The afternoon meeting was convened at 2:30 o'clock with an appreciative audience. Elders J. P. Roberts, J. E. Baird and D. Spilbury were the speakers, the former two dwelling respectively on the subjects of faith, coupled with works and the Holy Ghost, its character and powers; the latter on the earth in its paradise glory and the millennial reign. The evening session commenced at 7:30 o'clock with a large attendance. The meeting was presided over by D. Spilbury. Elder Joseph Finlison spoke first on gospel history. He also spoke on the Book of Mormon as an inspired record, given in fulfillment of Bible prophecy. Elder E. H. Snow, of the mission presidency, followed. Sample Silk Waists

It is very rarely that we trouble ourselves with sample lines. As a rule they're unmarketable for regular trade because of size limits, poor condition or other faults, hence the reason why we have made it a point to strenuously avoid all offers of sample lots.

But This is a Notable Exception

We have not bought merely a handful of out of condition odds and ends, but all the exhibition waists of the latest manufacture in the trader as well as the samples of every man on the road for the firm.

This Makes the Purchase Gigantic

by a slight fire in a clothes closet in the home of David Atkinson. A quantity of clothing and the woodwork in the closet were burned. The damage was trifling.

MAY GO TO BUFFALO. David Williams, of Bellevue, the promising young pitcher of the Bloomburg State Normal school team, spent Sunday here with his parents. He will graduate next month, and intends to remain at school until the close of the term.

In reference to the statement published in several papers that he will play with Wilkes-Barre this season, Mr. Williams authorizes the announcement that he will not join the Barons and did not at any time negotiate with them. Manager Climer wrote him and made him an offer, which he declined.

Previous to that time Manager Shannon, of Buffalo, sent him an offer, which he held under advisement. He wanted more money than Shannon was willing to pay, and when a compromise was effected, Williams signed a Buffalo contract, to report at the close of the school term.

Last Friday Manager Shannon telegraphed him to report at once, as he was in need of pitchers, having released Jimson and Milligan to Scranton. It was impossible for David to go to Buffalo on account of his examinations, and if Buffalo cannot wait until the close of school, Williams will not play there.

He has received an offer from Springfield, N. Y., to play independent ball, where he made such a splendid record last season, and may go there the latter part of June. Williams has pitched three games for Bloomburg this season, winning all of them, and keeping up his good work of last season. He is in excellent condition.
