EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

REV. J. B. SWEET RESUMES HIS PASTORAL WORK.

Inaugurated a New Departure at Yesterday's Services - Chicken Thieves Are at Work Again-Arrangements for D. I. Phillips' Funeral-E. B. Whitman Died Suddenly in Elk County-Dewey Day Eisteddfed-Burial of Mrs. Reader. Other News Notes and Personals.

Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, who has been returned to his present charge for another year, resumed his pastoral duties yesterday and occupled the pulpit of his church at both services. Instead of adhering to the usual custom of preaching, he made a new departure yesterday, in reading from the word of God in order that his parishioners might know more of the precious word. The line of thought spoken on at the evening service was in knowing more of God's work, in learning to fear him and in living in obedience to His teachings. The talks were instructive, helpful and interesting. The repeat the Easter music next Sunday,

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The funeral of the late Bycon Flynn, who died Saturda; at his home, 228 Grant avenue, will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Services at St. Patrick's church. Interment will be made in the Cathedral compacte Services over the remains of the late Frederick Simon will be conducted tais afternoon at 2.30 o'clock in the Chest-Street German Presbyterian church. Burial will be made in 150 Pittston avenue cemetery.

The funeral of the late Mrs. John Bechtold will be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the Miffin Avenue Lutheran church. Interment will be made in Dunmore cemetery.

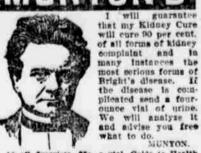

The funeral services over the remains of the late T. Citcenin Evans will be held at the house, on South Bromley avenue, this morning. The body will be taken to Nanticoke at 1.55 p. m for

PLEASANT SURPRISE PARTY. Miss Sallie McCracken, of South Hyde Park avenue, was tendered a very pleasant birthday surprise party last Friday evening. A most enjoyab's time was had by all, diversions incldent to such occasions being indulged in. Refreshments were served, after which the guests departed, wishing Miss McCracken many happy birth-

Those present were Misses Hattle

Dufour's French Tar Has Won Success. It Cures Your Cold And Gives You Rest.

MUNYON'S

te all druggists, 25c. s vial. Guide to Health I medical advice free, 1505 Arch at Phila.

Kresge, May Bunnell, Jessie Beavers, Hattie McCracken and Mrs. J. F. Dean, Mr. Milton Moore, Ralph Waring, Harry Caryl, George Evans, Fred Warner, Charles Linker, Ben Eynon, Tone Eynon, Arthur Walter, Walter James, Jasper Jones, Ray Fuhrman, Samuel McCracken, Richard Dean, Ed Davis and Roy McCracken.

DEWEY DAY EISTEDDFOD.

to be held at the First Welsh Baptist church tomorrow, are notified that the choir rendered special music and will preliminary contest on the children's repeat the Easter music next Sunday, recitation, "Papa's Letter," will be held in the basement of the church at 12.45 p. m. on Tuesday, and the preliminary contest on the children's solo, No Hope in Jesus," will take place at o'clock in the new lecture room in the basement of the church. As there are a large number of entries in the competitions, all competitors are expected to be present when their names are called, otherwise they will not be permitted to take part in the competi-

The preliminaries on the other competitive numbers will be announced luring the afternoon session. The Rev. D. C. Edwards, of Taylor, for reasons satisfactory to the committee, has withdrawn from adjudicating on the essays, and the Rev. D. Jones, ot the First Welsh Congregational church, has been appointed in his stead.

Two sessions of the eisteddfod will be held, afternoon at 2 o'clock and evening at 7 o'clock. Both sessions will commence promptly on time.

Admission to two sessions will 5 cents; one session, 25 cents.

CHICKEN THIEVES AT WORK. The chicken thief is again plying his nefarious work in this vicinity, and several henneries have been visited within the past week. A pair of bantams were stolen from John L. Jenkins Saturday night at the corner of Jackson street and Rebecca avenue. The premises of William Gray, in Fellows' patch, were also visited and several valuable chickens stolen.

DIED AWAY FROM HOME.

The family of E. B. Whitman, residing at 11812 South Rebecca avenue, received a telegram from a relative in St. Mary's, Elk county, Pa., last evening, announcing that Mr. Whitman died suddenly yesterday. He left here FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS. about three weeks ago to necept a

A Grand May Day Opening

On Tuesday, May 1st, we will have ready for your inspection a matchless line of Parasols, Coaching Umbrellas, Sun Shades, Mourning and Fancy Umbrellas. Everything possible has been done to make pany will conduct a rehearsal. this interesting event worthy your attention, and in respectfully asking the favor of a call on Tuesday, or any other day during the week which may prove more convenient, we do so with the fullest assurance that you will not go away disappointed for a finer display of Novelties and Standard Styles in Farasols, Coaching Umbrellas, Etc.

Has been but rarely seen. You can get an inkling of what they're like from a glance at our windows, but if you want to see the nobbiest styles and exclusive novelties you'd better step inside. These are show days and looking is all that's expected of you.

A Dozen Ideas for Your Guidance:

1-Plain and Figured Coaching | No. Umbrellas of every line and color. Immense variety.

No. 2-Fine White Maline and Chiffon trimmed sunshades. New-

3-Plain White Silk Taffeta Coaching Umbrellas. Covers can be removed and cleaned.

4-Fine White Silk Parasols, with lace ruffles, newest handles

No. 5-Fancy Sunshades in all colors, with bow knots and real sweel handles.

6-Changeable Silk Coaching Umbrellas, in rich color com-binations. Beautifully finished handles. A very serviceable

7-Mourning Umbrellas and Sunshades in plain and fancy styles, some really beautiful

8-Colored Chiffon Parasols in all shades, with the newest handles.

9-Black Silk Parasols, with 10-26-inch Umbrellas for ladies in all colors. Endless selection of pretty handles. 11-Children's Sunshades, sizes 10 to 18 inches, all colors and qualities up to really good 12-The assortment of sticks, styles and handles is beyond your conception unless you come and see them with your line at moderate cost. Parasol and Sun Shade Opening Day-Tuesday.

Globe Warehouse

position at that place, where the famly resided up to about a year ago. There is some mystery surrounding the death, in view of the fact that the family received a letter from him on Saturday, in which he stated that he was as well as usual. He is survived by his wife and six children When Well Known Scran-Further particulars are anxiously awaited by the family. ton People Tell It So Plainly.

FUNERAL OF D. L. PHILLIPS. The funeral of the late Daniel L Phillips will be conducted tomorrow afternoon. Services will be held at the house on South Hyde Park avenue ording to the Masonic ritual, and will be under the direction of Hyde Park lodge, No. 329. Members of that Morton, Grace Snow, Ethel Woodruk, 211, Improved order of Heptasophs, Sadie Coslett, Bessie McCracken, Pearl and Robert Morris ledge of Iverites will meet at their respective lodge reoms at 1 o'clock to attend the services. Interment will be made in the Washburn Street cemetery.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Anticipating the election of a deacon during the present week, the pastor, Rev. S. F. Mathews, preached a strong sermon, both scripturally and socially. on "The Office of a Deacon," last even-Competitors at the above eisteddfod, ing. It was a masterly discourse on so neglected a subject and well received by an attentive audience.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet in monthly business session at the homof Mr. A. B. Holmes this evening. A large attendance is desired.

FUNERAL OF MRS. READER.

Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, D. D., pasof the Jackson Street Baptist church, officiated at the funeral of the late Mrs. Ann Reader yesterday afternoon. The services were held at the house, 1019 Hampton street, and were attended by many relatives and friends f deceased.

The pall-bearers were R. Culman, D. Culman, D. Weatherhog, J. O. Evans, J. Howeil and R. Saulzer. Interment was made in Washburn street ceme-

NEWS NOTES AND PERSONALS.

John W. Colborn, of 609 Ninth street, is visiting in Ashley, his former home. A slight fire occurred Saturday evening in the dwelling house at 315 North Filmore avenue, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. John Jones. The damage amounted to about $100. The flames were extinguished by the chemicals.

One of the windows in the Star laundry, on Jackson street, was broken yesterday by boys throwing stones. William F. Green, of North Sumne avenue, has graduated from the New York College of Pharmacy and successfully passed the state board examinations.

N. C. Mayo and Mrs. Byron Sloat, of Swetland street, attended a funeral in Great Bend yesterday. Michael Mack of Ashland, Pa., is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Arabella Galagher, of Luzerne street. Reese Powell will leave today for Sterling, N. J., where he has secured a lucrative position. The gospel meeting at the Young Women's Christian association rooms yesterday afternoon was in charge of Miss Mattie Watkins.

The Harmony Athletic club will conduct a ball in Mears' hall this evening. The general committee having charge of the arrangements for the lavor demonstration tomorrow afternoon held a meeting in Co-operative hat last evening and completed the final details for the parade and the mass

A new coal washery will be built at the Briggs collery in the field it the car of the celm bank, with a capacity of 1,000 tons daily. The plans and specifications will be ready in a few days and work will soon be commenced on the structure.

A regular meeting of division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, will be held in Hari Gari hall tomorrow evening. Officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

Officers will be elected at the meeting of the Electric City Wheelmen tomorrow evening and the minstrel com-

Kalos Plegan will be repeated Mears' hall next Friday evening, and at the Auditorium, North Scranton,

The missionary society of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the home on Mrs. Shiffer, on South Hyde Park avenue, next Friday evening. Reports will be made and officers elected. Dr. David J. Jenkins, of Jackson street will leave today for Albany, N. Y., to attend the graduation exercises of the Albany Medical college, of which he is a graduate. Tom Beynon, the well known tenor singer, was the most successful applicant out of seventy for a position in one of the most influential churches in

New York City and has been engaged Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Holmes, of South Main avenue, have returned home from Elmira, where they attended the funeral of the late George Shoemaker, Miss Jennie Lewis, of South Main cenue, will entertain the members of the Plymouth church Christian Enleavor society at her home this even-

The street car running between Lackawanna and Rendham struck a wagon last evening and one of the ecupants was slightly injured. Edward Davies and sister, Edith, pent Sunday with friends in Pittston. Albert Davis, of South Main avenue, and Robert Bradley, of North Sumner avenue, visited friends in Pittston las:

evening The old folks' concert which was announced for next Thursday evening at corded chiffon ruffles in various the Plymouth Congregational church has been postponed for two weeks. The participants will meet for rehearsal in the church Wednesday evening. The Smoky Hollow band will rehearse the same evening.

> Pea Coal $1.25 a Ton Delivered to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to J. T. Fiarkey, 1914 Cedar ave. 'Phone 6683

SOUTH SCRANTON.

The members of the Junger Maennerchor held a well-attended meeting yesterday afternoon and rehearsed the prize song and concert pieces which they will render at the Brooklyn Saengerfest in June. A letter was received from Arthur Klaasen, director of the Saengerfest, stating that he would be in Scranton on Wednesday, May 23, for the purpose of inspecting the singing qualities of the organization.

The funeral of Henry, the young sor Mr. and Mrs. William Barnikow took place on Saturday afternoon from the family residence, 1220 Crown ave nue. Funeral services were conducted

HAPPENINGS OF

When public endorsement is made the house on South Hyde Park avenue at 2 o'clock, and at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church at 2.30 o'clock. Rev. John J. Moffet, D. D., will officiate.

The funeral will be conducted according to the Masonic ritual, and street, painter by trade, says: "Five years ago I took a severe cold, which settled in my bladder. Even after my order and of West Side conclave, No. kidneys troubled me a great deal. I inproved order of Heptasophs, used many different remedies and took and Robert Morris ledge of Iverites medicine from a doctor, who pronounced my trouble entarrh of nounced my trouble catarrh of the bladder, but I got little if any relief. My condition was continually growing worse and there was a constant dull pain across my back when sitting down or on getting up and turning about the pain became very sharp. I had to work often for hours in a stooping position and if I straightened up my back felt as thought it would snap in position and if I straightened up my back felt as thought it would snap in two. The kidney secretions were irregular, of a high color and a disagreeable odor, and accompanied by too frequent action. I was finally laid up, unable to do any work. At this time a friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me. I had not much faith in them, but I went to Matthews Brothers' drug store and got a box. Brothers' drug store and got a box. I received so much benefit from this that I continued the treatment until

> For sale by all dealers, Price, 50 cents, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., Sole Agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

tor of Zion Lutheran church, and interment was made in the Washington evenue cemetery.

This evening, at Athletic hall, Camp 30, Patriotic Order Sons of America. will celebrate its eleventh anniversary with a banquet and social. It is expected that several good speakers will be present, and a pleasant evening is anticipated.

Yesterday afternoon the remains of Mary, the eighteen-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Janssen, of 926 Prospect avenue, who died on Friday night, were interred in the German Catholic cemetery at No. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Peter Christ.

Rudolph Schafer, of Alder street, left on Saturday for Sparrow Point, Md. George Truehan, who was so suddenly called home by the death of his brother last week, will return to Philadelphia today to resume his studies at the Philadelphia Dental college.

GREEN RIDGE.

The closing exercises of the Green Ridge Industrial school were held in the Library building Saturday afternoon and were exceedingly interesting. The mothers of the scholars were prosent by invitation and enjoyed the entertainment, which consisted of singing and recitations by the pupils, an kindergarten class, which is in charge of the Misses Dimmick, and the awarding of prizes by the president, Mrs. Preston Robinson, after which ice cream and cake were served. The prizes were a beautifully furnished work basket for the pupil making the greatest progress; a silver thimble for the best piece of patchwork: dressed doll for the neatest doll clothes, and a dress pattern for the pupil making the neatest shirt waist. The funeral of the late Frank Milligan was held on Saturday morning from St. Paul's church, Rev. W. J. were as follows: Messrs, William Ginger, William Gallagher, Robert Taylor, Jeremiah Ryan, Edward Victory made in the Cathedral cemetery.

and Charles Beebe. Interment was Mrs. H. T. Wilkins will leave today for a visit with her parents Nicholson,

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lisk, of Dicksor avenue, are rejoicing over the arrival at their home of a fine baby boy.

NORTH SCRANTON

REV. G. A. CURE PREACHES HIS FIRST SERMON.

The New Pastor of the Providence Methodist Episcopal Church Formally Takes Charge of That Congregation-He Was Introduced by the Retiring Pastor and Spoke on "Patience"-Funeral of the Late Bryant Entertain-Other Notes.

The Rev. G. A. Cure, the new pastor The Rev. G. A. Cure, the new paster the Providence Methodist Episcopal Wood yesterday. Mr. James Williams, of Wilkeschurch, preached his first sermon yes- Barre, was the guest of friends in town terday morning in the church, to a very large congregation. The retiring yesterday. pastor, Rev. William Edgar, was present and introduced Rev. Mr. Cure to the congregation. The church announcements for the week and the Scripture lesson were read by Mr. Edgar. Prayer was then offered by street, passed away on Saturday evening, after Rev. Cure, after which the choir, unsang "Awake, Awake, Cousins Awake," Mrs. Cousins singing the solo parts.

to have patience, which conquers always in the end, "We must be pa-tient with ourselves," said he, "or we cennot place full confidence in Jesus Christ and follow His teachings." Mr. Giadstone, he stated, first had faith in the people,

After the service, the new pastor was given the right hand of fellowship the farmers by a large number of the church members. In the evening he took his text from Gen. 1, 2.

PLEASANTLY ENTERTAINED, day evening, in honor of their guest. Miss Frances Carson, of Asbury Park, N. J. Music and the usual evening diversions were indulged in until a seawere served.

Those present were: Misses Elizabeth Warren, Anna Conway, Lizzie Caffrey, Mary Pecney, Clara Fester, Mame Carroll, Anna McLane, Kate O'Brien, Dalsy Bryant, Mamie Corwin, Messrs, S. J. Taylor, Henry Koch, Fred Thomas, John O'Brien, Lawrence Keegan, Francis McAndrew, Fred Speicher, John Grimes, John McCann, Harry Kelly, William Murphy, A. J.

Reilly and Martin McCann. The marriage of Edris Roberts to Miss Mary Jeffries, both of this end, was solemnized by Rev. R. J. Reese, pastor of the Puritan Congregational church, at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. John Gillespie, of Oak street. Thursday evening last. A brief reception followed, which was attended by the relatives only. The bridal party exhibition of the work done by the left immediately for New York city and other eastern points, where they will spend their honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts are both well known in this part of the city.

FUNERAL OF JOSEPH SWEETSER. The funeral of Joseph Sweetser, who died suddenly last Thursday afternoon, was held yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. The services were conducted in the Court Street Methodist Episcopal church, of which the deceased was an active member. The edifice was well filled with mourners and friends, Malone officiating. The pall-bearers and the many beautiful floral designs showed that the deceased was loved by a large circle of friends.

Rev. S. G. Lyman, pastor of the church, officiated. The pall-bearers were: W. S. Ward, E. C. Miller, Elijah Miller, John Reel, George Houser, George Hoffman.

Work on the long delayed North Main avenue pave will be commenced today by the Girard Construction company, and quite a jollification will be held this morning, when the first pick will be swung by Councilman Wade M.

MINOOKA.

Miss Alice Lynch, of Glen Falls, N. Cawley the past-week, has returned

Martin W. Cusick, the popular insurance agent of Main street, leaves Wednesday for Cleveland, O., to remain premanently. The Young Men's Institute held meeting yesterday afternoon range for a farewell social to be to dered Mr. Cusick, Tuesday evening. The entertainment this evening Joseph Sweetser Held Lesterday Miss Marie Gilgalion, of Scranton. The Afternoon-Mr. and Mrs. William programme promises to be a good one and should be well patronized. A social will follow the entertainment. Miss Mary Kane, of Pittston, was the guest of Miss Marion Gosart, of Green-

OBITUARY.

Peter Londorf, the young son of Mr. and Mcs Jacob Lonsdrof, of Cedar avenue and Hickory der the direction of Professor Haydn and 21 days. The decrased lad received first communion at St. Mary's church but a weel ago, and seemed to be in perfect health until Thursday, when he was taken ill, and aithough The sermon followed, the speaker gradually faited until on Saturday evening the taking "Patience" for his theme. He urged those who have dark hours when all the world seems dark and gloomy at 10 o'clock from the family residence, and interment will be usuale in the family of the family of the family residence. interment will be made in the German Catholic cometery at No. 5. At 9 o'clock this morning a song at St. Mary's German Catholic church

First Miller, one of the oldest and most Gradstone, he stated, first had faith in recent a residents of this city, passed away God, second in himself, and third in an Saturday energy, at her late home, corner noe and Willow street, aged 71 " I'm Miller, and ten grandchildren will be conducted at the house Warrann A. Nordi, and interment will

Mr. and Mrs. William Bryant, of South Street, he was a member of the count street, entertained a number of Grand Army of the Republic, Services will be count people at their home on Fri-held at the house this afternoon at 2 of clock and at the Chestnut Street German Prosbyter. in the Pittston avenue cemetery.

Miss Mary Shean died last night at the femily sonable hour, when refreshments home, 829 Ordand street. An ensembly say field only last week. The decease one sister. Bessie, and two tractions, delin and William. The tuneral will be held in 'technes day morning from St. Peter's cathedral, are interment will be made in Danville.

> ternoon. Interment will be made in Washbarr Margaret, the 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, of its South Van Buren avenue, died yesterday. The timeral will be held at the house tomorrow afternoon at 5.30

Interment in Washburn street come terday at her home, 725 Thirteenth street. She is survived by several adult children. The tuneral will occur at 2 o'clock Wesnesday af-

Aubrey, the 4-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs Thomas Staff, of 239 Quay avenue, died yes terday. The funeral services will be held at the house this afterneon at 3.70 o'clock. In terment will be made in Washburn street cem Yealon, of Sixth street, died yesterday. The inneral will take place today and will be private. Interment will be made in the Cathedral come-Priscilla Maddock, aged 3 years, died yeste outagious disease. Burial will be made in the er of Joseph MacGouldrick, of 225 Prospect av aue, died at an early hour this morning. WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK Don't give them ten or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 14 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

DYSPEPSIA; last seen in company of Mason's Yellow Tablets. Tablets found at any Drug Store. Dyspepsia gone not to return. 30 tablets cost 10 cents. Two or three give Instant relief. They're wonders

MASON'S HEALTH DEFENDERS. Yellow Tablets Cure Dyspepsia. Brown Tablets Cure Constipation. Red Tablets Cure Coughs. White Tablets Cure Sore Throat. No Calomel, Aloes, or Opium. so tablets to cents.

Atl Druggists or sent for price. H. T. MASON CHEM. Co. Mason's Cream of Olives Ointment Cures Catarrh and all Inflammation of Mucous Membrane and Skin. asc. a Box.

For sale in Scranton by the following rug stores:

MATTHEWS BROTHERS, Wholesale and Retail, 320 Lacks. Ave. M'GARRAH & THOMAS, 206 Lacks. ave.

AMUSEMENTS.

YCEUM THEATRE BURGUNDER & REIS. Lessers. H. R. LONG, Manager. WEDNESDAY, MAY 2. MR. JAMES YOUNG

Presenting the Superb Success,

A Great Cast; Superb Costumes; . Carload of Scenery.

Prices-25c., 50c., 75c., $1.00.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC, BURGUNDER & RBIS, Lessers. H. R. LONG, Manager.

ONE SOLID WEEK mencing Monday, April 30. The handsome and brilliant artiste, MISS JESSIE SAWTELLE Supported by the most powerful repertoire or-nization in the United States, known as the

SAWTELLE DRAMATIC CO., Presenting MONDAY EVENING,

THE VICTORIAN CROSS 6 Big Superialty Acts, 6. A car load of scenpeneing Tuesdayy, 19c, to all parts of the house,

BUY THE CENUINE

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. OF NOTE THE NAME.

 THE DIME DEPOSIT AND DISGOUNT BANK

WILL SELL YOU

The Nickel Savings Bank

Represented below, for $2.00 and return you $2.00 without deduction when the bank is returned in good condition.

Save the Dimes and the

Dollars Will Take

Care of Themselves.

Try

This Plan.

Here is a Chance

For

Everybody

to Own

a Bank and Make

Money From Its Use.