DEMANDS PAY FOR PLAYING CHECKERS

ISAAC SIDEBOTTOM'S ODD CLAIM AGAINST SHAFER ESTATE.

Wants Court to Grant Him Remuneration for Having Spent His Time in Catering to an Old Man's Entertainment by Acting as His Opponent in Checkers—Poor Board Quo Warranto Argued—Eight More Divorces Granted—Other Doings of the Day in Court.

Court was yesterday asked to grant a man pay for playing checkers. The request was presented in the exceptions to the report of the auditor in the estate of John Shafer, deceased, late of Dunmore, which came up for argument court before Judges Archibald, Edwards and Kelly. Shafer was an aged man who died two years ago leaving an estate that inventoried at $25,000. His nearest heirs are a half-sister and half-brother in this country, and the most exacting of other half-sister living in Germany. During the last three and a half years of Shafer's life he was looked after to some extent by Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Sidebottom, who with Shafer occupied a double house in Dunmore, belonging to the estate of Shafer. The Sidebottoms put in a claim of $1,800 for board and care given the decedent. Mrs. Sidebottom claimed $25 a month for doing his housekeeping, and Mr. Sidebottom demanded like remuneration for certain services he regularly performed, the most exacting of which was the playing of checkers with the old man almost every day for hours and hours at a stretch. He found no amusement in it, he avers, and did it solely for the old man's entertainment and consolation. He also went to the house after the meal and on several occasions ran other errands for him. He did no other work during the three and a half years the old man lived with them.

CLAIM REJECTED.
Colonel F. L. Hitchcock, the auditor, refused to allow the claim of the Sidebottoms and they took an appeal. Colonel Hitchcock argues the case in support of the case and Attorney T. J. Wells and S. B. Price appeared in support of the auditor's report. It developed in the argument that the law would warrant an allowance being made for Sidebottom's checker playing on the score of it being a gratuity provided for the old man's well being, but the defense contended it was not "clearly, explicitly and positively" proven as the law demands, that the service was performed. The whole claim of the Sidebottoms was disallowed on the score of it being an unmentioned gratuity. They could not testify in the case to the agreement alleged to have been made between them and the old man because of the statute sealing the lips of the surviving party to a contract. On this account the case could not go to a jury. Isolated instances of their service, having to rely for their evidence on parties who occasionally visited the house. An interesting opinion is expected from one of the judges.

When the case of the commonwealth against Sidebottom and others came up for argument on the plea of not guilty, Judge Dickert came up for argument on the answer of the respondent and the plaintiff's demurrer. Judge Edwards suggested that the case be settled definitely in all its features, and after some discussion, it was ordered that the respondent make specific answer within ten days, and that the case be tried before a jury without a jury.

THOUGHT THEY WERE TWINS.

Wilkes-Barre Wanted to Establish Relationship Between Coyne's.
Two men named Coyne, one from Scranton and the other from New York, registered at the Hotel Sterling yesterday afternoon. The Scranton man registered and asked about his friend from New York, the other Coyne. The clerk was unable to give the desired information and a look of disappointment overcast his handsome face, but he said no more, but got on the elevator and went to his room. Several minutes later another man ascended in and registered. "That's the same fellow who registered a few minutes before," said a bystander.

The clerk, Mr. Hamlin, winked his eye, but the man made the declaration so loud that Coyne from New York heard him. The latter turned around with a smiling face and said: "Sir, if you can show me a man who resembles me so closely, I will buy the cigars for the crowd." "How can I?" said the other, "when you are the same man. But I will tell you what I'll do. If you are not the Coyne who just registered I'll—!"—just then the man from Scranton made his appearance, walked up to Coyne from New York, shook hands and they began to converse about their previous meeting, which occurred some years ago. All this time the man who wanted to do the betting was staring in bewilderment. At last he interposed by saying: "Gentlemen, pardon me, but are you twin brothers?" "No sir," replied the New York man, "we are not."

"Then you must be brothers?" "Wrong again," said the Scranton man. "We are not even relatives."

"Well, by love, you are handsome fellows, anyway. I guess the cigars are on me," Wilkes-Barre now said.

The men referred to in the above are William Coyne, of this city, and Joseph Coyne, of "The Girl in the Harem" company, which was here last night.

ACCUSED OF NON-SUPPORT.

Joseph Heller, of 155 Seventh street, was arranged before Alderman Kesson last night charged with malicious mischief and non-support by his wife. Mrs. Flora Heller, who was committed to the county jail for the time being. It is probable, however, that the case will be amicably settled. Mrs. Heller claimed that for the past few weeks her husband has been drinking heavily and contributing nothing to the support of the family.

In addition, she said, he recently took a horse and pair of shoes belonging to her and willfully destroyed them. Heller admitted that he had been drinking heavily, but denied having in any way ill-treated his wife or family.

Wants Court to Grant Him Remuneration for Having Spent His Time in Catering to an Old Man's Entertainment by Acting as His Opponent in Checkers—Poor Board Quo Warranto Argued—Eight More Divorces Granted—Other Doings of the Day in Court.

Court was yesterday asked to grant a man pay for playing checkers. Shafer was an aged man who died two years ago leaving an estate that inventoried at $25,000. He did no other work during the three and a half years the old man lived with them.

CLAIM REJECTED.
Colonel F. L. Hitchcock, the auditor, refused to allow the claim of the Sidebottoms and they took an appeal. Colonel Hitchcock argues the case in support of the case and Attorney T. J. Wells and S. B. Price appeared in support of the auditor's report. It developed in the argument that the law would warrant an allowance being made for Sidebottom's checker playing on the score of it being a gratuity provided for the old man's well being, but the defense contended it was not "clearly, explicitly and positively" proven as the law demands, that the service was performed. The whole claim of the Sidebottoms was disallowed on the score of it being an unmentioned gratuity. They could not testify in the case to the agreement alleged to have been made between them and the old man because of the statute sealing the lips of the surviving party to a contract. On this account the case could not go to a jury. Isolated instances of their service, having to rely for their evidence on parties who occasionally visited the house. An interesting opinion is expected from one of the judges.

When the case of the commonwealth against Sidebottom and others came up for argument on the plea of not guilty, Judge Dickert came up for argument on the answer of the respondent and the plaintiff's demurrer. Judge Edwards suggested that the case be settled definitely in all its features, and after some discussion, it was ordered that the respondent make specific answer within ten days, and that the case be tried before a jury without a jury.

QUESTION TO BE DETERMINED.

The question now to be determined is whether or not Mr. Murphy was elected. Judge Edwards, in the previous case, decided that poor directors should be elected by the people, instead of being appointed by the president. He also, threw out tentatively the idea of making specific answer in which to hold an election. The supreme court sustained this finding.

Mr. Murphy was balloted for in 1885 in the Eleventh, Twelfth, Nineteenth and Twentieth wards, and again in the spring election of 1899. He was the only candidate. Judge Edwards was not called upon to decide whether or not Mr. Murphy was elected, but incidentally he called attention to the fact that the old South ward of Scranton, from which Mr. Murphy claimed to be elected, and the Eleventh, Twelfth, Nineteenth and Twentieth wards, in which he was balloted for, might not be the same identical territory.

The respondent alleges that the Eleventh ward was taken out of the old South ward and incorporated in the middle ward when Scranton borough was divided into three wards. It is also claimed that new territory was added to the remaining portion of the old South ward.

This is the matter that is to be treated in the specific answer which the respondent is ordered to file. The relation will make reference to this and on that issue the court will make a decision. The relation claims that if he can show he received even one vote from any elector living anywhere within the limits of what was formerly the old South ward he was elected. Judge Edwards said that if Mr. Murphy will be given Mr. Dickert's seat.

I. H. Burns and Mr. Murphy appeared for the relator, and John P. Scragg for the respondent.

OTHER CASES.

Other cases were dealt with as follows: Rule Absolute—Commonwealth against Frank Holgate, rule to commit forfeiture; commonwealth against John Benham and others, rule to remit costs. Rule Discharged—Commonwealth against Annie Renwick, rule to remit forfeiture. Argued—Matter of the petition to re-open the commonwealth against Anthony Gillespie, rule to re-open; matter of the petition to re-open the commonwealth against John P. Scragg, rule to re-open; matter of the estate of Philip Engle, exceptions to auditor's report; William Stoddard against Old Forge school district, rule for judgment; W. M. Kelly against John & Brown, demurrer; matter of the petition to make Roaring Brook turnpike free from tolls within Dunmore borough, exceptions to report; matter of the estate of Morgan H. Williams, rule for lien. Continued—Matter of the estate of Mary Regan and others, exceptions to auditor's report. Submitted—Commonwealth against John Keefe, rule to remit forfeiture; matter of the estate of Ross McLean, James H. Byrne, Harriet Davis, Henry Hartwick and Editha Slocum; rule for discharge of executor; commonwealth against T. F. Nelson, rule to remit forfeiture.

BIDS BEING PREPARED.

Work Will Be Begun in Two Weeks by New 'Phone Company.
General Manager Wayland, of the Lackawanna Telephone company, has requested several prominent contractors in the city to prepare bids for the installation of the company's plant in the city. It is expected that these bids will be received in a few days and that work will be commenced within two weeks.

City Engineer Phillips has examined and passed upon the plans prepared by A. B. Dunning and showing the streets under which the conduits will be placed. Enough of the conduits have been received to make a fairly good start and more have been ordered as have been poles, cross beams, cables and other necessary material.

The contractors who have the work of installation will not be expected to put the pavement in repair after the work is done. The company has decided to look after this part of the work, which must be done in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance granting them the franchise.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS DANCE.

Large Gathering at Their Club House on Washington Avenue.
The Knights of Columbus gave their first dance in their new club house, on Washington avenue, last night, and a most delightful and charming evening was spent by over 200 of the members and their friends.

The club rooms were especially decorated for the occasion and their ordinary attractiveness was much enhanced as a result. The handsome decorations, the pretty women with their dainty evening gowns and the multitude of lights presented a most fascinating picture.

The affair was under the management of the house committee, which consists of the following members: T. J. Duggan, Thomas Bushnell, T. P. Duffy, Dr. W. M. Reedy and F. J. McCawley.

Those present from out of town were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Miss Anna Barrett and Mrs. J. C. Conroy, of Carbondale; John A. Foote and Katherine Foote, of Archbald; the Misses Stella and Hannah Maghan, of Binghamton; Dr. W. J. Ingraham and J. H. Loughran, of Hazleton; Gertrude H. Miller, of Lancaster; Robert O'Connell, of Honesdale; Frank McGee, of Philadelphia; T. F. O'Connor, of Northampton, Mass.; P. P. Gallagher, of Austin Power, William M. Fay, P. H. Kelly, Frank Lavin, W. U. Ford and John O. Mangin, of Pittston; Miss Agnes Lenahan, Miss Annie Campbell, J. C. Kenney, Mrs. James Kelly, Charles B. Lyman, and Charles Bowman, of Wilkes-Barre; Miss Elizabeth Jordan, Miss Annie Jordan, Miss Kate Regan, Miss Lizzie McGinty and Miss Mary McGinty, of Olyphant.

Those present from this city were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Judge, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Conroy, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swift, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Wymis, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Loughran, Mrs. E. M. Lyman, Mrs. C. E. C. Burke, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roche, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Manley, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Corcoran, Mrs. Joseph Kelly, Mrs. M. J. Walsh, Mrs. Martin Gibbons, Mrs. P. Horan, Mrs. P. J. Barrett, Mrs. J. W. Conroy, Mrs. Sullivan and Mrs. Kilglin.

The Misses Annie Coligan, Anna Barrett, Kate McCawley, B. O'Hara, Mary O'Malley, Mary McCreary, Mame Niland, Elizabeth McManara, Miss Horan, Miss Lavin, Miss Martin, Miss P. J. Barrett, Miss M. J. Walsh, Mrs. P. J. Barrett, Mrs. J. W. Conroy, Mrs. Sullivan and Mrs. Kilglin.

Another Suit by Gilhool.

CREATED DISTURBANCE.
Chickens Got Away from Woman on Street Car.
An amusing incident occurred last night on an inbound Providence street car. A stout woman entered the car in North Scranton, carrying a large basket. She looked a trifle perturbed as to the contents of it and it soon became apparent that she had reason to be so.

A series of mysteriously cluck-clucking noises emerged from the basket, and when the caron street crossing was reached the cover suddenly flew up and two large and frightened looking hens flew out and started on a journey through the car. They could not be captured for some time and created some little disturbance in the crowded car. At last, at Spruce street, they were caught, tucked away in the basket and together with their owner left the car.

WARNED.
