Mich., writes:

"Nearly three years ago I wrote to you asking advice in regard to my health. I was so miserable; suffered from painful menstruation and backache, was nervous, dizzy and faint. I received such a kind letter from you, telling me just what to do. I followed your advice and I now am recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege-Compound. I thank for this pain destroyer."

ENJOYABLE CONCERT GIVEN BY JUNGER MAENNERCHOR.

Night by Music Lovers-The Maenerchor Boys Sang Several Selections Including One of the Songs They Will Sing at the Brooklyn Saengerfest-Lively Ten Round Bout Last Night at Scranton Athletic Club-Flashlight Party.

GATHERED IN

Germania hall was last night crowded to the doors by the large audience which was present to listen to the eighth annual concert of the Junger Maennerchor. When the first number of the very interesting programme was rendered, there was very little standing room left. The first number on the programme was a selection by Schmidt's orchestra, which was followed by a song, entitled "Im Lager der Bauern," rendered by the Junger Maennerchor. Miss Maude Gschwindt then recited "Good-night, Papa," and was loudly applauded. Alfred Gutheinz then rendered "My Dream of You," in his rich tenor voice, and responded to an encore, after which the Junger Maennerchor sang "Das Alte Muetterchen," one of the concert pieces which they will render at the Brooklyn Saengerfest.

A duct, entitled "Life's Dream Is O'er," was next given by Miss Anna and Charles Berghauser who were also greeted with tremendous applause. A quartette, which was composed of Gus Reppert, Fred Heinz, Otto Robinson and Charles G. Lewert, then sang a pleasing composition, entitled "Du Bist Mein Traum in Stiller Nacht. The next number was a duct, which was sung by William Burke and William Lynett in an acceptable manner. after which the Junger Maennerchor rendered "Mutterliche" and "Der Barde," and were followed by William Lynott with a baritone solo. Misses Maude and May Gschwindt then sang "When Papa Comes Home Tonight." and the Junger Maennerchor followed with a song, entitled "In Einer Sturmnacht.

A selection by Schmidt's orchestra concluded this most interesting programme, and was enjoyed by all. A dance followed, and the Macnnerchor boys and their friends tripped the light fantastic until an early morning hour. The affair was well arranged, and reflects much credit on the young men in charge. A handsome sum was realized, which will be added to the expense fund for the Brooklyn Saengerfest. The committee of arrangements was emposed of the following: Chairman,

Alfred Gutheinz; Charles Scheuch, Fred Schunk, Abe Weichel and Joseph Zang. LIVELY TEN-ROUND BOUT. A "corking good" ten-round bout was pulled off last night in the hali
