EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

A SUCCESSFUL PRODUCTION OF AMATEUR MINSTRELS.

Electric City Wheelmen Entertained a Crowded House at Mears' Hall. Lyceum Dramatic Club Organized by Prominent Young People-Stetter Property Changes Hands-Flag Raising Incident Misunderstood. Funerals Today and Tomorrow. Other Shorter Paragraphs of General Interest.

The popularity of the Electric City Wheelmen was fully attested last evening, when over eight hundred persons crowded into Mears' hall to witness the minstrel performance given by the club members. The affair was an instantaneous success, and was pronounced to be the best amateur production of the kind ever given in the city. The songs, jokes, choruses and specialties were un-to-date, and see eral of the numbers were repeatedly encored.

The stage was prettily decorated. and the participants sat in a semicircle, the end men being dressed in white duck trousers, blue serge coats and outing shirts, and the other members wearing club sweaters and knickerbockers, R. W. Luco, the interlocutor, was gorgeously attired in a white duck suit, with big red buttons and loud linen. On his left were the tambos, David Owens, Nelson Teets, Al. Davis, Ed. Morse and Emrys Joseph, and to the right of him sat the bone manipulators, Billy Williams, Gus Weinss, Charles Bertine, Fred, Weinss and Lester Morse The Lawrence band and orchestra under the direction of Prof. W. C. Ott. opened the performance with a medley, which was followed by the grand introductory overture, "The Wheelmen's Outing," and the opening chorus. Between the vocal numbers, the end men perpetrated many jokes, some of which were as follows:

Gus Weinss-Looking for acrobats in a crockery store-pitchers and tumblers.

Al. Davis-Establishing a water works in Kelly's patch to wash out Ben Johnson.

Lester Morse-Using ladies' corsets to clean the streets-take in the waste better.

Gus Weinss-A duck goes into water to liquidate his bill and comes out to make a run on the bank. G. A. Williams-Most wonderful thing of the present time-Welshmen living in Hyde Park without running for office.

Gus Weinss-Legislators at Harrisburg will have to use opera glasses at the next session-they can't see Farr.

Billy Williams-Controller's office like a dog kennel-full of Howells, Emrys Joseph sang "The Blue and the Gray" and received an encore, and Fred Weirss' rendition of "My Han-nah Lady" made a decided hit. He received a bunch of lettuce when re sponding to an encore. Charlis Bertine sang sweetly "My Lady Lou," and was presented with a bouquet of rhubarb by admiring friends, Sam Lewis, attired as a street car conductor, sang his transfer song in pleasstyle, and David Jones' rendition ing of "My Creole Sue," together with the E. C. W. trio, was well received. Albert Davies' gong, "I Won't B an Actor No More," made a hit and he was compelled to respond to an encore, and Charles Storms' rendition of "Mollie, I Love You," was one of the best things of the evening. Gus Weinss, as the English chapple, co ceived three encores and saug in exellent voice. The singing of "Blue Eyes," by David Owens, was also a leasing number and received wellnerit applause. But Billy Williams' coon song caught the crowd and it med as though they couldn't get nough of it.

The grand finate was a decided nov dty, introducing the entire company in a strong chorus, with band accompaniment. In the olio Walsh and Mc-Donough executed a double clog dance a a clover manner, the E. C. W. quartette sang a pleasing number, Master Walter Deckelnick rendered coon ongs and Ray Furman did a specialty. The parallel bar performance of Alert Henne and G. A. Williams was the best number in the olio, and Albert where they will reside. Davis sang "Rock-a-Bye Baby, I Love You," by request. The rendition was well received. A social was after-wards held and enloyed by many young people. It is quite probable that the performance will be repeated.

STREETS FORMALLY ACCEPTED.

Park Thoroughfares Now Belong to City.

The streets included in that part of Green Ridge known as North Park, were deeded to the city just seven years ago by the company which put the property on sale, but not until yes terday was this deed formally accepted by the city

The deed has been reposing all these years in a pigeon-hole in the desk of Secretary Fellows, of the school board, who was the secretary of Mayor Fellows when the deed was made, and who never turned it over to the city solicitor. Robert E. Hurley, who is interested in the land, learned of this a few days ago and yesterday saw that the deed was placed where it belongs.
