ED. MELLEDY LOCKED UP.

At 6 o'clock this morning a second alarm of fire came from Box 321 and the companies again found the rear part of the Valley house, on Dundaft street, ablaze. It took an hour's work to subdue the flames. Nearly all of the furniture was removed from the house, and what was not taken out was badly water soaked.

At 10.30 o'clock fire broke out again in the Valley house. Evidently the fire had not been fully extinguished in the morning, although Chief McNulty made a careful inspection of the building. Streams were turned on the blaze and it was put out. One man accused the firemen of not doing their duty, and another man connected with the hotel told them "You're no firemen, so you aint." The Hendrick company is also deserving of thanks for allowing people the use of their private box.

This afternoon about 1.30 o'clock an alarm of fire from Box 34 called the central city hose companies to the Valley house again, where another small blaze was found. It is not known how the fire started this time, as the firemen are sure they extinguished the blaze effectively the last time they were called.

Edward Melledy, owner of the building, was arrested at the fire about 2.45 o'clock this afternoon by Chief Me-Andrew as he was endeavoring to cut

ENDEAVOR CONVENTION.

The first semi-annual of the Lackawanna County Christian Endeavor union was held at the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon and evening. Thirty-five delegates were present. Max Lathrope delivered the address of welcome, to which J. W. Browning, esq., of Scranton, made a clever response. The evening session | G. Watkins; attorney for defense, John Richards; was opened by a song service, conducted by Professor A. P. Thomas. This was followed by devotional exercises, led by Rev. H. J. Whalen, and prayer by Rev. W. B. Grow. A telegraphic greeting from Philadelphia was read and an invitation to the delegates to attend the big convention in the Quaker City in November. Rev. C. E. Eberman, of Lancaster, who was greeted with the Chautauqua salute. delivered a very interesting address on the past and future of the organization, and the session closed with a consecration service.
