

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

NECESSITY FOR A LARGER HALL IS VERY APPARENT.

Mears' Building Not of Sufficient Size to Meet the Demands of Such Performances as the Wheelmen's Minstrels and Kalos Plegan-Ivorites Will Attend Grand Lodge in Vermont—New Pastor for Bellevue C. M. Church—Mrs. McConville Injured—Other Notes and Personals.

With the productions of Kalos Plegan and the Wheelmen's Outing the practical need of a larger hall and stage in West Scranton than Mears' is apparent. On three different nights inside of a week the hall has been packed to suffocation.

The stage is too small to admit of a large company on the boards, and the properties are limited to a few set pieces of scenery and a couple of drop curtains. There is a crying need of a building for such purposes and with a population of nearly fifty thousand people it is surprising that some enterprising man does not supply this need. The land is available in one of the best locations on Main avenue, and can be purchased at a reasonable price.

The half of the block on the westerly side, between Price street and Wymbs court, now occupied by several unsightly buildings, is on the market, and Dr. Allen stated to The Tribune man yesterday that he will dispose of the entire plot for a reasonable figure. He has not the time or money to devote to such an enterprise, but would be glad to see a suitable building erected there.

There is ample room for a block of stores, which could be easily rented, and the second story could be made suitable for a hall and theater, and the third story for lodge rooms or living apartments. If a large stage was built, an entrance could be gained on the Price street side without going through the main hall.

There was some talk recently of a theater for West Scranton, which ought to be a good investment, as nearly every performance in the central city houses are patronized by hundreds of West Scranton people.

GRAND LODGE OF IVORITES. The Grand Lodge of American True Ivorites will meet in Poutney, Vermont, next Tuesday, and delegates from West Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Plymouth, Taylor, Olyphant, Forest City and North Scranton will leave Monday morning on the 6.29 Delaware and Hudson train to attend the sessions.

They will be accompanied by Grand President Richard H. Williams, Grand Secretary J. J. Williams and other officers.

Dufour's French Tar Has Won Success, It Cures Your Cold And Gives You Rest. FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS.

GREEN RIDGE. Mrs. B. F. Killam, of Capouse avenue, has returned from a visit to Holmdelville.

E. T. Smith, of Wyoming avenue, returned yesterday from a visit to Honesdale.

Print Butter, best in the city. Green Ridge Market.

John Webster, of Green Ridge, will take an extensive business trip to Saratoga and vicinity in a few days.

Strawberries, Green Ridge Market.

William Ellis, of Wyoming avenue, is touring in England. He expects to remain several months.

Mrs. T. J. Johns, wife of Druggist Johns, of Green Ridge street, was called to Canton, N. J., yesterday on account of the serious illness of her father.

Secretary John J. Evans and Grand Treasurer Roger Evans, all of this city. E. E. Robathan will represent Robert Morris lodge, and Gwynn Lewis is the delegate from Dewi Sant lodge.

An effort will be made to have the next annual sessions held in Taylor. The order is the representative Welsh body in America and has a large membership throughout the United States.

FELL FROM A STREET CAR. Mrs. Thomas McConville, of 135 South Summer avenue, attempted to alight from a Taylor car in front of Decker's drug store, last evening at 7.30 o'clock, while the car was in motion, and fell to the pavement, sustaining slight injuries.

Patrolman David J. Davis assisted her into the drug store, and a carriage was summoned from Wynns' livery, which was used in conveying her home. Dr. Eugene Heermans was summoned and attended her. She was painfully, though not seriously injured.

The motorcar had stopped the car to turn the switch lamp near the corner of Main avenue and Jackson street, and the woman attempted to get off just as the car started up. The conductor tried to stop her, but he was too late.

THE WHEELMEN'S MINSTRELS. Nothing but praise was heard on all sides yesterday for the participants in the Wheelmen's minstrels, and inasmuch as many were unable to witness the performance owing to their inability to obtain admission, there is a strong sentiment in favor of another performance.

The managers of the Home for the Friendless are desirous of having the performance repeated in the Lyceum for their benefit, but many of the boys think if a benefit is to be given it should be for the West Side hospital. While nothing has been definitely decided upon, it is quite certain that another performance will be given in the near future.

JACKSON STREET CHURCH NOTES. The singing last Sunday night by the choir was well rendered and appreciated.

On Wednesday evening class No. 3, taught by Miss Norma Nicholls, will hold a social and give an entertainment. The proceeds will be for repairing the church. A good number, we predict, will be present.

The fair and festival will be a success. The ladies have done remarkably well in the sale of tickets, five hundred tickets have already been sold. The object is the repairing of the church. They hope to paint it outside in light color and repair the audience room.

The Sunday school is in a prosperous condition. Be on time to join classes.

NEW PASTOR COMING. Rev. William Davis, of Aberavon, South Wales, is expected to arrive in the city this evening to take charge of the Bellevue Calvinistic Methodist church. He will be accompanied by his wife, three children, and a sister of Mrs. Davis.

It is not definitely known whether or not Rev. Davis will occupy the pulpit tomorrow, but it is probable he will preach in the evening at 6 o'clock.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS. Services over the remains of the late Mrs. Jane Evans were held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Howells, on Washburn street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. James Hughes and Rev. Hugh Davis were the officiating clergymen. The pall-bearers were Joseph Reynolds, Watkin Jones, D. C. Howell, Benjamin Humphreys, Job Harris and Benjamin C. Evans. Burial was made in the Washburn street cemetery.

Jennie, the six-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Lewis, of 130 South Lincoln avenue, died yesterday afternoon, after a lingering illness from scarlet fever. Her remains will be privately interred in the Washburn street cemetery.

The funeral of the late Mrs. William Weitz will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Services will be held at the St. Mark's Lutheran church and will be conducted by Rev. A. L. Ramer. Interment will be made in Washburn street cemetery.

The arrangements for the late Mrs. John Phillips' funeral have been changed and it is consequently the services will be held at 2.30 o'clock this afternoon at St. Patrick's church. The remains will be interred in the Catholic cemetery.

NEWS NOTES AND PERSONALS. Will Jamison, of Washburn street, has returned home from a ten days' visit with friends in New York, Stroudsburg, Mauch Chunk and Slatington.

A party of young people were entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Carr on North Bromley avenue in honor of the elder Mrs. Carr's birthday.

A. J. Carr, who was foreman at the electric light station for a number of years, has accepted a traveling position with the Chicago Electric Manufacturing company.

MANY a dutiful daughter pays in pain for her mother's ignorance or perhaps neglect. The mother suffered and she thinks her daughter must suffer also. This is true only to a limited extent. No excessive pain is healthy. Every mother should inform herself for her own sake and especially for the sake of her daughter. Write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for her advice about all matters concerning the ills of the feminine organs.

INDULGENT MOTHERS

Many a young girl's beauty is wasted by unnecessary pain at time of menstruation, and many indulgent mothers with mistaken kindness permit their daughters to grow careless about physical health.

MISS KARRIE M. LAMB, Big Beaver, Mich., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—A year ago I suffered from profuse and irregular menstruation and leucorrhoea. My appetite was variable, stomach sour and bowels were not regular, and was subject to pains like colic during menstruation. I wrote you and began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used two packages of Sanative Wash. You can't imagine my relief. My courses are natural and general health improved."

MRS. NANNIE ADKINS, La Due, Mo., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM— I feel it my duty to tell you of the good your Vegetable Compound has done my daughter. She suffered untold agony at time of menstruation before taking your medicine; but the Compound has relieved the pain, given her a better color, and she feels stronger, and has improved every way. I am very grateful to you for the benefit she has received. It is a great medicine for young girls."

NEWS NOTES AND PERSONALS. Mrs. Jane Evans were held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Howells, on Washburn street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. James Hughes and Rev. DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

MEETING OF THE LADIES' AID SOCIETY.

Report with Reference to the Industrial School—Services to Be Held Tomorrow in the Various Churches—Funeral of the late Mrs. Gettings Will Be Held This Morning from Her Home on Grove Street—Roma Band Will Give a Concert Tonight.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Albert Mowery, on North Blakely street Thursday afternoon, and, as usual with this popular organization, a large number of the members were present and an interesting and instructive time followed.

After the close of a somewhat lengthy business session a report from the industrial school, which is supported by the Presbyterian church, was read by Miss Nettie King. The report covered the field of work gone over by the management of the school for the past four years and showed that 250 pupils had been enrolled in that time and instructed in the various departments of kindergarten work.

A large number of articles of clothing had been made and given to needy persons.

At the close of Miss King's report Miss Emma Ludwig played a pleasing solo on the piano-forte. Miss Sallie Price gave a reading, and Miss Ruby E. Yost sang a solo in a charming manner. Later refreshments were served and social chat ensued until adjournment was made. The next meeting will be on Thursday, June 2.

SERVICES TOMORROW. The services at the Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow will be of special interest, inasmuch as the Rev. L. L. Sprague, D. D., of Wyoming seminary, Kingston, who has many friends in the borough, will preach at the morning and evening services. The other services will be as usual during the day. Seats are free and all made welcome.

The pastor of the Dudley Street Baptist church, Rev. J. L. Kremer, will preach tomorrow morning at 10.30 o'clock and evening at 7.30 o'clock. The morning subject will be "The Joyful Sound"; the evening subject, "One Thing Needful." Sunday school will be held at 12 o'clock; prayer meeting as usual. Rev. Kremer will sing a solo at the close of the evening service.

The services at the First Presbyterian church, W. F. Gibbons as pastor will deliver the morning sermon at 10.30 o'clock, followed by Sunday school; evening sermon at 7.30 o'clock; Christian Endeavor meeting preceding the evening service.

NEWSY PARAGRAPHS. The funeral of the late Mrs. Gettings, who died at the home on Grove street, Thursday morning, will be held this morning at 9 o'clock. A high mass of requiem will be celebrated in St. Mary's Catholic church, after which interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery.

The Italian Roma band will march to the corners this evening and play several selections. Later they will retire to Keystone hall, on South Blakely street, where the rest of the evening will be spent.

Miss Agnes Seekin, of Jefferson avenue, will leave this morning for New York city, where she will sail for England, later touring Germany. A reception was held at an evening at which farewells were spoken.

Sarah F. Reed died yesterday morning at the Lackawanna hospital. Scranton, aged 76 years. She was the wife of John Reed, of 1023 James street, Scranton. Undertaker T. J. Leachworth took the remains in charge. The funeral will be held Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Dunmore cemetery.

PERSONAL BITS. Mr. Burr Vail, of Scott, was a caller in town yesterday.

A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell is slowly recovering from a severe illness of pneumonia.

Two children of William H. Wilson, of Dudley street, are gravely ill. Mrs. J. J. Brown is ill at her home on Chestnut street.

E. Robinson's Sons' May Bock. Beer on tap today.

Traveling for Recreation. Most people look upon traveling as a tiresome bore; they do not look for recreation until the end of their journey. It is different on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway. The cars on this road are the most comfortable and airy that modern skill can devise. Courteous attendants are always on hand to minister to the wants of patrons. The road is so perfect that the jolt and jar usually experienced in traveling is almost unperceptible, while the scenery along this road is picturesque and entertaining.

Those who travel via the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway admit that a trip on this famous railway is full of pleasure and enjoyment.

OBITUARY. The death of Miss Bessie Whitmore, yesterday morning, was a great shock to the community, few knowing of her illness. She was stricken with pneumonia a week ago, and despite the heroic efforts of friends and physicians, the brave, sweet spirit fled yesterday, leaving a most appalling void in her family, whose grief-stricken hearts have been such that she was almost the only woman in the city who was not a member of the bereaved family. Miss Whitmore was a young woman of fine culture and a beautiful character. Some time ago she left an excellent position at the headquarters of a New England city to be at home and assist her mother in the care of an invalid father. At the time of her death she was teaching in No. 27 school, a number of children, and a noble wife and motherhood she had endeavored to a large circle of friends in this city, where she will be sincerely mourned. The funeral will take place
