Scranton Lined Up Against a Team of Local Amateurs.

Before a large number of enthusies tic rooters, Manager Burnham's Scranton players yesterday afternoon lined up against a picked nine of amateurs and played a five inning game.

The day was an ideal one for base ball, and as a result the regulars played a clean, snappy game. Leigh, the young amateur from Ashley, was in the box and pitched in good form. holding the scrub players down to three hits and striking out seven men. The playing of Second Baseman Do-herty, of the Yanigans, was the fea-ture of their work. In his two times at bat, he made two 2-base hits. ## Scranton Wholesale Market.

Jonas Long's Sons

THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL AND PURITAN FOR MAY.

An Interesting Statement To Women Concerning Dress Goods

Today's announcement is directed particularly to those who are looking for the highest class of novelties in Dress Goods. It gives us pleasure to particularize concerning our arrangement with the largest and finest importing house in America, for the display of their novelty fabrics here-an arrangement that is in force in no other stores in America, save one in New York. An arrangement that gives us, without question, the biggest and most beautiful line of foreign dress materials, in any store in America, west of the Hudson river. The collection includes:

All Silk Grenadines, Camel's Hair Grenadines, Nun's Veiling. Sewing Silk Grenadines, Silk and Wool Grenadines, Silk and Wool Etamines, French Batiste. Fancy Suitings.

We have never seen so many or so charming a number of fabrics as are here represented. Our facilities en able you to choose for waist, skirt or dress lengths as pleases you best. Women who would be ultra-fashionable, who search the markets of the world for the richest and best, will find here an assortment that has no peer in this or any other country.

Priced from $1.25 to $8 Yard.

Another Great Sale of Sheet Music

The Big Store, with its matchless resources for big outlets of merchandise, once more presents an offering that has no parallel in the annals of trade. It shall be the greatest sale of its kind that this establishment has ever known. We place before the music lovers of this city and vicinity the magnificent stock

From the Warerooms of J. W. Guernsey

Representing his vast and carefully selected collection. It is the intention of Mr. Guernsey to devote all his energies to the sale of Pianos and Organs, with which business he has been identified for so many years. We have taken from him this splendid assortment of the best of Sheet Music and Portfolios, and it is all

To Be Sold Saturday and Monday.

There shall be no limit to the quantities you may buy. Not a copy of the stock is to be held in reserve. Every dollar's worth of it will be offered for sale-no matter whether it is worth 50 cents, 75 cents or one dollar-all at the uniform price of

On Monday night, however, it will be withdrawn from sale: We give you two days to pluck the choice bargain plums in music. There is an abundance of the classical in both vocal and instrumental; a goodly quantity of new music, and many of the popular selections-though the stock leans more to the higher class of music than to the present craze.
